

Their responses are a great and helpful guide to the work of the Institute. The work of the Institute is a great and helpful guide to the work of the Institute. The work of the Institute is a great and helpful guide to the work of the Institute.

David G. ...

Professor ...

David ...

The interviews ...

The heavy task of transcribing the interview tapes ...

A record of Canadian involvement in NATO, and Western defence efforts and diplomacy: interviews with twelve senior public servants, diplomats and military officers.

Deputy ...

Mary Taylor ...

Other Institute staff who helped with various parts of the work ...

The Contributors also participated actively in the review and revision process ...

all to being ...

by Roger Hill,
Senior Research Fellow,
Canadian Institute for International Peace and Security

December, 1991