

ARTICLE 5

1. The Government of the Republic of Estonia shall issue to Canadian citizens qualified to benefit from the application of this Agreement a visa that allows the visa holder to work and reside temporarily in Republic of Estonia for the duration of their authorized stay.

2. The Government of Canada shall issue to Estonian citizens who hold a valid letter of introduction, upon their arrival in Canada and without reference to its labour market situation, a work permit valid for the duration of their authorized stay, provided they meet all requirements of the Canadian immigration legislation.

ARTICLE 6

Work permits issued by the Government of Canada pursuant to a letter of introduction shall be valid throughout Canada. Visas issued by the Government of the Republic of Estonia shall be valid throughout the Republic of Estonia.

ARTICLE 7

1. Qualified citizens from either of the two countries who are benefiting from the application of this Agreement are subjects to the laws in force in the host country, particularly with regard to the practice of regulated professions.

2. The laws and regulations of the host country relating to unemployment benefits, working conditions and wages shall apply. In the case of Canada, the laws and regulations relating to working conditions and wages primarily fall within the jurisdiction of the provinces and territories.

ARTICLE 8

The Parties shall encourage the organizations concerned in their respective countries to lend their support to the application of this Agreement, particularly by giving appropriate advice to citizens of the other country so that they can obtain information and look for work placements or employment.
