

THE DEBATE ON THE CONSTITUTION

The speaker has just finished his speech and has been very successful in his argument. He has shown that the proposed changes are necessary for the good of the country and that they will be supported by the people. He has also shown that the opposition is weak and that they are only making a last-ditch effort to prevent the changes from being passed.

The speaker has also pointed out that the changes will be of great benefit to the country and that they will be supported by the people. He has also shown that the opposition is weak and that they are only making a last-ditch effort to prevent the changes from being passed.
