Dear Sir Arthur,

It is very long since I have written or heard & I feel it is my fault, as I do not think I have ever answered a long & most interesting letter from you.
We lately saw the Pierketts & heard about your new palatial home, with its swimming bath & ball room & a floor set apart for each member of the family (I am we were told had a flat to himself on the top floor!). Well at least you must be glad to be out of hotels & I am glad you have a home of your own. They also
