

precise figure quoted nor to request unreasonable terms. I should like to act moderately, and reasonably, on this point, and, I know, from what Dr. Purser says, that I may expect similar consideration from you. Perhaps you would let me have your views on the matter at your convenience? At any rate I would try to meet you.

I assume also that if I go to Montreal I should be allowed a first-class passage out, as usual.

I shall be glad to know also when I may expect to hear - before Easter I hope - that the matter is decided. If it would at all convenient you, and if you offer me the vacancy, I shall immediately cable my decision.

I very much regret troubling you with matters of this kind but it is more satisfactory to give early information on these points rather than to defer them until the last.

Yours faithfully,

Herbert Tate
