

8. And be it further enacted, That no Religious Tests or subscriptions shall be required of the Professors, Fellows, Scholars, Graduates, Students or Officers of the said College; but that all the privileges and advantages thereof, shall be open and free to all and every Person and Persons whomsoever, without regard to Religious persuasion; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees and Governors of the said College, to select as Professors and other Teachers or Officers, competent persons of any Religious Persuasion whatever, provided such Person or Persons shall be of moral and religious character.

9. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force for twelve years, and from thence to the end of the then next session of the General Assembly.

10. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not come into operation or be of any force or effect, until Her Majesty's assent shall be signified thereto.

AN ACT TO AMEND AN ACT FOR INCORPORATING THE TRUSTEES OF THE 'QUEEN'S COLLEGE' AT HORTON.

(Passed the 29th day of March, A.D. 1841.)

Whereas, by an Act, passed at the last Session of the Assembly, in the third year of Her Majesty's Reign, entitled, An Act for incorporating the Trustees of the Queen's College, at Horton—the Trustees and Governors of a Collegiate Institution, established at Horton, by the Baptist Nova Scotia Education Society, under the name of the Queen's College, were Incorporated under the name of the Trustees, Governors, and Fellows of the Queen's College; And whereas, the Right Honourable Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies has been pleased, on behalf of Her Majesty, to acquaint His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province, by a despatch, of which a copy has been laid before the Legislative Council and Assembly that objections exist to the Title of the Queen's College, by which the said Collegiate Institution is designated in the said Act; but that as the details of the said Act were unexceptionable, it was retained to receive Her Majesty's confirmation, upon being amended in that respect; And whereas, the Executive Committee of the said Society, being the Trustees of the said Collegiate Institution, have petitioned the Legislature that an Act might accordingly be passed for amending the said Act, by changing the name of the said Institution, and that the said Institution might be called therein, Acadia College:

1. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That the said Collegiate Institution shall be called and known by the name of Acadia College, and not by the name of the Queen's College; and that the Trustees, Governors and Fellows thereof, shall be called and known by the name of the Trustees, Governors and Fellows of Acadia College, and not by the name of
