

- takes possession for France of, 52; 153, 203.
- Manitouline, the, 27.
- Manitoumie (Mississippi Valley), 485.
- Manitous, 26, 44, 68.
- Maps, Champlain's map (the first) of the Great Lakes, 476; Coronelli's map, 221, 484; manuscript map of Franquelin, 169, 221, 316, 317, 347, 390, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485; map of Galinée, 475; map of Lake Superior, 476; map of the Great Lakes, 476; map of Marquette, 477; maps of the Jesuits, 478; small maps of Joliet, 479, 480; Raudin's map, 481; rude map of Father Raffeix, 481; Franquelin's map of Louisiana, 482; the great map of Franquelin, 482; map of Le Sueur, 481, 485; map of Homannus, 484.
- Margry, birth of La Salle, 7; La Salle's connection with the Jesuits, 8; La Salle sells his seignior, 16; La Salle's claims to the discovery of the Mississippi, 34, 35; throws much light on the life of Joliet, 58, 77; La Salle's marriage prevented by his brother, 114; La Salle at Fort Frontenac, 121; assistance given to La Salle, 127; Henri de Tonty, 128, 130, 132; La Motte at Niagara, 140; La Salle pacifies the Senecas, 142; La Salle at Niagara, 148; La Salle attacked by his creditors, 150; the names of the Illinois, 167; intrigues against La Salle, 175; brings to light the letters of La Salle, 281, 296, 342; letters of Beaujeu to Seignelay and to Cabart de Villermont, 365; La Salle's disputes with Beaujeu, 366; illness of La Salle, 368; La Salle resumes his voyage, 372; La Salle lauds in Texas, 379; Beaujeu makes friendly advances to La Salle, 386, 387; misery and dejection at Matagorda Bay, 393; life at Fort St. Louis, 400; the murder of Duhaute and Lotot, 449; Allouez's fear of La Salle, 459.
- Marle, Sieur de, 421; murders Morranget, 427; sets out for home, 451; drowned, 453.
- Marons, the, 477.
- Marquette, Jacques, the Jesuit, at Ste. Marie du Saut, 27; voyage of, 32; discovery of the Mississippi, 33; among the Hurons and the Ottawas, 40; at the Jesuit mission of St. Esprit, 40; the mission of Michilimackinac assigned to, 41; 51; chosen to accompany Joliet in his search for the Mississippi, 59; early life of, 59; on the Upper Lakes, 59; great talents as a linguist, 59; traits of character, 59; journal of his voyage to the Mississippi, 60; especially devoted to the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception, 61; at the Green Bay Mission, 62; among the Mascoutins and Miamis, 62; on the Wisconsin River, 63; the Mississippi at last, 64; on the Mississippi, 65; map drawn by, 65; meeting with the Illinois, 66; affrighted by the Indian manitous, 68; at the mouth of the Missouri, 69; on the lower Mississippi, 71; among the Arkansas Indians, 72; determines that the Mississippi discharges into the Gulf of Mexico, 74; resolves