

TO

ARTHUR MILLS, Esq.

---

MY DEAR MILLS,

To your introductions I am indebted for some of the most valuable acquaintance I formed in Canada and the United States ; and I cannot, I think, better evince my appreciation of them, and of your kindness, than by dedicating to you the following pages.

While engaged with you in labours which we believed would benefit the colonies and their future inhabitants, I first learned justly to appreciate those noble possessions of the British crown ; and I feel that the adoption of your enlightened views has
