

out a special order from the officer commanding the Garrison or Post, or from the Head-Quarters of the District: and copies of all orders of that nature, received by Barrack-Masters, must be sent to the Deputy-Barrack-Master General, at Halifax.

Barracks being delivered and furnished, the Barrack Master will make out a correct inventory thereof, specifying the names of the officers occupying each apartment, and the number of non-commissioned officers and privates, and the quantity of bedding, furniture and utensils, in each room, also the state and condition (minutely detailed) in which every article, and particularly glass, locks, plaistering, &c. &c. were delivered in, and will require the commanding officer to sign the same: a duplicate of which he will transmit to the head of the Department in the District, with his return of Stores, &c. as aforesaid.

VIII. He shall also, accompanied by the commanding officer or quarter-master, or some person acting as such, inspect the barracks, bedding, &c. in use of the troops, once in each month (viz. between the 20th and 24th days) renewing the Inventories, and charging the Regiment with all Deficiencies and Damages, except such Damages as he is conscious have arisen from fair wear only, at the prices established in Scale No. 7: and will remit the amount to the head of the Department as before directed: but if it should appear that the
