

recitation or examination ; and that proper books of exercises in the different branches be duly and regularly kept by all the Scholars of the different Classes.

VIII.

That there be two Public Examinations in each year of all the Pupils of the Academy held in the Library of King's College in the presence of the Council there to be assembled for that purpose ; the first to be held in the last week of Trinity Term, and the second in the last week of Michaelmas Term ; at which examinations the Council shall require an account of the work of the preceding half year to be submitted to them, and the books of exercises of all the Pupils of the several classes to be exhibited for inspection.

IX.

That there be two Vacations in the year to commence the day after the Semi-annual Examinations : the Summer vacation to be four weeks, and the Winter vacation to be a fortnight.