

WOMAN'S WORLD.

A VERY PRETTY NIGHT DRESS.

6777.—The new styles in lingerie seem to be more pleasing than ever, and the fastidious woman may find all her hopes realized. A great many make their own underwear, and for such, the pattern shown will be of great value. The style is quite different from the shop-made gowns, and very practical and becoming. The half-yokes in front give opportunity for some dainty detail, while the centre front is left free to be gathered up on ribbons. This makes the neck wider, and hence easier to be slipped on over the head. The sleeves may be either of elbow length and free, or long and finished in bishop style. Any of the fine lingerie materials may be used for the gown. The medium size calls for 5 1/2 yards of 35-inch material.

IF PA'D BEEN THERE.

Some burglars came to town the other night. And got in Guthrie's house and helped themselves. To nearly everything there was in sight. Or locked in drawers or piled up on the shelves. And Mrs. Guthrie hardly drew his breath. 'Cause Mrs. Guthrie said he didn't dare. Those burglars would have both got scared to death.

If pa'd been there.

When Russia didn't whip the Japanese. Pa told us it was Kurapatkin's fault. He ought of won as easy as you please. The trouble was he wasn't worth his salt. I'll bet the Japs would a' been wishin' yet.

Last Christmas Uncle Fred sent me a book. About the fight they had at Waterloo. It tells you of the part Napoleon took. Pa says he bit off more than he could chew. And ma thinks that the Duke of Wellington. Who, as the poet says, stood up four square.

Most likely would of gone home on the run. If pa'd been there. Once when pa was telling ma and me. About the flood and Noah and the ark. He said he couldn't even seem to see. Way Noah let the rats and mice embark. And ma said: "I suppose he didn't know. How they'd increase and woe we'd have to bear." They'd never of got up the gang plank, tho.

LOUIS HARCOURT NAMED TO SUCCEED JAMES BRYCE

The Irish Secretaryship Seems to Have Been Awarded to a "Dark Horse."

London, Jan. 9.—Louis Harcourt, Liberal member of parliament from Lancashire, and son of the late Sir Wm. Harcourt, is understood to have been appointed to the Irish secretaryship, to succeed James Bryce.

Mr. Harcourt to-day said that he "never denied such announcements." This is in conformity with precedents, as official announcements in such cases come from the premier. The appointment would, however, be a political world, as Mr. Harcourt has not been considered a candidate for the post. Mr. Harcourt's selection, however, is regarded as peculiarly appropriate, not only because of his father's lifelong advocacy of home rule for Ireland and his staunch support of Mr. Gladstone when the Liberal split on this question, but also because his wife is an American (formerly Miss Burns, daughter of the late Wm. Burns of New York), and her sympathies would therefore be more in accordance with the Irish Nationalist aspirations than would be expected in the case of an English woman.

"RAPIDS KING" LAUNCHED.

New Steamer for the R. & O. is About at Foot of Bathurst St.

A large crowd yesterday at 1 o'clock witnessed the launching of a new passenger steamer being built by the Canadian Shipbuilding Company for the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company. The new boat is 260 feet in length, and will have at least double the passenger accommodation that the present boats have. It will be fitted up in keeping with the "Toronto" and the "Kingston."

On a signal from the general manager of the shipbuilding company, A. Angstrom, the boat left the launching ways and glided into the water. Mrs. Caverhill of Montreal, wife of the chairman of the executive committee of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, named the steamer "The Rapids King," with the usual ceremony of breaking a bottle on the bow. Mrs. Caverhill was presented with a handsome bouquet by the management.

Afterwards the directors of the R. & O. Company and other guests, to a luncheon at the King Edward Hotel by Frederic Nicholls, president of the Canadian Shipbuilding Company.

Among those present at the luncheon were: Hon. E. B. Garneau, Hon. Mr. Langille, Rudolph Forget, John Molson, H. M. Molson, George Caverhill, Col. Stark, Andrew Wilson, president Stock Exchange, Montreal; C. J. Smith, J. E. O'Donoghue, Thos. Henry, H. Foster, Chaffee, Captain Gilbert Johnston, Mr. Matheson, president Board of Trade, Montreal; Mr. Brown, R. & O. of Hamilton; Mr. Carter, district passenger and freight agent, R. & O. Toronto; Mr. Freeland, Mr. Joseph Kilgour, Mr. Aemilius J. J. McCrobie, Montreal; W. R. Brock, Frederic Nicholls, H. G. Nicholls, W. D. Matthews, J. H. G. Hagarty, A. Angstrom, Massey Morris, J. S. Playfair, W. B. Stewart.

Frederic Nicholls proposed a toast to the R. & O. Co., and referred to the enterprise of that company in building a new ship every year, so that their fleet, with the completion of the new boat, will be one that is creditable to any navigation company on this continent. This toast was replied to by Rudolph Forget, president of the R. & O., who complimented the shipbuilding company very highly on their ability to design and build steamers of such a high class, and stated that the satisfaction of his company was evidenced by the fact that they had in almost every case awarded their contracts for years back, to the Canadian Shipbuilding Company.

GERMANY DOESN'T LIKE TALK OF DISARMAMENT

But Has Been Waiting for Months to Send Delegates to Peace Conference.

Berlin, Jan. 9.—The German government was ready months ago to send delegates to the second peace conference at The Hague, but no hint came from St. Petersburg regarding its date.

As Germany has never taken the initiative in peace conference matters there is a feeling that if an enquiry is to be made of Emperor Nicholas concerning the probable date of the meeting it ought to come from some other government, the United States, for instance, which made the first move in this matter, or Great Britain, whose premier takes a deep interest in the conference.

The question of the suspension of armaments, which is attracting attention in the United States and Great Britain, is also a subject which can scarcely be discussed by responsible German statesmen without impatience. The declaration of the French premier, M. Clemenceau, regarding the necessity that France be prepared for instant war, is considered by the German government to be expressing the temper of the present French administration and as being alone a sufficient indication of the fact that the limitation of armaments by agreement is not yet within the bounds of practical statesmanship.

AN ENGINEER'S HEROISM.

Driven From Locomotive by Explosion, Risked Life to Stop Train.

Boone, Iowa, Jan. 9.—After running for several miles at high speed with an engine out of control, by the blowing out of a "stud" in its boiler, the Chicago and Northwestern fast mail train No. 10 was barely saved from destruction near here last night by the heroism of Louis Shull, a fireman on the train. From his cab by the scalding vapors and boiling waters. Realizing that he could not reach the throttle, he climbed over the tender to the engine cab and hammered on the door. The express messenger, fearing robbers, refused him admission. The engineer, however, finally opened the door, he aimed two revolvers at Shull's head. The engineer, bleeding and exhausted, dragged himself into the cab and with his remaining strength pulled the rope connecting the air brakes, stopping the train.

STATUE TO THE POPE.

20 Feet High and Erected at Cost of $12,000 by Cardinals.

Rome, Jan. 9.—In the presence of Tadolin, the sculptor, the statue of the late Pope Leo XIII., which is 20 feet high, to-day was raised above the door leading to the sacristy of the Church of St. John Lateran, to the left of the altar. It is expected that the monument, which will cost $12,000, will be paid for among the cardinals created by Pope Leo, who were alive when the late pontiff died.

It is likely that the body of the late Pope will be moved to the Church of St. John Lateran in February.

WAS ONCE A QUEEN.

Death of the Widow of King George V. of Hanover.

Gmunden, Upper Austria, Jan. 9.—The Princess Mary of Saxe-Altenburg, former queen of Hanover, who has been suffering for some time past from lung trouble, died at her residence here, which was performed Jan. 6, died to-day. She was the widow of King George V. of Hanover, who was deposed in 1866, when the kingdom was annexed by Prussia because the Hanoverians took the Austrian side in the war with Prussia.

A Week-End at Niagara Falls. A pleasant place than Niagara Falls, Ont., in which to spend a winter week-end would be hard to find. Easily reached after a short journey over the Canadian Pacific Railway's scenic line, via Welland. One is landed at Victoria Park station, convenient for the hotels that are making the Canadian shore of the Falls as well patronized as the American, and the neighborhood has winter charms in many respects. Past trains leave Toronto at convenient hours daily, via C.P.R. 345

London Firemen Injured. London, Jan. 9.—A fire occurred in South London early this morning, which completely gutted the old Trobriock Hall, at Wortley-road, and Bruce-street, causing damage to the extent of nearly $3500, on which the total insurance amounts to $2300.

An ax slipped off the verandah roof and struck Foreman Mason on the head, inflicting a nasty scalp wound. Fireman Oles also met with a slight mishap, being struck on the back by falling eavestrough.

The Home First-Aid.

Accidents will happen in the best regulated families, and the necessity of keeping a reliable first-aid for home use cannot be too strongly insisted upon. Where a box of Zam-Buk is kept on a handy shelf, no member of the family is at a loss in emergency. The breadwinner dresses his injuries with Zam-Buk, and knows that its powerful antiseptic action will clean out the wound, preventing suppuration or poisoning. The housewife files to the useful little box for her bruises, cuts, and burns, and the little ones cry out for Zam-Buk when they fall, because they know it will soothe the smarting pain and heal quickly. Zam-Buk is a pure healing balm made from rich medicinal herbs, the saps and juices of which are cleverly combined and concentrated, and wonderfully refined. Many modern preparations contain quantities of animal fats and mineral poisons, and are not only coarse, irritating, and unreliable, but tend to create the very complications which should be guarded against. The Zam-Buk way is both different and superior. This natural healing balm takes out the smart and soothes the pain, reduces the inflammation, and induces a clean and rapid healing right away. It kills microbes, nullifies the effects of dirt and poisonous substances, and finally helps Nature to build up new tissue to replace that which has been damaged or destroyed.

How Zam-Buk Cured Child and Father in one Home

Mr. Alf. J. Clark, of Cavendish St., London (Ont.) says:—"I got my hands so severely burned with lime that as I worked with my shovel, the blood actually ran down the handle. The agony I suffered you may well imagine. I tried several different kinds of salves but the burns were too severe for these preparations to heal them. Then I tried Zam-Buk and the first few applications gave me ease. In a short time this balm healed the burns, deep as they were, and since then my hands have felt better—muscles more firm and skin in better condition than before the injury."

My little daughter, while playing in the house one day, fell and lacerated her hand severely against the stove. She ran to her mother crying and my wife, knowing the benefit I had received from Zam-Buk, put some on the child's burns. The little one stopped crying almost immediately, so soothing was the balm, and in a very short time her hands were all right again."

What You Should Use Zam-Buk For

Zam-Buk is absolutely unique in its power and in the variety of its uses. For skin injuries and diseases of all kinds it is at the same time a sure antiseptic and a quick healer. It is especially recommended for eczema, scald sores, ulcers, burns, cuts, bruises, abscesses, poisoned wounds, old sores, wounds and sores which refuse to close under ordinary treatment, rashes, face sores, babies chafing sores, chapped hands, cold sores, chilblains, etc.

All Druggists sell at 50c a box, or may be obtained by sending price to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 6 boxes for $2.50. Send one cent for daily sample box and test it as our expense.
