It was a battle in which much ill-feeling cropped out between the individual players at several points, both teams being out to win by as big a score as possible. With the intense rivalry, the playing was of the fastest character. Both sides performed some wonderful stunts in the field, the visitors especially showing brilliant work. Mitchell did his part to bring off the victory, aside from his twirling. He had six chances, and every one was of the double star order. Frick, Phyle and Schafly also cut down men when things looked safe.

The solitary score came in the last half of the sixth. Phelan was the first up, and singled past Phyle. Peterson breezed a pretty hit, to centre, putting Phelan on third. Crawford hit to Phyle's territory and was the victim of a great stop and throw, but Phelan scored. Schafly was put out of the game by Umpire Conway for kicking too strongly when called out on strikes. Manager Kelley sent a youngster to left field from the Empire State League. He looks like a ball player, but was easy for Barry, popping a fly to Abstein once and fanning twice. When Schafly was put out of the game, Dolan, a left-hand pitcher, was sent into centre field, and made a muff of Abstein's fly, his only chance. He comes from the Holyoke team of the Connecticut League. The score:

GRACE CHURCH WINNERS

Deer Park Beaten in Final Cricket Game That Was a Bowlers'

The final game between Grace Church citing and eventful struggle, resulted in a victory for Grace Church. On a splendid wicket, the game developed into a bowlers' battle, and the result was doubtful until the end. Deer Park C.C. batted first and were disposed of for 24 runs. The bowling of Nutt, who secured 7 wickets for 8 runs, and Attwood, who took 3 for 15, completely beat the eastern men. F. Hutty's 7 being the highest score. Grace Church responded with 65, the ninth wicket bringing the score from 23 to 57, thanks to the plucky and hard-hitting of Wallcott, who cheerfully took all kinds of chances and hit the bowling all over the field for a merry 32. With a deficit of 41 runs to make up, Deer Park entered upon their second venture, and at one time looked as if they would retrieve their position. T. Swan, by free but careful hitting carried out his bat for an invaluable 22 and was supported by Seftin, who made 10, and F. Hutty, who, coming in last, played a lively innings for 3, thus putting in 13 runs for the last wicket. The innings closed for 61, leaying Grace Church 21 runs to get to win.

This appeared to be an easy task, but a hard struggle for victory. Wallcott marked his advent by a three-hit and by lively play placed the result beyond doubt, securing the winning hit by a snick to leg for 1, scoring 11 runs in all
