The necessity of rejecting the contration of this subject is seen in the tement that this question will e up all our time, as a great many akers have already said, and the member for South Oxford (Sir hard Cartwright) stated, "This is the beginning of the question."

t if we pass this bill the time of the use next session will be taken up amending this act, and we know, m a question placed on the paper other day, that the bishops of the thwest Territories have a school evance, and if this legislation passon remedy the grievance in Manitostevance, and it this legislation pass-es to remedy the grievance in Manito-ba, there will assuredly be a school question in the Northwest Territories, and if we continue to entertain these proposals, there will be nothing dis-cussed in this House for some sessions except race and creed issues. Bar the Door Against Them.

Bar the Boor Against Them.

As a young man, and a Canadian proud of my country, I appeal to this House to bar the door against these questions, and keep them out and devote our energies to the improvement of our country the promotion of our industries and the building of this great Dominion. No party, whether it is the conservative party of the Remparty, can stand the strain of such questions as this and which we have had before us during the last three or four years. BOARD OF WORKS AMENDS THE AQUEDUCT AGREEMENT.

The Board of Works at a specia The Board of Works at a special meeting considered the draft agreement between the Aqueduct Company and the corporation. Most of four hours was taken up by squabbling and wrangling. It was a notable fact that the usual ghosts who are supposed to represent the company were not present, which left Ald. Leslie and Present is only representatives. As usual ton its only representatives. As usua they fought every clause that the other members wished to insert for the protection of the city's interests. The Chairman Mikes a meveration

The Chairman M. kes a neveration.

Business was commenced by Chairman Lamb informing his committee that the company was said to be making an attempt to purchase 10,000 cop.es of the Mansergh report, printed from the same forms as will be used for printing the copies ordered by the City Council, with certain alterations to suit the company's interests. The chairman asked if the committee wished to take any action in the matter.

Ald. Saunders—Oh, tell the printer to get his money in advance and that will settle it.

The opinion of the City Solicitor will General Sessions.

In the Sessions yesterday Henry Falls, Lander Bear and Thomas J. Campbell appealed from a decision of the Police Magistrate given last. December fining them $20 each and costs. The appeal was dismissed.

Edward Williams pleaded guilty when arraigned on the charge of holding up a cierk in Thos. S. Watson's drug store at Weston at the point of a revolver and stealing $7. Sentence was deferred, an order being made to impound the revolver.

Ald. Leslie and Preston objected strongly, but the resolution carried, but only for a short time, as after further wrangling it was reconsidered on the ground that the city might get tangled up in damage suits.

The deposit to be left with the City
Treasurer was increased from $5000 to $10,000.

City Discisius Responsibility.

Ald. Boustead's motion to insert a clause that the city did not approve of nor endorse the scheme of constructing a canal or power aqueduct and will in no way be accountable for the company succeeding or failing to carry out its undertaking was carried.

Another motion by Ald. Boustead carried; that the company is forthwith requested to supply to the city a statement showing the names of the stockholders of the company and the amount of stock held by each and also the amount paid up by each upon such stock and whether any preferred stock has been issued and to whom, and for what purpose. Also a statement showing the names of the present directors and officers of the company before any agreement is executed.

The draft agreement was sent on to the Council.

A number of items were reinserted in the estimates.

The report of the Engineer in reference to reduction of staff was adopted, in spite of Ald. Boustead's opposition, who wished it threshed out in Council. At 7.30 the meeting adjourned, after ERRORS OF YOUNG & OLD
