sent to an Application for a Flat.

Deputy Attorney-General Cartwright has handed out his judgment in the application made on be-alit of property-owners or North Dufferin-street to have the Attorney-General consent to the issuing of a fiast to compel the city to open the street into the Queen-street subway from the north. Mr. Cartwright says that it appears to him the facts and arguments so far presented are such as to lead to a conclusion adverse to the application. To say the least, it seems doubtful whether the opening into the subway would be of any substantial benefit. Persons living on Dufferinstreet or using Dufferin-street can now obtain what appears to be easy access to Queen-street by Gladstone-avenue on the cast and by way of Florence-street and Brock-avenue on the west. In addition to this, the parties interested seem to have delayed unreasonably in taking any effective measures to ascert their rights. If the property-owners on Dufferin-street feel that they were injuriously affected by the closing of the street, they certainly ought to the have taken decisive steps at an earlier day.

She will run to Stickeen and St. Mcchrel's, and the company announce that they will see passengers clear to any destination to which they may devire to be ticketed.

A declure on the eye and its defects was delivered by Mr. W. G. K isman in Holy Trivity school house last evening. The lecturer, besides explaining the anatomy and physiology of the organ, showed the important place it head in literature, being used by the poets to express the thoughts and emotions of the naind. A vote of thanks was crede the secturer, who fittingly responded.

The totals for these years are as follows: 1805, 10,550,000 bush.; 1806, 12,000,000 bush.; 1897, 17,000,000 bush.

It is said that the firm of S F McKinnon & Co. will shortly remove from Bay-street to the handsome new premists now being erected by Mr. McKinnon at the northeast corner of York and Wellington-streets; also that the Merchants' Dyelng and Finishing Co. will remove to Front-street west at a very early date.
