

T. EATON CO. CANADA'S GREATEST STORE

Early Closing - Saturdays at 1 O'Clock.

Closing Saturdays at 1 o'clock during July and August is a fact we cannot emphasize too strongly. Last week some came after the doors were closed and said they "didn't know." That's why we keep hammering away at it, and reminding you daily that this is the one store that closes regularly at 5 o'clock and Saturdays at 1 o'clock during the summer months. This Early Closing is solely in the interests of salespeople, and sensible people endorse it as a movement in the right direction and encourage it by making their purchases early in the day—before noon, if possible.

To-morrow we close at 1 o'clock. That makes us work like beavers to go through in time. In order to bring the crowds at eight o'clock, instead of twelve, we shall place these goods on sale when the doors open Saturday morning:

Trimmed Hats for 1.69.

THE PREMIER'S SALARY.
The Montreal Gazette comes out squarely, and on very good grounds, for an increase in the salary of the Prime Minister of Canada. It says:

It is not creditable to this country that its chosen leader should be driven to financial suits to make provision for his family, and that the well-known fact that his official income is not adequate to the demands of his position should be the occasion for stories of debt and projected testimonials. The serious illness and strained circumstances of the Prime Minister, which made him the recipient of a tribute from his friends which did credit to their generosity, and which was none the less regrettable, in addition to the fact that John Thompson died in such circumstances that Parliament felt called upon to provide for his family, are not the kind of things which should be the basis of a salary. As the years have gone by, and Canada has grown bigger, the expenses entailed by holding high office have greatly increased, and no one familiar with what is expected when the Prime Minister in the way of social entertainment believes that it is possible for him to do so on a salary of $20,000 a year. The claims upon him increase year by year, and the fact remains that the increased expenditure. The expenses of living in Ottawa and the scale of social entertainments all over the country have greatly advanced since the Prime Minister's salary was fixed at $20,000 a year. There are few salaries attached to positions approaching it in importance which are not at very much higher figures. It may be argued that the best money goes into politics to make money, and we have lost nothing by paying a small salary. That is probably true, but the fact remains that the Prime Minister should have a salary which will enable him to discharge his social duties of his station, and should not have to be dependent on the state and the demands of hungry politicians and the worries of small economies and private details. The country is prosperous and can afford to pay an adequate salary to the Prime Minister. If it put an end to the unpleasant stories about gifts from contractors and the undignified projects of gifts from political supporters.

THE DISPUTED BOUNDARY.
The Canadian public these days are being treated to a lot of news items—some of them originating in the American papers and some in the Canadian papers—concerning the disputed Alaskan boundary. Canada is charged with attempting to make a grab, and in other ways of trying to get the best of Uncle Sam. Running through all these news items and the various claims of the American papers are two ideas. First, that the disputed territory really belongs to the United States, and second, that it is an actual possession of the people of that country. If the territory is really theirs, of course we have no right to take it, but that is the very point in dispute, and all Canada is urging is that some reasonable method be taken to ascertain the true boundary. The Canadian people seem to be infected with another practical idea, namely, that if a few Americans happen to be settled on the disputed territory, and declared afterwards to belong to this country, they would not be prepared to give it up. They claim everything, and having claimed everything, talk as if they were really owners of it and in full possession. While the United States people seem to be infected with the idea of the "discovery" of the land, we do not see why we should accept them, but, on the contrary, to hold their patience until the final award is made.

HURRY ON THE WORK.
The City Council next week must let the contracts and get the market improvement under way. The old City Hall is now practically derelict and a new one must be built. The aldermen have an opportunity at their first meeting in the new City Hall to consummate this scheme of utilizing the old. The occasion would be an eminently fitting one, and they should not allow it to pass. It is true the tenders are not yet in, but the by-law limit by a few thousand, but this should be the less a consideration when they recall that they have neither the estimate nor the approved plan. They must remember that had they contracted for the work when the estimate was made, they would not have had the rise in price of material and labor to contend with, as they have now. The new market scheme has now outlived the mere claimations of the wolves in sheep's clothing, who predicted extravagant cost, and no longer is it in danger of retarding the final stages of its progress.

THE BALDWIN CENTENARY.
The founder of the Baldwin family in Toronto settled here a hundred years ago. His descendants celebrated the centenary of that event yesterday. The one household has grown to many, and not only grown in number but in wealth and influence. But what is remarkable about the Baldwins, and what is almost altogether lacking in the families of the United States, and in the same degree, is that they have stuck to the original place of settlement, and have not moved to the soil in one place that has, according to President Eliot of Harvard, turned the people of the United States into birds of passage. They have no home; no family seat; to-day they are in one state, to-morrow in another; and once they acquire wealth they are off to the big city, or across to Europe. In the Mother Country it is different; there a family sticks to its original parish or county, and, once established, it will exist for centuries. The Baldwins have evinced the same spirit of persistence, as far as Toronto is concerned. The distinguished record some of them have made for their family, The World congratulates them on their centenary yesterday, and trusts there will be more of them in Toronto a hundred years hence.

WHITBY COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.
Geo. H. Hagar is now Principal of the Whitby Collegiate Institute. With W. T. F. Tamblin as Assistant Master—A Strong Team.

Whitby, Ont., July 13.—The Board of Education last night accepted the resignation of the principal of the Collegiate Institute, Dr. John Waugh, who has been appointed Public School Inspector for the county. Mr. George H. Hagar, B.A., who has been for nine years mathematical master in the school, has been appointed principal, while Mr. W. T. F. Tamblin, B.A., a graduate of the University of Toronto, has been appointed assistant principal. The appointments are popular in town, and it is felt that under the new management the high standing of the school will be maintained.

THE BAZAAR.
We wish to reaffirm the principles proclaimed when we opened the Bazaar. RETROSPECT—One year ago to-day we opened our store, with the hope of getting a firm grip on Toronto trade, not because our store could compare in size to large departmental stores, but because our first aim was to cater to economical buyers, by bringing our goods direct from manufacturers, thus making prices right; by having the brightest store in Toronto, having courteous employees, and a quick delivery of goods. Our hopes this past year have been realized, and we wish to thank the public for the hearty appreciation of our efforts.

PROSPECT.—It shall be our aim to give you a thoroughly satisfactory store. We mean to conduct it so that you will take a personal pride in the Bazaar, which is not like an ordinary store. If you want chinaware, hardware, glassware, lawns, toys, notions, jewelry or candies, they are all to be found here. All we ask is a visit this week. Below we just mention several lines that ought to be interesting for Friday and Saturday's selling.
