Hamilton Presbyterians Observe 400th Anniversary of Churchman's Birth-Happenings

HAMILTON, July 11 .- (Special.)-The four hundredth anniversary of the birth of John Calvin was marked by most of the Presbyterian Churches today by special sermons. Rev. Dr. Lyle, moderator for the general assembly, in speaking at Central Church this morning said that Calvin's system was not perfect, that it lacked the large heartedness of Luther's teaching. It was of the head, not of the heart. One of Calvin's weakest points was that he did not give music and worship of God. He favored church true cathedral idea in the Dominion. worship of God. He favored church union, and Dr. Lyle said that it was life the efforts of opponents of the stime that they stopped quibbling and time that they stopped quibbling and the diocese back fifty years.

Canon Macnab spoke at length at the morning service in St. Alban's Cathedral yesterday of the present changes and future prospects of the cathedral, taking as his text, Joshua xxiv., 27, where reference is made to the stone set up as a witness to God's goodness and the people's loyalty.

Forthwith the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver and the gold were crushed to powder and became as the chaff of a summer's threshing floor, and the wind carried them away. By Divine illumination, Daniel, the prophet, explained the vision thus: The head represented Nebuchadnezzar's own universal empire Babylon. The breast and arms of silver represented the kingdom which would succeed his as a universal empire; namely, the kingdom of the Medes and Persians. Upon the fall of Medo-Persia, the Grecian Empire would become universal, to be succeeded in turn by the Roman Empire

The Times of the Gentiles: Text, "Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled" (Luke xxi, 24.)

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 11.—Pastor Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle preached here to-day. He said:

As the City of Babylon represented the empire of Babylon, so the City of Jerusalem represented the Jewish nation. The Scriptures refer to the fact that centuries before our Lord's day the Jewish kingdom had been overthrown—had passed to the control of the Gentiles—and in our text our Lord declares that this subserviency would the Gentiles—and in our text our Lord declares that this subserviency would continue until certain times of the Gentiles, certain years or periods of their control, would pass away. When we read that certain times will be fulfilled, we are justified in thinking that these times have been foretold. And in looking for the statement of that these times have been foretold. And in looking for the statement of the matter in Holy Writ, we notice the facts of the case as follows:

God established the Jewish nation as His representative nation, or kingdom, in the world, with the understanding that in some manner and at some time that nation would be the channel of divine blessings to all the families of the earth, in harmony with the original oath-bound promise made presented Medo-Persia. The third, like

As it is written, "In the days of these kings shall the God of heaven and it shall be no more until He come whose right it is; and I will give it Him" (Ezekiel xxi., 26-27). That statement was made just prior to Israel's captivity to Babylon, B.C. 606.
