City Engineer Macallum thinks the council should not allow Hamilton to be cut up with any more railway tracks, but should compel the Canadian Northern to use one of the existing lines, preferably the T. H. & B., which would necessitate the lowering of the bottom of the Hunter-street transel the building of a subway from tunnel, the building of a subway from Park-street to the eastern end of the city, and the placing of the train sheds of the union station under the surface.
