FRANCE IS HEARING OF CANADA'S CATTLE

Town Criers in Villages Aid in Popularizing Campaign—Two Champion Steers on Exhibition.

CREATE GREAT INTEREST

Ottawa, May 23. — (By Canadian Press). — Town criers in the villages of France have been helping to popularize Canadian cattle in that country, according to a letter recently received by the minister of agriculture from Mr. Patrick Ross, who, for the past three months, has been in charge of the two champion steers which he has been exhibiting on the continent of Europe. The steers were shipped to Antwerp in January, and it had been intended that some time should have been spent in Belgium, but, owing to the prevalence of foot and mouth disease, they were forwarded at once to the great La Villette in Paris. This is the greatest cattle market of France, and, after having been displayed there for a few days, where they attracted particularly the attention of butchers and country buyers, they were sent at once to the most important pasture areas of France, proceeding from Caen, the birthplace of William the Conqueror, in Normandy, to Lyons, in southern France. The mayors of many of the villages en route, to whom news of the exhibit was forwarded in advance, utilized the services of the town criers, who, following ancient custom, went out into the streets beating a drum, and announced to the people the coming of the exhibit.

Very great interest was created amongst the "herbagers," or big cattle graziers in the pasture districts. The continued high ocean rates on live cattle, and the serious exchange rate against France, are presenting difficulties in the importation of cattle from Canada, but the fact that France now realizes the advantage to herself of importing dependable supply of feeding cattle from the clean herds of Canada is confidently expected to establish this trade on a permanent basis, and is a noteworthy accomplishment of Mr. Ross' mission. The steers have recently concluded a short tour of Switzerland, where they have been slaughtered, and the proceeds have been generously donated to charitable purposes by Mr. Kennedy, president of the H. P. Kennedy Company, Toronto, by whom the steers were loaned to the department for the purposes of the exhibition.

RESCUED THE CREW

Portland, Maine, May 23.—The shipping board steamer Lake Elsie, which arrived today from Dalhousie, N.B., had on board Capt. Goldert and the crew of seven men of the British schooner John M. Wood, which the Elsie cut in two and sank in a collision off Little Hope Island last Friday night.

DEPOSED PRESIDENT OF MEXICO KILLED

 ed the shelter where Carranza was sleeping, firing their rifles furiously into the hut. Everyone offered resistance, altho with the natural demoralization caused by the unexpected attack.

Much Valiant Resistance.
 "General Francisco Murguía fought valiantly in the obscurity (semi-darkness), repelling the traitors, who surprised the defenders when they were leaving their shelters to attack the enemy."

"The unexpectedness of the attack enables us to clear our military honor. The defence was general to such an extent that the attackers were forced to take sixty prisoners, among them Mario Mendez, Paulo Fontes, Gilgarias, General Heliodoro Perez, Colonel Gomez, General Villela and Carranza's military aide."

(Mendez formerly was director of the national telegraph lines. Fontes was former director of national railways, and Senor Garies was Carranza's private secretary.)

"Our conscience is clear. Our grief for the death of the president is inconsolable. We are satisfied that we did not abandon him at one moment. 'The few men wounded and dead is explained by the fact that the attackers planned their crime, knowing the place where the president, who had placed his confidence in Herrero, was sleeping. The loyalty and courage of the president's followers were useless against the treason of those criminals."

The message was signed by Barragan and Marciano Gonzales, Federico Montes, Francisco de H. Maria and others.

Flags at Half-Mast.
 The flags on the foreign embassies and legations were placed at half-mast when the news of the assassination of President Carranza arrived.

After a conference yesterday between Generals Obregon and Pablo Gonzales, a commission was named to proceed to the scene of Carranza's death to investigate and report.

The permanent commission of the national congress failed to obtain a quorum on two attempts to hold sessions yesterday for the purpose of choosing a provisional president. The members of the commission, which functions between the regular sessions of congress, claim the right to name a provisional president under the constitution following the death of President Carranza.

The majority of the members of congress oppose this view because of their acceptance of the Agua Prieta plan, which calls for extraordinary sessions of congress beginning May 24 for the purpose of choosing a provisional president.

Failure of the commission to obtain a quorum is taken generally as indicating that the choice of the extraordinary session will be accepted.

queira, financial agent of the de facto government, here said:

"I am transmitting the following message received yesterday from Saxe:

"Early this morning at the town of Tlaxcala, the president of the republic, Venustiano Carranza, was made a prisoner, and cowardly assassinated at the cry of 'Viva Obregon,' by Colonel Rodolfo Herrero and his men, violating the hospitality that had been offered him by Herrero. 'The undersigned of this message protest with all their energy, honor and loyalty to the entire world this new stain which has been thrown upon our country. After having complied with our duty, which our honor as soldiers and friends of Carranza imposed on us, we are at your service, and we only ask permission to allow us to take the body of our worthy chief to its last dwelling place at the capital city, requesting you to order a special train for this purpose to Beristain.'"

This communication, according to General Obregon's message, was signed by Generals Jus Barragan, F. de P. Mariel, Federico Montes and Marciano Gonzales, by Ignacio Bonillas, Lieutenant-Colonel D. M. Fernanandez, Colonel F. Lima and other officers.

It carried the notation that the signers were sending it to General Gonzalez.

"I have answered the foregoing message as follows," General Obregon's communication continued: "Your wire to General Pablo Gonzalez. It is very strange that a group of officers who are vouching their loyalty and honor like yourselves and were accompanying President Carranza with the unfaltering duty of protecting him should have allowed him to be assassinated without complying with your duty as it will be viewed by the people of the republic and the people of the world, that you should have shared his fate. More so when the whole nation is aware that you are the only ones responsible for the unfortunate happenings of the last few weeks, and which had such a regrettable finale in the death of Venustiano Carranza, which found him abandoned by his closest friends, who at the critical moment failed in their duty to protect him."

"On repeated occasions, President Carranza was notified that every guarantee would be given him if he would be willing to leave the danger zone, but he refused to accept this offer because he undoubtedly considered it an undignified act of a man of honor to save himself, leaving his companions in danger; this act of Carranza revealed the dignity and good fellowship which you failed to appreciate."

"There are signed to the message the names of thirty-two officers and one civilian, which is more than sufficient in number, if they would have done their duty, to have saved Mr. Carranza's life, if, as you state, he was assassinated."

"I have the right to suppose that you ran away at the critical moment without having even made use of your arms, as none of you were wounded. If you had died defending the life of your chief and friend, who had showered so many favors upon you, you would have been honored by public opinion, and would be at rest with your conscience and would have escaped the shame of your cowardliness."

DUKE AND DUCHESS TO DRIVE IN STATE

Their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, deferring to the general request of those who have not seen them, will drive to the races today, as on Saturday, leaving the Woodbine at 5.15 p.m., thence along Queen to corner of Jarvis (5.45 p.m.), north on Jarvis to Bloor (6.05 p.m.), thence to Sherbourne street bridge (6.15 p.m.), by Elm avenue to Glen road, arriving at Government House at 6.30 p.m.

The drive will be taken in the four-in-hand coach with postillions and outriders, escorted by thirty-two men of the R.C.D. under Major Timmins, D. S. O., and the mounted police.

Their excellencies will also be present at the decorating of the South African memorial by the various veteran associations and the duke will take the salute at the march past in front of the parliament buildings at 10.30 a.m.

Six Months for Agitator Among the Irish Guards

London, May 23.—Harold Burgess, who was arrested last week charged with attempting to cause disaffection among the Irish Guards and with circulating pamphlets entitled "Soviet for the British," was sentenced yesterday to six months' imprisonment. Burgess was described as manager of "The Workers' Dreadnought," a publication of which Sylvia Pankhurst is editor.

Rinso

this wonderful new form of soap for the family washing —

Not a cake soap —
 Not a washing powder —
 But a remarkable new soap product in fine granules!

Just the thing you have been waiting for to take the labor and the hardship out of wash day. Just the thing you need now more than ever to save your clothes the relentless rub, rub, rubbing of the wash board. Just the thing you need to make spotlessly white the hard-to-wash clothes—the aprons, dish-towels, children's rompers, etc.—without boiling and toiling.

RINSO'S fine granules dissolve instantly and stir up into a rich suds.

Rinso awaits you at your grocer's—to-day!

Start using RINSO this next Monday. RINSO is a new form of soap. Not a cake soap. Not a "washing powder." A wonderful new soap product—in fine granules. These pure, cleansing granules dissolve instantly into a rich suds. There is not a bit of solid soap to stick tight to the fabric and injure it. There are no harsh chemicals to "eat" the fabric—to destroy the colors. Just a rich, purifying suds—as harmless to the clothes as pure water itself.

A New Idea of Washing

Labor saving! Time saving! Clothes saving! With RINSO you soak the clothes over-night or for three hours in the morning. You then take them out and rinse them. They will be spotlessly, gleaming clean. Only the extremely soiled things—bad spots—need a light rubbing between your hands right in the RINSO suds and they too will be shining clean.

The rich RINSO suds have loosened all the dirt while the clothes soaked.

Only one package of RINSO and your week's wash will be done better and easier than it was ever done before.

Get that package to-day—RINSO—at your grocer's.
