

COMIC SECTION OF THE TORONTO WORLD April 20, 1913

Lena Was Out!

Otherwise Howson Lott's Visitor Had a Good Night's Rest.

Copyrighted, 1913, by the Star Company. Great Britain Right Reserved.

Fopper

ter
s, Cuba

elsewhere and its
passed. Native fruit
tiful flowers and
a delightful invir-
le of Phos is young
it might appropriate
Isle With a Future."
destiny a great move-
at present which is
its future history. It
erned, and well gov-
ana, Cuba. A mon-
ing signed by many
hands asking that
ose property it really
either by a governor
on. The indications
e to that being done
land values will soar
not effect the island
t from a sentimental
am Jennings Bryan
winter and was
with the island's
Hon. Arthur M.
n minister to Cuba,
and enthusiastic vis-
Prominent among
are now on the is-
ed Killer of the Ger-Co., and Mr. A. E.
er says that he never
that enjoyed by this
s always warm but
e from Toronto are:
Lt. Lloyd, Mr. and
n, Mr. and Mrs. T.
es Erie Sheppard,
Robertson; from St.
and Mrs. McSloy;
and Mrs. D. S.
att, Mrs. Geo. Chew,
Beverly Chew, G.
Hu, Mr. and Mrs.
rs, A. J. Ross, D. J.
n, J. McAllister. The
pretty well on so that
ve gone back home
from the Maritime
west.
with yourself? How time? People who
south ask. What you can any place
el perfect summer
e riding, canoeing,
motoring, motor-
picnics, dances,
his. And a few other
to the soil flourish.
under Mr. Fred Kil-
I go to see my first
little beautiful arena
val palms and man-
covered with most
The cock-fight is a
attended by all
ay, the fresh fruit
-lb. pineapples and
the year round, are
easily for saying that
wing and developing
ach natural advan-
eant popularity, so
wing fast on dis-
This is the coming
and will be especial-
Canucks on account
Canadians here. It
for people of means
ned "The Gem of the
d section this week
ral views of the Isle