An appeal was made by the Rev. A. E. Whatham—with the Bishop's consent—to the Board of the W. A. for $150 to purchase the outfit (horse etc.) for a lay reader to assist the Rev. A. E. Whatham in the Haliburton and Cheddar Missions. It was resolved that St. James' Cathedral Branch should contribute $10 towards the amount.

In answer to an appeal made by the President of the W. A. for contributions to pay the rent $10 a month of the Central Rooms on Murray St., for the use of the Dorcas Department of the W. A., a member of St. James' Cathedral Branch undertook to pay $1 a month for this year.

The Board of the W. A. having been authorized by the Mission Board to contribute $350 annually to maintain a Home or School for Indian girls under the management of Miss Brown, the lady missionary at Gleichen, N. W. T., the Branches were requested to give their assistance. St. James' Cathedral Branch undertook to pay annually the sum of $10 towards the amount.

This Society continues to pay annually $400 towards the stipend of the Rev. H. T. Bourne, of the Piegan Mission, Fort Macleod, Alberta, and $30 annually towards Miss Brown's salary, Lady Missionary on the Blackfeet Reserve, Gleichen N. W. T. Also $100.00 annually to the Nepigon Mission, Algoma, in charge of the Rev. R. Renison.

A lady member of St. James' Cathedral (Mrs. Alex. Cameron) has kindly undertaken to pay between $300 and $400 annually to educate a young man for the ministry.

During the year we have had the pleasure of hearing addresses from Mrs. Williamson, President of the Diocesan Board of the W. A.; Mrs. Cummings, Secretary of the same Society, Rev. H. T. Bourne
