Black in the Frederick Glenner writes the following about the 213 class race which was called off during the meet here last Saturday owing to the dangerous and muddy condition of the track: "A lot of talk is still being made by persons who lost money by the victory of The Patchen Boy pacers in the 213 class at St. John last Saturday and the decision of the judges in paying the purse money on the standing of the horses at the end of the second heat has been questioned and the officials subjected to considerable criticism. A careful perusal of the rules of the National Trotting Association has failed to show wherein any mistake was made by the judges in their decision, and many horsemen who are well versed in the rules of racing have expressed similar views. I also have heard Harry C. Jewett declare that, if he has to lose friends through giving a decision which he conscientiously believes to be correct, he will have to try to get along without them. My opinion is that the decision of the officials at St. John will do a lot towards bringing back public confidence in racing. To have called off the bets would have shown that the speculators certainly held sway and the public had little or no chance. William Sold for $35,000. Cleveland, O., Aug. 20—William, 1:58 1/2, world's champion pacing stallion has been sold by A. E. Van Atta, his owner, to C. K. G. Billings, the New York horseman, for $35,000. William, in a match race at North Randall last Monday defeated Directum I, and established new records. Billings had never seen the horse until that day. William will be withdrawn from racing and placed in the stud. Refused $75,000 for William. A bonafide offer of $75,000 was made A. E. Van Atta, owner of the pacer William 1:58 1/2, for that horse directly after he had defeated Directum I, 1:58, in their second match race of the year.

championship at the Glen Oak Country Club with a score of 204 for 72 holes. Wilfred Reid, of England, scored 220. RING. McFarland Gibson Bout. New York, August 20—There is considerable speculation as to just what kind of an affair the Packey McFarland-Mike Gibbons bout is going to be. There are a few of the gentle readers of pugilistic notes who are confident that it's going to be something of a grudge fight, and, therefore a hammer and tongs affair from beginning to end. "Packey's" score on Mike and Mike is just awfully peeved at Packey," say this faction. "They've been at sword's point for years and both have been keen to settle the grudge. This is the first—and probably the last—chance for each and fur's going to by." Griffiths Bests Cross. New York, Aug. 19—Johnny Griffiths, of Akron, Ohio, outpointed Leach Cross, of New York, in eight rounds of their ten-round bout at Ebbetsfield, Brooklyn, tonight. McFarland Insured for $20,000. Packey McFarland is going to take out an insurance policy of $20,000, which will protect him against accident or the calling of his bout with Gibbons. "Gunboat" Smith Won. New York, Aug. 20—Gunboat Smith outpointed Jack Hempel of San Francisco in seven of the ten rounds in their bout Wednesday night. Smith was the aggressor throughout and gave Hempel a hard beating about the body. Al Mansfield, the English bantamweight, fought a fast ten round bout with Bob Ukon of New York. ATHLETIC. Fifty Year Old Marathoner. James Shanley, Brooklyn, 50-year-old marathon runner, who now competes for the St. Nicholas Club, is out with a challenge to race O. S. Weeks, the 48-year old star of the Pennant Athletic Club of the Bronx, on the Full Marathon route, 26 miles, 385 yards. Shanley states that he is confident that he can defeat Weeks over the long journey and all that is necessary to clinch the race is to secure Weeks' consent. Chicago, Aug. 19—Tom McNamara, of Boston, today won the western open golf.
