ST. LOUIS BIDS ROTARY WELCOME

Representatives of 90,000 Membership at Convention; Four at the Start 18
Years Ago.

St. Louis, Mo., June 18.—Whether they started from home with their faces set toward the east or whether they turned around and went in the opposite direction toward the setting sun—it made no difference as to the distance to be traveled by the seventeen delegates and their wives from Australia and New Zealand to the fourteenth annual convention of Rotary International which opens here today.

They would start from scratch either way and have about the same distance to come to attend the convention—which is more than half way around the world—because they would be compelled to travel a thousand miles or so north as well as twelve to fifteen thousands east to west.

Nine of the seventeen glob trotters are members of the Rotary Clubs in the five cities of Australia and New Zealand where Rotary has been firmly established for two years. The remaining eight are their wives or members of the families of the Rotarians.
In several instances these people are making a complete circuit of the globe to be in St. Louis tomorrow. There are some very distinguished people among them. One of these is W. H.
Hould who is State Librarian of New South Wales and is a prominent member of the Rotary Club of Sydney.
Another is C. H. Rhodes of Auckland, New Zealand, who brings his wife and two daughters with him.

Rotary was established in Australia and New Zealand in the spring of 1921 through the joint efforts of James Davidson, a member of the Calgary, Alberta, Canada Rotary Club and Col. James Layton Ralston of the Halifax, Nova Scotia, Rotary Club, who made the trip to the Antipodes as special commissioners of Rotary. They organized clubs first in Melbourne and Sydney, Australia, and then in Auckland and Wellington, New Zealand. Since their visit a fifth club has been established in President Cosgrave of the Irish Free State, making his first speech at an election meeting in Ireland.

Painful if not ornamental, must be the decorative methods resorted to by the natives of the South Sea Islands.

Christchurch, New Zealand, and a sixth in Dunedin, New Zealand.
Another club has been lately formed in Brisbane, Australia, but not yet chartered.

The delegates to the convention from Australia and New Zealand are all quartered at the Chase hotel. They include R. E. Peacock and daughter, Sydney Scott, James Martin and Hugh Paton of Melbourne; H. W. Holden and wife and W. H. Hould and wife of Sydney; C. H. Rhodes and family, John Leyland and wife and R. H.
Auckland and E. H. Wyles of Christchurch.

But the Antipodes are not the only far distant places that contribute to swell the international crowd at the Rotary convention. Every continent is contributing its quota to the gathering as well as the islands of the seven seas. A. W. Bean represents the Rotary Club of Manila while Harry Norman made the journey from Shanghai to be present as the delegate from the Rotary Club in that city and tell about the new club recently organized in Tientsin. H. E. Ewing is here from Buenos Aires as the delegate of the Buenos Aires club and the proxy for the Rosario Club, the second of the Argentine Rotary organizations.

Leo L. Daly is the delegate from the Rotary Club of Montevideo, Uruguay, and Panama has sent three of its club members, Maurice Pidanque, Melville Corfida and E. A. Bocock.

Europe has more than seventy-five in its delegation, the larger part of these delegates representing the 100 Rotary clubs in the British Isles. Alexander Willsie, second vice president of Rotary International, and a member of the International Board of Directors, and Charles Smith of Birmingham, England, vice president-elect of the Association for Great Britain and Ireland, head the list of Britishers which will include such Rotary veterans as Arthur Chadwick, past president of the London Rotary Club; Thomas Hunter, past president of the Edinburgh Rotary Club, and official host of the 1921 Rotary convention which was held in the Scottish capital; Sydney Pascall, of London, one of the leading members of the London Rotary Club and one of the speakers at the present convention; J.
Robertson Brown, of Liverpool, and others.

One of the newest Rotary Clubs on the continent of Europe—Amsterdam, Holland—has sent its president, Anton K. Verkeide, as its delegate. Spain has sent three visitors from the Barcelona Club, one of whom, William E. Powell, is the club's delegate.

There is a large representation from the ten Rotary Clubs of Cuba, headed by Mario Nunes Mesa of Cienfuegos, who is a member of the International Board of Directors; and Mexico has an unusually large delegation. Canada and Newfoundland are in the forefront of the registered delegates, of course, as there are between 40 and 70 Rotary Clubs in those sections of the North American continent.

Putting the golden rule to work in business and professions every day life is the way Rotarians from every section of the world state the object of Rotary International, the fourteenth convention of which brings ten thousand of the leading business men of 1400 cities and 26 countries to Saint Louis the week of June 18 to 23.

District governor, Dr. H. L. Spangler, of St. John, is at the convention and the Maritime clubs are well represented.

Mary Mullin, aged 65, who resided at the home of G. Wetmore Merritt, Sydney street, slipped on the kitchen floor on Saturday evening and sustained a fracture of the thigh. The ambulance driver and a police officer who accompanied him used an ironing board as a splint and gave first aid after which the injured woman was taken to the General Public Hospital.

In the Opera House on Saturday evening during the performance of "The Boat" each member of the F.
James Carroll Players gave a short speech of farewell to the audience and each received a hearty ovation. Those bidding good-bye were Leslie Adams, Lillian Foster, Doris Kelton, Bob Lynn, Malcolm Arthur, Sylvia Farnese, Gwendolyn Williams, John Gordon, William Worswick and Clement Taylor.

LOCAL NEWS

Rev. James Dunlop of the Central Baptist Church, left on Saturday for Montreal to meet his young daughter, his only child, who is coming from Scotland in care of a relative.

It was announced at a meeting of the Milk Dealers' Association on Saturday evening that there had been 10,000 signatures obtained to the petition for repeal of the pasteurization act. J. N.

Riley presided at the meeting.

Rev. Robert Nugent celebrated mass and preached yesterday morning in the Church of Assumption. A meeting of the congregation was held last night to discuss arrangements for the annual picnic.

A. Olsen, representing the Charles Metcalfe Construction Company of Mon-treil, has arrived in the city and will begin work at once on repairs to the C. P. R. elevator damaged last winter by an explosion.

Mrs. Jean Muldrew, director for Canada of the Soldiers Settlement Board, is in the city in connection with her work. Her department is the home branch. She is assisted in New Brunswick by Miss Mabel Marvin.

James Belyea, of California, who was a resident of St. John and a member of No. 3 fire company for some years previous to 1888, is in the city for a short visit, his first in thirty-four years. He has made an enviable record for himself in police work in California and has retired.

Yes Betty I can meet you at 10 o'clock!

"Since I started using Sunlight Soap I find I can get my clothes beautifully washed with my washing machine in fifteen or twenty minutes. Isn't that wonderful? And my clothes are such a beautiful color too.

How do I use Sunlight? I pare half a cake or so of Sunlight in very thin slices, into the hot water in the washing machine, stir it up into a lovely rich suds, then pop in the clothes, and let Sunlight and the machine do the work! Then the rinsing—and the clothes line. Really Betty—washing clothes with Sunlight is good fun—it's all over in less than an hour."

Sunlight's unusual value comes from the skilful blend of pure, rich coconut and palm oils.
These are the best soap making ingredients that the world produces.

Cows' Milk Made Safe and Convenient

CARNATION MILK comes to you from Canada's dairy sections noted for their rich milk and cream. The milk is carefully selected and tested by Carnation experts. About 60% of the water is removed and nothing added. The milk is then sealed in the container and sterilized.
Carnation is just cows' milk in a convenient, safe form.

It is absolutely pure. It keeps. It is rich enough to take the place of cream in tea, coffee, etc. By adding a little more than an equal part of water you get "whole" milk. Order several tall (16-oz.) cans—or a case of 48 cans—of this convenient milk from your grocer.

Try this recipe and write for the free Carnation Cook Book.

CREAM OF MACARONI SOUP

One teaspoonful salt, 2 tablespoonfuls butter, ¼ cup macaroni broken in ¼-inch pieces, 2 tablespoonfuls flour, 3 cups water, 1 cup Carnation Milk. Cook macaroni in boiling salted water, about twenty minutes, or until soft. Drain and melt butter; add flour; add salt; add milk, and cook five minutes. Combine with macaroni. This recipe serves six people.
