GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

ELSIE FERGUSON IMPERIAL TOMORROW

In Sumptuous Production, "Footlights" — Pictures of Late Pope Benedict in the Vatican Gardens.

The mid-week bill at the Imperial Theatre is the outstanding feature of a remarkable week of photoplays. The chief item will be Rita Weisman's sumptuous comedy-drama, "Footlights," which introduces in its spirited seven reels a wonderful wealth of fashionable gowns, exclusive furnishings, and the last word in interior decorations. The queen of the silver sheet, Elsie Ferguson, will be the particular star, supported by a metropolitan cast of stage luminaries.

A feature of unique interest in this Wednesday-Thursday programme will be a reel of pictures depicting the late Sovereign Pontiff of Rome, Pope Benedict XV, in the Vatican Gardens, celebrating Mass in the open air and appearing close before the camera, so that the world might have an intimate view of the first moving picture ever taken of the late head of the Roman Catholic church. This feature will be shown at every exhibition.

RUSSIA FACES NEW MALADY

Sleeping Sickness Outbreak With High Percentage of Deaths.

Moscow, Feb. 7.—Sleeping sickness is making its appearance in Russia on a scale which would cause great alarm in a country less hardened to wholesale deaths through starvation and typhus.

The disease is comparatively new to Central Russia. Moscow has over one hundred reported cases at the present time. The disease appeared in the Ukraine two years ago this winter and later spread northward. About seventy per cent of cases die.

GOVERNMENT BOAT WITH THE THYRA

Halifax N. S. Feb. 7.—The Canadian government steamer Lady Laurier is alongside the Swedish steamer Thyra which has been drifting rudderless approximately 200 miles southwest of Cape Race, since January 29. A message to the department of marine reads: "Nine a. m. Alongside the Thyra and drifting; northwest gale and heavy swell. Prospects poor for today."

The Lady Laurier is the fourth ship to go to the aid of the Thyra. The Red Cross liner Rosalind and the British tanker Swanmere, had the disabled ship in tow for Halifax but were forced to let her go. The Eastern Cross, eastward bound from a U. S. port, also failed in efforts to help.

Wives Are Provided by France for Her Convict Settlements

Paris, Feb. 7.—Banishment to the French penal colony may effect a cure of criminal habits, but it does not interfere with the operations of Cupid, as it has been discovered by the French government in dealing with convicts who were sent to the colon on the Isle of Pines for the remainder of their lives.

They are allowed, if they wish to do so, to erect shacks there, instead of living in barracks, and sufficient work is given them to enable them to purchase occasionally their allowance of tobacco and snuff. But, despite this, something was lacking to the exiles. Briefly, this thing that was lacking was feminine charm—companionship.

As a result, women who are found guilty of crimes which warrant banishment are now being sent to the islands in the Antipodes, where they live in a convent and instructed and trained by the sisters until they show a desire to carry out family duties faithfully. Then they are permitted to live in the convict settlement and receive official introductions to men who want to live more normal lives. Last year more than forty marriages were reported from the colony.

Before the war such marriages occurred but rarely, only when the fiancée of some banished Frenchman obtained permission from the government to share with the man she loved his exile.

THREE OLD CLASSMATES.

(Frederick Gleason.)
The condition of Dr. D. W. Ross, who has been seriously ill at his home for the last few days, is somewhat more favorable today and everything now points to a favorable recovery.

Following the consultation which Dr. W. S. Hamilton of Montreal, had on Saturday with Doctors McNally and Holden, of this city, it was stated that the specialist's report was very favorable and that he could see no reason why Dr. Ross should not recover.

Before leaving here, Dr. Hamilton called upon Dr. B. M. Mullin, of North Devon, who has been ill for some time. This was more in the nature of a social call.

It is an interesting coincidence that Dr.
