YESTERDAY'S STORM.

A severe electrical storm in the province yesterday did much damage to property and one life was lost, that of Mrs. Bourque of Fox Creek. A house and barn owned by Emerson Steadman and John Hoar were damaged by lightning at Fox Creek. A barn owned by George Hopper, Little River, Albert county, was destroyed. The storm was felt at Fredericton but not so severely as in other parts of the province. A barn said to be owned by Abraham Bridges near Fredericton, was destroyed causing much loss to stock, hay and farm implements. The storm hit Nova Scotia heavily and at Springhill barns belonging to Charles Mason were destroyed with the contents. On Charles Moore's farm a few miles from Kentville a man was struck by a bolt of lightning and made unconscious. The transforming station of the Dominion Steel Corporation at Sydney was destroyed and several houses damaged. 9-2

LOCAL NEWS

William Reid, superintendent of the Corona box factory, was agreeably surprised yesterday afternoon when an initiated club bag was presented to him by Ernest Goss on behalf of the employees of the company. Mr. Reid is leaving for Prince Edward Island, where he will make his home in future.

The Victoria street Baptist church held a lawn party yesterday afternoon on the grounds of Mr. Parlee, Main street. A considerable sum was realized towards the new building fund. The convener for the table committee was Mrs. Herman Hunter and those in charge of the tables were Mrs. Stanley Williams, Miss McLaughlin and Mrs. John Corbett. Miss Nellie Hudson, Miss Frances Parlee and Mrs. MacDonald were in charge of the ice cream and candy.

Liquor Inspectors McAlinsh and Saunders arrived in the city on Monday, after a visit to Minto, where they had been looking after the enforcement of prohibition in that district. Fines, totaling more than $400, were collected as a result of their work there last week and B. J. Murphy of the department of inland revenue, who was also on the job, collected $200 in fines.
