

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

OPERA HOUSE

BILL REAL GOOD

There is a real good show at the Opera House tonight—five splendid vaudeville features, right up to standard. The bill offers Col. Diamond and his granddaughter in a series of society dances—the Colonel being just eighty-two years young and as spry as a young chap of twenty-one; Isabelle D'Armand, a likeable young miss in a bright novelty act, a new idea for St. John, and it caught the fancy of the audiences last night in good shape; Dae and Neville in one of the best played sketches of every day domestic happiness that has been seen here in a long time; Geo. W. Mack, versatile entertainer, who had every body in roars of laughter and kept them that way; and The Brads in a series of capers and acrobatic stunts. The serial drama, "The Man of Might," is packed full of thrills and sensational riding stunts. This evening at 8.30 and 9; tomorrow evening at 8.30.
