LABORERS SCARCE

Thomas Costello, president of the Nova Scotia Construction Company, said today that they are having more trouble getting labor this year than last and he looked for even greater scarcity of workers. Speaking of conditions in general, he said that he has been asked to tender on a million-dollar contract but would not do so on account of the rapidly with which changes are occurring both with men and materials. The only way a contractor could consider work at present, he said, was on a percentage basis. Mr. Costello left today to return to the Valley railway.

SAILOR IN COURT ON THREE CHARGES IN HALIFAX RIOT CASE

Halifax, N. S., May 27.—James Smith, of Newfoundland, able seaman in the Canadian naval service, whose arrest by two police officers precipitated the riot at City Hall Saturday night, appeared before Stipendiary Magistrate Fielding this morning and pleaded guilty to three charges, of being drunk in the street and using abusive language he was fined $4 and $3. The third charge was that he unlawfully resisted arrest. The magistrate said that this was an indictable offence and gave Smith choice of being tried summarily or of electing to be tried in the supreme court. Smith then entered his plea of guilty, which was allowed to stand, the stipendiary reserving sentence until tomorrow. Smith said that the police used bad language toward him and struck him, while the policemen said that Smith kicked one of them in the leg and struck at both of them. Smith appeared in court with a black eye and a bruised face.

PICK-POCKETS AT WORK IN CITY

K. W. Epstein Jostled In Car And $48 Taken From Pocket—Another Man Loses $15

To be jostled about by two men while entering a street car and to find out that he had been robbed of $48 was the experience of K. W. Epstein, a local optician. Mr. Epstein left his place of business on last Friday afternoon to attend horse races at Mooseport park. At Haymarket Square he boarded the East St. John car instead of the Glen Falls one and while entering the car was jostled between two men and shoved about. After discovering his mistake he left the car at Kanak's Corner and walked to the One Mile House to catch the car for the park. It was then that he missed his roll of bills. He recalled his usual experience with the two men and notified the police about his loss. Another man is reported to have lost $15 from his pocket while en route to the races. These cases lead many to believe that there are pick-pockets at work in the city.

DEPT BATTALION PLEASES GENERAL IN MARCH PAST TODAY

General Sir Louis Jackson, accompanied by Colonel Lang, Lieutenant-Colonel A. H. Powell, acting G. O. C. of military district No. 7, and Captain Heron of the local staff, inspected the Depot Battalion this morning. The battalion in heavy marching order marched past in King street, just opposite the old hotel. The general expressed himself as being well pleased with the appearance of the men and their equipment. The depot battalion's marching one would think that the men had done several months of training. Some have been only a few weeks in khaki. Colonel Powell, acting G. O. C., was equally well pleased. The work of the men reflects much credit on the officers of the depot and on Captain Heron, of the local staff.

RAIN IS WELCOME ALONG THE RIVER

A grassy hillside on a sunny hillside on Public Landing is in blossom. The purple bloom of the rhododendron is beginning to show in the pastures. A wave of green sweeps over the country, with ditches of white in the woodlands, where the cherry trees have fallen into bloom. The wind whistles in the meadows waves in the wind. There is an abundance of wild strawberry blossoms, and some birds are feeding with the gold of the dandelion. The glory of the summer is at hand. Peas and beans planted on May 18 were well above ground this morning, along with radishes, lettuce, cucumbers, carrots and beets, and onion sets were also sending green shoots upward. The weather has been wonderful, but a warm rain is now much needed. The wise gardener gets the start himself, even at the cost of sore muscles and kinks in his spine. He can keep ahead if he is really earnest about it, but by the time he has a wagon load of roots piled up at the bottom of his garden he generally wants to sit down and rest. It took part of two days to get the bulk of the weight out of one patch of potatoes, but the farmer says there will be no more serious trouble with them this season. The rest will be easy. And it is amazing with what a sense of satisfaction even a tired man contemplates the result of his labor. He knows that with fair weather conditions, if he perseveres, there will be a crop of reliable nature. There were not so many excursionists on the river on May 24 as in former years. Nor were there many motor boats. Not half a dozen got as far as the Landing. There were no sail yachts. The Oceanic had a large passenger list on Thursday afternoon for points all along the river. The water is now only a few feet above summer level, and the steamers can lie at the face of the wharves. Salmon nets are out in the coves along the river, in readiness for the early summer run. There have been some good catches of gaspereaux. The Oceanic had a large passenger list down river this morning, making all the stops. It was quite like a Monday morning in the summer season. Many motor boats were up river yesterday. Rev. Dr. Morison and Mrs. Morison came down this morning for the day. They have been planting their garden and attending to their young orchard.

VACCINE ARRIVES

A large case of vaccine has arrived in the city for the Board of Health. This will be distributed among the physicians who are looking after the city wide vaccination. There were no new cases of small pox reported today. On Saturday another case was reported, having developed in a house on the west side of the harbor. The one who contracted the disease had not been vaccinated. The medical men wish to make plain that vaccination is a preventive and not only a modifier, as is the opinion of some people. There are now several cases under the jurisdiction of the board of health.
