EVEN a good cook likes to work with "easy" ingredients. But she has learnt that all is not gold in fact that glitters in promise. Does the following look to you like a gilded promise or a truthful fact?

Regal Flour makes the best quality and the utmost quantity of bread per barrel of any flour you have ever used. White, light loaves always. And pastry of melting flakiness.

Unless Regal Flour proves every bit as worthy as we say, your dealer will return your money. We protect him in that. Isn't that a substantial offer? The sooner you ask for Regal the easier your bakadays.

IMPORTANT WORK OF METHODISTS

Matter of Home Mission Ministers' Salaries—Grants Made—The Death of Dr. Inch

In Centenary church yesterday there were meetings of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Conference executive, including a general meeting, a meeting of the special committee and the missionary committee. Rev. Neil MacLachlan, of Fredericton, presided over the general meeting, and those present included Rev. Messrs. J. I. Dawson, St. John; R. W. Weddall, Woodstock; D. Harrison, Newcastle; G. F. Dawson, St. Stephen; L. Howard, Sackville; F. Marshall, Charlottetown; George Sidel, Shediac; H. E. Thomas, St. John; also Col. Moore, Charlottetown; A. E. Smith, St. John; A. A. Sampson, Fredericton; and J. H. White, St. John. Rev. J. A. Allen, of Toronto, was present.

The matter of paying the ministers on home missions the full salary of $800 will be for home keep and a free house instead of the $600 now being paid, was before the meeting, and the following resolutions were passed: 1. That in view of the increased cost of living we deem it of the utmost importance for the efficiency of our work that our ministers should receive their full disciplinary allowance.

Why is a Bore? By RUTH CAMERON

"Why is a bore?" "Why is a bore?" We were gathered in conference assembled before the first open fire of the season, we had been talking of cabbages and kings; we had settled the affairs of the universe and then drifted into friendly silence as one does before an open fire, when Molly, the little stenographer lady, propounded the above question.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS Budget of News Concerning Stage Favorites Known to St. John Audiences.

A suit brought by Lillian Nordica, now Mrs. George W. Young, against the Southern Railway Company to recover $50,000 damages for injuries suffered when her private car was in a collision in Georgia last week and wrecked and disintegrated. The suit was brought nearly ten years ago and at one time it was refused. It was made and refused.

Madame Lillian Nordica has placed her services as a soprano at the call of the state department of the province of Ontario. She made the announcement formally through her husband, George W. Young, in the same piece which was given in Toronto this week with their playing in "The Merry Widow," he the prince and she the widow.

TEETH SAVE GIRL ALIVE DEAD FROM INHALING GAS New York, Oct. 22—If it had not been for her sharp, strong and regular teeth, Miss Sarah Carroll, 25 years old, of East Houston street, would probably be in the hands of an undertaker instead of being a patient in the Gouverneur hospital, suffering from gas poisoning.

More than you do that he makes you feel stupid. "For a thing" said Molly, "it was all. For I just love to talk with Mr. Graham and he knows twice as much as this man. Besides some people (with an icy emphasis on the some) who don't really know much of anything bore me, so that could hardly be to everybody."

When cooking a blancmange, while yet boiling mix a piece of butter with it, then you will find it turns out of the mould when cold without any trouble, and also it will have a much glossier appearance.
