MURDERED FIFTEEN;
TRACED BY HOUND

Vienna, March 30.—Fifteen persons were found murdered in a farmhouse near Floreschitz, in Bohemia, a few days ago, including the farmer, his wife and family,
and laborers living in the house.

They had apparently all been killed with a hatchet during their sleep, and as no
one was alive to give information, a police hound was sent for from Odessa.

The animal, which is a cross between a dog and a wolf, picked up the scent at once from the farm door, and led the police straight to a cottage in a neighboring village, where it sprang on a peasant named Wooniowski, who was lying in bed.

The man was arrested, and subsequently confessed to having murdered the farmer
out of revenge for having been dismissed.
He said he then killed all the others in the house for fear that some of them
might have seen him enter.

Nauen, Germany, March 30.—A terrific storm caused the collapse of the great skeleton tower, 650 feet high, belonging to the German wireless station here. There were no casualties.

ASKS "LIVING WAGE" FOR THE MINISTERS

Methodist Clergyman of Southern New England Conference Presents the Case

Providence, R. I., March 30.—Classing the salaries of ministers with the wages of the mill operatives in the recent strike in Lawrence, Rev. Andrew J. Conliss, superintendent of the New England district of the Southern New England conference of the Methodist Episcopal church makes a plea for a "living wage" for the ministers in his report to the conference.

"In our conference," he said, "we have fourteen churches paying from $800 to $700 salary, including parsonage and forty-six churches paying less than $500, including parsonage." This makes a total of eighty-eight churches paying less than a living wage. Many of these are separate congregations, and some of them are supplying places. Yet wages are less than many of the striking operatives in Lawrence earn, and less than the street laborers working for the city corporation. No wonder many men are not attracted to the ministry. If ministers could live as do some of our aliens who build their shacks by the railroad tracks then they could exist on the few wages if the minimum wage be a theme fit for parliament or legislature why not for church congresses and conferences? May the day hasten when miners and operatives and church preachers shall each receive for value bestowed fair value in return."

Wagons also called at the Banco Minero, and took $25,000, that institution's pro rata of the loan.

The loan was purely a forced measure. When the rebels took the city the bankers, knowing that the rebels would want money, held a meeting and sent word to the rebels that if they would issue state bonds the banks would loan the rebellion $100,000. The rebels demanded $120,000 and the banks finally consented. The collection from the Banco Nacional and the Banco Minero was the final transaction in this respect.

NEW WORLD'S RECORD FOR THE HIGH JUMP

Stanford University, California, March 29.—George Horvath, of the class of 1913, of Stanford University, broke the world's running high jump here yesterday, clearing the bar at 6 feet 5 1/2 inches. The previous record of 6 feet 5 1/2 inches was made by M. F. Sweeney in New York in 1908.

HE KISSED THE SOUBRETTE

North Sydney, March 29.—An amusing incident, not on the regular programme, was furnished the audience at a local theatre during the progress of the show this week. One of the numbers in the vaudeville act was a catchy air by the subrettes half of the troupe. She focused the spotlight on a man in the front row and made him the sole target of the chorus, which had few words except "Kiss me!" He did, just to prove that he could stand the gaff as well as any first nighter he gaily stepped to the footlights and planted a kiss on the singer's lips. It was no put up job, and the crowd roared, but the local Romeo unobtrusively resumed his seat.

ANOTHER FEATURE AT NICKEL

The Nickel Advertisement tonight tells of another splendid three-reel film attraction for Monday and Tuesday.
