Any cold is serious enough when its dreadful possibilities are considered, but when there is soreness or tightness in the chest and a dry hard cough you can look for bronchitis, which is often confused with an ordinary cold.

It is usually known by aching limbs and body pains, chilly feelings, weariness and weakness, pain in the chest and a tight, tearing cough. Fever, dry skin, thirst, coated tongue and constipation are other symptoms.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine seems almost like a specific for bronchitis because it is so successful in loosening up the cough, aiding expectoration and preventing the inflammation from reaching the lungs.

The great majority hold to a modest ambition of this size and keep satis-

Once in a while, however, you meet a merchant who sets himself a new high mark every year, a merchant who hates to stand still. If that man's business is run right his extra energy and driving ambition build him a business so big he can buy in huge quanti-ties for cash. Thus he gains an advantage and can give such value for the money that none can meet his offers without losing money.
