

THE "LOYALTY" OF MR. HAZEN THE "LOYALTY" OF MR. FLEMING

How do the electors of New Brunswick like Premier Hazen's idea, and J. K. Flemming's idea, of using the money and credit of this Province to finance a Railroad across the State of Maine?

After all their talk about loyalty, Mr. Hazen and Mr. Fleming, who tell the farmer that it is disloyal to sell a barrel of potatoes in the Boston market, have tried to divert the Valley Railroad across the State of Maine, thereby building up the northern part of that state and affording an outlet for the very products which Mr. Hazen and Mr. Fleming say would flood this market.

In a letter of Provincial-Secretary Flemming to Hon. Mr. Pugsley, dated at Hartland, May 25, 1911, Mr. Fleming wrote:

"We have secured the co-operation of a company. We have arrangements made whereby they will be able to construct a first-class line of railway from Saint John to the international boundary in the Parish of Andover. They have also made arrangements whereby they are financially in a position to begin construction immediately of the line both in New Brunswick AND ACROSS THE STATE OF MAINE."

What do the farmers of New Brunswick think of such loyalty as this?

The Valley Railroad plan advocated and brought about by Hon. Mr. Pugsley, Col. McLean, F. B. Carvell, and other Liberals, is for a first-class road from St. John to Grand Falls, connecting with the Grand Trunk Pacific there, a first-class road for the use of Canadians, EVERY MILE OF IT ON CANADIAN SOIL. JUST COMPARE THAT WITH MR. FLEMING'S MAINE SCHEME.

A Positive Cure For Rheumatism

For many years, both during Father Morrisey's lifetime and since he passed away, his No. 7 Tablets have been curing many of the worst cases of rheumatism in Eastern Canada.

During his lifetime it became the custom, when people could not get relief from other sources, to consult Father Morrisey, and few indeed did so in vain. His standard prescription came to be called and it can now be procured from any druggist or dealer in medicine.

No. 7 Tablets act directly on the blood, purifying it so that they can remove from the blood all the poisons which cause the rheumatism. Two or three weeks' use cures ordinary cases, while with the worst chronic cases it takes more than three or four boxes of No. 7 Tablets to thoroughly eradicate the rheumatism from the system.

In every case, right from the start, the sufferer gets relief from the torturing pains and aches.

We would be glad to refer you to one-time rheumatism, now well through taking Father Morrisey's No. 7 Tablets.

find happiness in marriage, that is all very well. But officially we never consider such a proceeding. Our ideal is frank, open comradeship. We want the solitary people who come to us to find climes and friends. And I can truthfully assert that this ideal is daily approaching a closer realization. Our men are finely courteous to our women, but there are no foolish gallantries, only an increasing mutual pleasure in congenial company.

Some Theatre Figures

Henry B. Harris, a producing manager of New York, has compiled some interesting statistics, dealing with theatre. He says that 120,000 people nightly visit the theatres in New York, given over to the presentation of first-class plays. The total receipts of the theatres located on the island of Manhattan alone last year, were a few dollars in excess of $20,000,000. The amount of money invested in the theatres on the island of Manhattan is in excess of $17,000,000 exclusive of the values, the assessed valuation of which is more than $30,000,000. The stage apparatus, seats, carpets, draperies, etc., cost more than $4,000,000.

The approximate value of the theatres scattered throughout the United States is in excess of a half billion dollars. The amount of money invested yearly in the City of New York in the production of plays reaches the huge sum of $5,000,000. The inhabitants of the United States spend per capita for theatrical amusement, $5.20 a year. The railroads receive for transporting theatrical companies from one city to another $17,000 a week, during an average theatrical season of thirty weeks. The printing houses receive for lithographs and other billboard printing, $80,000 a week. The amount of money spent in advertising theatrical plays and stars in the newspapers of the United States has been estimated at $18,000 a day.

The highest salary paid a star is $2,500 a week, and fifty per cent. of the profits, and this same star received as her share of the profits $120,000 for a season of thirty-eight weeks. The average salary of actors, exclusive of supernumeraries, is $25.00. Seventy-five per cent. of the profession receive less than $30 a week. The best salary paid leading women, exclusive of stars, is $400 a week. There are seventy-one theatres in New York, and the average rental is $1,000 a week each, based on a season of forty-two weeks.

Morgan and the Mosquitoes

Unabashed by the attacks made upon him by the muckrakers and by his enemies in the financial world, J. P. Morgan the other night fled in dismay before an army of pesky mosquitoes. His yacht, the Corsair, he had taken to the water in the Hudson River off Riverside Drive. The financier had invited a number of prominent Wall Street men for a conference on board, and after dinner the little group adjourned to the main deck to talk over the plans they had been invited to consider.

Suddenly from off the port side of the boat came a hissing, buzzing sound that grew in volume as the members of the party puffed away on their black cigars. Morgan looked at his companions, and they at him, as if divine trouble and wondering how they were prepared to handle it. In a few seconds the scouts of the advancing cavalcade rode up and lit on the noses and ears of the financiers. Mr. Morgan has an extra sized nasal organ and it seemed to become an especial mark for the sappers of the raiding force. Unable to stand the bombardment the owner of the yacht beckoned to his guests to follow him and beat a hasty retreat below decks. Once inside, the captain was ordered to raise his anchor and flee up the river. Twenty miles up stream, opposite Arkady, the great craft came to a halt and stopped for the night. There the conference was resumed without interference from the mosquitoes.

Wonderful Wealth of G. M.

Probably to no one more than the relatives of the late Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes, was the return of Miss Emily Gresley from London, a few days ago, of greater interest. What interested them most was not the fact that the ward of the late London and Chicago railroad magnate had given up her home in the British capital and rejoined her family on this side of the water, but the fact that for the first time since the death of Mr. Yerkes, she confessed to the wealth of jewels he had showered upon her in his life time.

country, so far as the customs house records show, ever brought into this port $800,000 worth of precious stones at a single time. This was four times more than Mrs. Yerkes, the beautiful wife of the multimillionaire, ever owned and probably a good many times more than she ever expected that her husband had ever given to his ward.

There was never any love lost between the two women. To preserve the domestic amenities the railroad men made it a point never to exchange confidence between them. Thus he kept the ship of state on an even keel.

Ever since the death of Mr. Yerkes, Miss Briggs has spent practically all of her time abroad, and some time since it was reported she intended to make her home for good in London. Her sudden change of mind naturally has given rise to much speculation and many explanations, which, however plausible, do not seem to meet the question concerning the repudiation of her standing at the British Court.

If she really had the entire there that it has frequently been represented in cable despatches that she had, it is not regarded as likely that she would have brought her fortune in gems over with her, assuming that her present trip was to be one of only short duration.

"Fruit-a-tives" Saved My Life

"Riviere A. Pierre, Q., May 9, 1910. 'I look upon my recovery as nothing short of a miracle. I was for eleven years constantly suffering from Chronic Dyspepsia and Indigestion.'

"I was treated by several doctors and they simply did me no good. During the latter part of my illness I was so thin that I weighed only 60 pounds, and I vomited everything I ate."

"The doctors gave me up to die as the stomach trouble produced by weakness and I was frequently unconscious. I received the Last Rites of the Church. 'At this time a lady, strongly urged me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. Then I had taken one box, I was much better, and after three boxes, I was practically well again, and had gained 20 pounds. I have taken 13 boxes in all and now weigh 100 pounds and am well."
