MEMBERSHIP.

The number of members elected during the year has probably exceeded any other year in the history of the Society. There have been 32 Life Members, and 115 Ordinary Members elected, some of whom have not yet paid their subscriptions.

The numbers at the present time stand as follows:—

Honorary Life Members, 10; one Mr. H. Rowsell having died during the year. Mr. Rowsell was one of the founders of the Society, for twenty years its Treasurer, and to his death a warm friend and supporter of the Society. And the last of its original founders. Life Members 336. Three having so far as is known died during the year: Mr. W. Chapman, a very highly respected gentleman; Mr. J. E. Day, a Past President, and for some time an earnest worker in the Society; Mr. Jno. Eagles, long known as the keeper of the principal hotel in Weston.
