THE RECIPROcity QUESTION

Senator Sherman's resolution in favor of reciprocity between Canada and the United States is likely to pick up the reins on which the hopes of the Griggs have been based.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The Globe, which possesses a large and varied stock of misinformation on most subjects, stated last evening that the Andersons and the Allans are the only two firms which have tendered for the ocean service asked for by Canada.

WHY WAS ST. JOHN OMITTED?

The Statistical Year Book of Canada for 1889, which was published only a few weeks ago, contains a table on its 7th page, giving an account of the population in Canada between the years 1851 and 1889.

THE TIDE TURNS

They are returning from their summer ramblings singly, in pairs, in groups of dozens or more, and now they will buckle down to their accustomed avocations with a studious endeavor, by better work, to prove that the holiday is beneficial, not only to the individual but to the community at large.

NYE IN THE CATSKILLS.

My letter is dated from the Horner's Nest, not because that is the name of the place where I am, but because it is a place where I am, and because it is a place where I am.

Had the Elms worked on their clothes, and embossed on their shirts, and blown in their glass, and laid him to eat his victuals from lines that didn't have the Elms embossed on it.

While on the subject of "bearing on the case it averted Usaynatha, and she went home very much impressed, and she had a little more to say to him.

When the old man found the body of his daughter he was considerably mortified. He took her to the top of the mountain and buried her there, and ever afterward, it is said, whenever any one spoke of the death of his daughter he would cry and change the subject.

WHAT can we do to save our clothes?

One man says 'don't wear them.' We say wear them but don't abuse them. By abusing them you go out in ing clothes when the rain and mean this, you don't have something over them to save them when they get so shabby and dingy. Have on a Mackintosh or rubber coat. You can save the price of a nice rubber coat on the wear and tear of your suit. No use for me to tell you to go for wet weather goods; but you can find out by inquiring at the OAK HALL CLOTHING HOUSE.
