JRING CO.

the market, and one that ity. encing a specialty.

PRICES.

KETCHUM, Secretary.

ARY DEPARTMENT.

By J. W. Manchester, , St. John, N. B.

EKLY SUN takes pleasure its readers that it has V. S., whereby all ques espect to diseases of the ds will be answered by ment prescribed in those it is asked for through the THE SUN s must be addressed: NARY DEPARTMENT aly Sun, St. John, N. B.

ave a six year old mare front teeth has not grown ner, she has one too many, plus tooth has grown in others and caused a dehe mouth. She is difficult ndition, and I think this What would you advise

a veterinary surgeon to booth, and, as I fail to see ooth should cause much nim carefully examine the same time

-My two-year-old colt, by stallion, keeps very thin, Il fed, and is continually, tail. He has got almost out of it. What is the Vill you kindly answer columns of The Weekly

Use injection of infusion and then follow with a

What had I better do for old mare that carries her side? Have been told it ed. Please answer through The Weekly Sun and case would require an opskilful veterirary surgeon. tter consult one. It would to describe the operation, not perform it.

lave a horse twelve year spring. His hide is very nure dry; has a ravenous froths from the mouth s are between is teeth. legs. He has been this e months. I was feeding changed the feed to corn boiled potatoes, carrots t that does not seem to his teeth carefully exthink there is some trou-Cut and steam his hay. and feed it warm. Allow int of molasses every night , groom thoroughly, and owing: Ferri sulphate, oz. pulv., oz. 4; nux vomica Mix, and give a large teaice daily. Also give daily water 1 oz. of Fowler's Sor inquiry is scarcely suitcolumns of this paper, so you by next mail.

USSEX NEWS.

eb. 10.—After a thirteen, cention in the courts Trinras reopened for divine rday, the rector, Rev. fliciating morning and the slightest reference the unhappy events of he non-contents were not held private service in ck in the manner they wife of Albert Scott, bsquis, died at the rer. father, George Wallace, yesterday morning. The very much respected by her. The remains will the Baptist burying

EZUELA QUESTION.

b. 7.—It was semi-officially his evening that there is to believe that Venezuela ith Great Britain on the e Uran arrests and the ## e Farm For Sale.

er offers for sale his farm, Apohaqui Station. e chance for any one desiring farm, as its location, and the d and buildings and the low y terms make it an excellent nsists of two hundred acres, hich are under cultivation, and wooded. The pastural land is with excellent spring water. w 25 acres of land ploughed, in the spring. ing information may apply

W. BYARD McLEOD, Apohaqui, N. B. R FREEZE

CITY NEWS.

The Chief Events of the Week in St John,

Together With Country Items from Correspondents and Exchanges

When ordering the address of your WEEKLY SUN to be changed, send the NAME of the POST OFFICE to which the paper is going as well as that of the office to which you wish Remember! The NAME of the Post office must be sent in all cases to NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS. News correspondence must be mailed in time to reach this office not later than Saturday afternoon to ensure insertion in THE WEEKLY SUN of the following week.

ensure prompt compliance with your

Up to the 5th inst. the smelt shipments from Richibucto so far this season amounted to four hundred tons.

Mrs. Flewelling, wife of the Rev. J. E. Flewelling of Centreville, Carleton Co., died on Saturday night last. She to the asylum on Friday evening. Barleaves ten children

The Orange Grand Lodge of New on the 18th inst.

The Waverley house, Newcastle, is supplied with water from an artesian well 125 feet deep, that throws a stream 27 feet in the air.

The Dartmouth, N. S., asse rolls,s just completed, show a total valuation of $1,833,021, which is an increase over last year of $112,231. A city butcher who recently imported ada, finds himself in a strange predi-cament, the beef being too fat to sell The old Mechanics' Institute building was sold at auction at Chubb's to the president of the last company, The cars which brought the cattle here from Chicago for the Concordia were, as soon as the cattle were removed , sealed by the customs authori-

P. McLaughlin is building at Parrsboro a schooner which will register about 95 tons. She will be launched by the Nova Scotia government as its accountant in the settlement of the succession duty in the estate of the

Sarah, wife of Alexander Long, a respectable farmer residing at Plumweesup had died on the 4th, very sud-denly, in the 49th year of her age. She will be interred in the burying Alexander Taylor of Dunlop, Gloucester county, died at his residence on January 17th of paralysis after an illness of three days. Deceased was over eighty-three years of age and was born at Ardrossan, Scotland, coming to this country in 1832. He leaves a widow and family, Lobsters are being caught in large numbers at Black River. There are four schooners fishing out there, in never recovered. Mr. Lester has for addition to the people residing at the a number of years been captain of the place. The lobsters are shipped to the United States, where good prices are got for them. The first lot brought 14 cents, the second shipped to the shipped to the second shippe 14 cents, the second shipment 12 cents and the last lot 13 cents.

Some extensive improvements are to be made to St. Peter's church the coming spring. Since the church was erected, about seven years ago, some changes and additions have been made, and plans have now been prepared for completing the towers. A new front will be put in the church

Rev. E. Savage, assitant to Rev. J. C. McDevitt, Fredericton, has been appointed pastor of the Catholic church at Sussex, in place of the late Rev. James McDevitt. Rev. D. Corbett, assitant to the Very Rev. Mon. Connolly, V. G., lower cove, will take Father Savage's place in Fredericton. Father Corbett's successor has not yet been

A very beautiful eagle lectern of wrought brass has been placed in St. John's (stone) church by Arthur Thorne, in memory of his mother, and was used for the first time yesterday. This completes the contemplated improvements and additions, with the exception of the window chancel. which may possibly be received from England in time to be placed in post-tion by Easter Sunday.

H. Maxwell, a chopper with T. E. Titus, who is operating for W. H. Merritt in Hampton parish, Kings Co., recently felled sixty trees and topped them off in nine hours, making a total of nine thousand superficial feet. Maxwell, who used one of Fowler & Rankine's hand made double-bitted axes, now wants to hear from the crack choppers of the Upper St. John.

In addition to the quantity of lumber which The Daily Sun stated would be got out in Cumberland county this winter it may be stated that in another part of the county the following quantities will be cut: C. T. White, Apple River, ten millions; C. F. & F. R. Eaton, Eatonville, six millions; A. C. & C. W. Elderkin, Advocate Harbor,

THE SUN PRINTING COMPANY, issuing weekly 8,800 copies of THE WEEKLY SUN, challenges the circudation of all papers published in the Maritime Provinces. Advertisers, please make a note of this.

York on Friday from the Bahama Keys with a cargo of logwood. She was detained there some days getting it on St. John the Baptist church, Lower board. She left New York on cove, in place of Rev. Father Corbett, Tuesday for this port to go on the who goes to Fredericton. The latter route between St. John, Halifax and Porto Rico. That will bring her here on Thursday, A large quantity of stuff is at Reed's point for her. A. O. Crookshank is in charge at the warehouse

The residence of J. H. Carnall was the scene of a quiet wedding on the 5th inst., when his eldest daughter, Louise, was united in marriage to Arthur, third son of the late LeBaron Vaughan. The bride looked charming in a travelling dress of navy blue, with hat and cape to match. The bride was the recipient of many handsome Boston, where they will in future reside. A large number of friends assembled at the station to see them off.

Wm. Barker of Deer Island, Charlotte county, who became insane at Black River the other day, was sent ker was on a vessel fishing lobsters near Black River when his reason left him, and he attempted to drown him-Brunswick will meet at Newcastle self. It was with difficulty that he was pulled out of the water. Then he bound. On Friday he was driven in to town and lodged at the central police station. Dr. Berryman found him very violent and he was sent to the

The L. O. county lodge of Kings West held its annual meeting at Clifton hall on Tuesday, Feb. 3rd. A large number were present. The following officers were duly elected and installa car load of beeves from Upper Can- ed for the current year: David B. Miller, Co. master; S. H. Bradley, D. Co. master; Jas. I. Breen, chap.; Clarence Flewelling, rec. sec.; Wm. Logan, fin. ec.; R. Waddell, treas.; Robert Miller, D. of C.; Geo. Gray, lec.; Geo. Redmore, D. lec.; W. A. Pitt, D. lec. The county master's report showed that corner Saturday for the sum of $2,900 all lodges in Kings West were in good announces the death of William Ran-kine, district superintendent of the Ceylon government railway, who some ties and sent back to the United time ago retired on a pension, Deceased was a son of the late Tho Rankine and a brother of Thomas A and Alex. Rankine of this city. He left here when sixteen years of age and went to Ceylon, where he enter ed the government service. He visited $500. Amount subject to taxation was firm were opened. Edgecombe & Son gages he holds of $1,500 on each house. The furniture in both houses was

> The death is announced of Robert Lister, which occurred Wednesday last about 11 o'clock p. m., at his late residence, Portland street. The deceased attended an entertainment on Tuesday evening last. Shortly after returning home he was seized with paralysis and became unconscious and sad loss. The deceased was 48 years of age and had hosts of friends by whom he will be much missed.

> The lumber cut in Cumberland Co. this winter will be extensive. The principal operators, with their probable cut are given: Young Bros. & Co., Half Way Lake, five millions River Herbert, three millions; Kely Bros., River Hebert, three millions; B. B. Barnhill, Two Rivers, four millions; Prescott & Gillespie, Shulee, four millions; R. & E. Christie, River Hebert, 200,000; Rufus Christie, Hebert, 200,000; James Porter, River Hebert, 200,000. R. & E. Christie will also get out some piling and Rufus Christie will manufacture two millions of laths.

The Fredericton Gleaner has arranged to improve its business location in May, and has rented the store in the Sphann building on Queen street, opposite Officers' square, lately occupied by Mrs. Isaac Burden. The present store will be fitted up counting and editorial rooms, and new two-story building is now in course of construction in rear for the press rooms, and typesetting department. All the repartments will be heated by steam and when completed, the Gleaner expects to boast of as comfortable quarters as any of its provincial contemporaries. A Gibson, York Co., correspondent

Attention is directed to the advertisement on another page of a Kings Co., N. B., farm for sale. The situation, near Apohaqui station, gives easy Intelligence was received Saturda of the death of Mrs. Jost of Guysboro N. S. The deceased lady was mother of Mrs. J. J. Teasdale of this city.

Rev. Father Gaynor, now curate Sussex, has been appointed curate of who goes to Fredericton. The latter gentleman goes to the celestial city truckman, lost his life, Saturday after-noon, by falling into a well from which he was drawing a pail of water. He leaves a widow and four children, the youngest a babe but six weeks old. Deceased was in his forty-first year.

Last week Judge Wedderburn occuspled a seat on the dais, on the right of the speaker, in the house of representatives, Massachusetts, having been introduced by the chairman of and useful presents. The happy couple been introduced by the chairman of left on the C. P. R. for Montreal via the judiciary committee. The judge

Asa D. Blakeslee, a well known and highly respected citizen. Mr. Blakeslee was born in this city in 1817 and was a grandson of a loyalist. He choose the painting and decoration busines as a means of livelihood, and all his life carried it on successfully, associating with him in after years his son Robert. He was interested activattacked his rescuers and had to be ely in temperance work since he was a young man and was one of the oldest members of Albion division. He was stricken with paralysis about two years ago and never fully recovered. He leaves a wife and three sons, two of whom reside in Massachusetts, and one (Robert) in this city.

On Monday, 17th inst., Coroner Berryman will hold an inquest on the ody of an infant found in a room in cued by the life savers. the house 220 Queen street, occupied An Amesbury, Mass., despatch by a young girl named Bishop. She states that the schooner Florida, Capt the three mile house, but recently ill, but on Thursday morning she came It was too stormy to render them down to breakfast, but she looked very ill. The landlady went to the young girl's room and there found the body of an infant. Coroner Berryman was summoned, and after making inquiries ordered a post mortem. Later, he decided that an inquest was neces

The remains of the late Mrs. Joel 1st, were interred in the Rural ceme-tery on the 4th instant. The funeral of Fredericton made the highest bid for the factory, stock in trade, etc., News reached Sussex last week that Sarah, wife of Alexander Long, a respectable former reached for the mortgage of $3,000 held by Lodge under the late of the English Provincial Grand Long, a respectable former reached for the mortgage of $3,000 held by Lodge under the late of the English Provincial Grand Long, a respectable former reached for the mortgage of $3,000 held by Lodge under the late of the English Provincial Grand Long, a respectable former reached for the mortgage of $3,000 held by Lodge under the late of the English Provincial Grand Long, a respectable former reached for the mortgage of $3,000 held by Lodge under the late of the English Provincial Grand Long, a respectable former reached for the mortgage of $3,000 held by Lodge under the late of the Manner reached for the mortgage of $3,000 held by Lodge under the late of the Manner reached for some part of the Mann John Connor. Fred E. Sayre was given the residences of Kelly & Mur-The funeral of George Carlin took phy at $61 over and above the mort- place from his late residence, 53 Wall street, on Tuesday, 4th instant. Many old acquaintances of the deceased atsecured by Kelly & Murphy at $50 tended the funeral, and a deputation each. The Blackhall livery stable profrom the Ship Laborers' union walked perty was given to Charles Laird for in a body. Rev. Mr. Baker conducted the services at the house and at the grave in the Church of England cemetery.

> The remains of the late Miss Florence Millidge, youngest daughter of the late Thomas E. Millidge, who died on Tuesday last at Newport, R. I., arrived by the C. P. R. Thursday afternoon and were conveyed from the sta-tion to St. John's church, from which the funeral took place at three o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. J. deSoyres, and quite a large number of persons were present at the obsequies. There were no pall bearers. The interment was in the Rural cemtery. The death of this young lady, who was only in her 28th year, was heard by her many friends with great She went to Newport last orrow. May and joined the staff of nurses a the hospital. She was possessed good health until just recently, when heart trouble manifested itself, and despite the most modern and scientific reatment, her case proved hopeless Her illness only lasted twelve days. The floral offerings included a wreat! of roses and lilles of the valley from the Newport hospital; cross of roses and English violets from the nurses of the Newport institution; bouquet of crimson and white roses from Miss Pickett, superintendent of the New port hospital; bouquet from Miss Black head nurse of the same institution.

A FORMER SHIPMASTER DEAD. In Raponga, New Zealand, 5th Dec 1895, died Captain Charles M. Anderfor son, in the 58th year of his age. The deceased was the third son of the late Captain Titus Anderson, of Sackville, and was for many years a shipmaster sailing in vessels belonging to New Brunswick. In 1884 he took command

ST. JOHN MEN LOST.

The Body of Capt. Melanson of the Sch. Alianza Washed Ashore.

The Body of Capt. Brown of the Florida Found on the Beach Yesterday Morning.

The storm on the American coast did much more damage than was at first eported, as will be seen by the following despatches: Hampton, N. H., Feb. 10.-The three-masted schooner Glendon, Capt. Mooney, Port Townsend for St. John ternoon in a blinding snow storm of Cole's rock, near Portsmouth. The erew went into the rigging, from which they were rescued by the life saving wreck. The Glendon was 249 tons register, and was formerly the steams Glendon. She was built in 1872, an was owned by E. Lantalum & Co. She is thsured for $3,000 and there is $300

Hampton, N. H., Feb. 10.-The schr. the judiciary committee. The judge and Mrs. and Miss Wedderburn are now in New York. The judge is very much improved in health.

The death occurred Saturday of the Glemdon consisted of Capt. John A. Mooney, Mate George N. Shaw, John Johnson, Karl Erneson, Fred. Linde, all of St. John. The vessel was owned by Messrs. Lantalum of St. John, and her cargo of 407 tons of coal was consigned to the International Steamship Co. She was insured for Port Johnson on January 18, and sailed from Flushing Bay January 21. She and Vineyard Haven, and was over taken here by the snow-storm an northeast gale. Both anchors were dropped as soon as land was signted. but the heavy seas forced her into the not have lasted out much longer, as they were nearly exhausted when res had been living with her parents near Brown, from New York for Salem the three mile house, but recently with coal went ashore Sunday after came to the city, and took a room at noon at Salisbury Beach. When the the house stated. On Wednesday last Plum Island life-saving crew reached she stayed in her room all day, being them seven men were in the rigging. sistance. At 10 o'clock p. m. the schonoer went to pieces. The masts went out of her and the unfortunat seamen in the rigging were dashe into the sea. Two bodies were washe ashore—one a mulatto. A patrol watched the beach all might. Several hundred people were on the beach when the schoner went to pieces. The life savers continued to get a line to the schooner during the night, with the hopes that some of the men were still clinging to the wreck. Her cre leaves a family of five children Three of them are grown up and the others are young. Williams belonged up the river, but had resided in Portland for many years.

LATER. Amesbury, Macs., Feb. 10.-A body from the wrecked schooner Florida, supposed to be that of Capt. Arthur Brown, was found early this morning ship's papers were found in the clothing. A letter was also found which indicates that there was an eighth member of the crew. The address on the envelope was "John S. Nellison, 39 Green street, New York."
Newburyport, Mass., Feb. 10.—
Wreckage from the schooner Alianza, which went ashore on Plum sland yes-terday, is piled high on shore. The

of a fine vessel that Mr. Philip Palmer of Dorchester built and loaded for Fiji. Mr. Palmer took passage in the vessel to Fiji, where he sold the ship and cargo. Captain Anderson took his A Guisson, fork Co., correspondence witters: Four carloads of machinery and plant arrived here yesterday and is being loaded into the new foundry to the first order of the seed of the person of the plant arrived here have already been received, and the prospects for the new hundred acres of land, which he farm de up to the time of his death. This decreased was twice married. His first wife was Miss Mary E. Wry of Sack wife of new flows on the death of the decreased was twice married. His first wife was Miss Mary E. Wry of Sack wife of the postness are decidedly bright. One carload of new flows the had two children, one of whom, Mary, survives him and one of whom he had two children, were sent by the many friends. Num-received are now being put in position-and next year's output will be larger than ever. Four car-loads are daily expected.

The first for received are now being put in position-and next year's output in position-and next year's output will be larger than ever. Four car-loads are daily expected.

The first ket received are now being put in position-and next year's output in position-and next year's output will be larger than ever. Four car-loads of fre

*******

Low prices for Clothing does not ALWAYS constitute a basis upon which you may buy profitably.

In our case we buy our cloth direct in very large quantities, pay spot cash for all we buy, manufacture right on our premises, and save for our customers the middlemens profits. In reality we retail at wholesale prices. We return money cheerfully when for any reason the buyers want their money back. One word more—we are after your trade and are going to have it sooner or later. The sooner the better for both. Best value and actual worth. are the means we employ. Clothing made to order as well. Address all letters to

FRASER, FRASER & CO. 42 KING STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B.

THE GREATEST OF LOSSES.

The cost of a glass of wine is inconsiderable, yet many a young man expends quite one-half of his income for intoxicants. He thinks he is enjoying himself, but while he is doing so he is enslaving himself to a tyrant who will soon exact the other half of loses employment, home, friends, self-alcohol and of morphine as well. Yet all these can be redeemed. No matter it can be subdued in three or .four days by the Father Murphy Gold Cure treatment, and the patient can be restored to perfect mental and physical health in three of four weeks. This his income. The money loss is bad ces and it can be done again. Full parenough, but it is not the worst. He ticulars cheerfully furnished by Supt. respect and hope. All these are ruth- Institute, St. John.

FROST & WOOD.

SMITH'S FALLS, ONT.

PLOWS, HARROWS, MOWERS, REAPERS, HORSE RAKES, ETC.,

A Branch Warehouse at St. John, N. B.

Agents wanted in every locality. Address: FROST & WOOD, P. O. BOX 118, ST. JOHN, N. B.

JOGGINS MINES. (Colliery Guardian.)

After deliberating for some time, the truth of the saying that half a loaf is better than none appears to have been realized by some of the men at this mine. About one-third of the miners returned to work, the balance threat ened interference with them, but the latest reports are to the effect that they will also submit to the inevitable and resume work at the reduced rates. P. agership in place of H. T. McCarthy. It is to be hoped that matters will be unicably arranged in a short time, as otherwise the company with fie unable to quote prices for the spring con-

WANTED Farmers' Sons

or other industrious persons of fair educa-tion to whom $25.00 a month would be an in-ducement. Write me with references. Could also engage a few ladies at their own homes. T. H. LINSCOTT, 155 Bay Street, Toronto.

$1.25 to any address is Canada on receipt of price. GURNEY & LUNDY, Barbers, 59 Germain Street, St. John, N. B.

EQUITY SALE.

Meschage from the schooner Allanza, which went ashore on Plum sland yesterday, is piled high on shore. The four men rescued will be sent to Bosten. Only two bodies came ashore today, those of Captain Melanson and satior John Reed.

Andrew McCarron, cook on the Allanza, was an uncle of Mrs. Melanson, wife of the captain.

Andrew McCarron, cook on the Allanza, was an uncle of Mrs. Melanson, wife of the captain.

Mate McCullo of the Florida resided in Carlston, where his family and five or six children live. The family are quite young.

Abial Straight, a highly esteemed resident of McDonaid's Corner, Queens Co., died on the evening of the Six util, aged 72 years, leaving a sorrowing widow, eight sons and four daughters to the mourn their loss.

The LATE MR. FELLOWS.

The fameral of the late James I. Fellows, McMarine Mary, Jan. 25, at the Kensal Greece cometery, London, on the Marine Mari