A FAMILY QUARREL.

Complete domestic harmony no longer reigns at a certain residence in Milford. The fact of the matter is that harmony left a considerable time ago and has discreetly stayed. It appears that a married woman is not so fond of her husband as she should be. There is another and he lives on this side of the river. Some time ago the lady left her home and went to live with her mother. There she was visited by the third person. A couple of evenings ago the husband decided that he had put up with too much of this, and he long, so he and a friend started up to the house to annihilate the steady caller. But the best laid plans often go astray. The two women, without the assistance of the male friend, proved a good deal too able for the invaders.
While the battle went on near the front of the premises the other man made a strategic move out the side door.

ST. JOHN MUSIC FESTIVAL.

William R. Chapman, who is the head and front of the great music festival to be held at the Opera house Sept. 20 and Oct. 1, stands foremost throughout America as an organizer and conductor. In New York City, where he has been recognized as a power for the last ten years, he has large demands made on his time and strength by his extensive work in music in and about that city. The concerts of the Rubenstein and Apollo clubs, held in the music rooms of the Waldorf-Astoria, rank among the most brilliant social as well as musical exhibitions of the season. But he is best known in this province in connection with his magnificent work in the Maine festivals. What he has done in Maine Mr. Chapman contemplates repeating in St. John. To this end he will bring his own festival orchestra of 40 pieces and four of the greatest living grand opera stars.

The sale of reserved season tickets will open at the Opera house on Monday next.

WITHOUT FOOD OR WATER.

Secretary Wetmore of the S. P. C. A. received a telegram last night from Moncton that several cars of sheep had passed through on the way to Bangor and that the animals needed at this morning and had four cars of sheep sidetracked. The animals had been shipped from Antigonish on the 11th, and have been two days without food and water. Mr. Wetmore had them removed from the cars and put in the cattle pens, where they will be kept until they are ready to be forwarded. He intends that the law in this matter will be strictly carried out so far as he is able to attend to it.

GERMAIN STREET BURGLARY.

Sometime last night or this morning some person or persons broke into the office of the Messenger and Visitor, on Germain street, and stole in bills, postal and express orders somewhere between fifty and sixty dollars. The money was placed in a drawer which was to all intents securely closed. This morning, when Dr. Manning arrived at the office the outside door was open and the drawer partly open, and the money which had been left there was gone.
There was no trace of the burglars.

DR. J. H. MORRISON

His Death Occurred at 10.40 O'clock This Morning.

Sadly Sensational Ending of the Trial Before the Court Yesterday.

The sensational case yesterday in progress in the circuit court has been brought to a sudden and sad conclusion by the death of the plaintiff, Dr.
J. H. Morrison, which occurred at twenty minutes to eleven this morning.

Dr. Morrison has been in delicate health during the past two years and a half, and the continued strain of the case, the large part of which he has been on the stand subject to close examination, proved too much for his weakened condition. Early yesterday morning he awoke unwell, but partially recovered, though not sufficiently to attend to the case. Dr. Inches saw him about 10 o'clock, when he showed no dangerous symptoms. Shortly afterward he became unconscious, and to all appearances moribund. Artificial respiration was resorted to, and during the evening he appeared to rally slightly, only to fall steadily during the night.

He never rallied and death took place this morning.
A party written letter addressed to his brother explained Dr. Morrison's condition. It appears that he had been taking morphine with the knowledge of his family. It is thought that he took more than usual lately.
The immediate cause of death is supposed to have been the bursting of a blood vessel in his brain.

Joseph H. Morrison, M. D., Ph. D., and M. C. P. S. M., was born in St.
John October 26th, 1854. He was the son of Rev. Daniel Morrison and Margaret Turner. His father was for many years a Presbyterian clergyman and later superintendent of education in various parts of the country. Dr.
Morrison was educated at the high and normal schools of New Brunswick; Bellevue college, New York; Guy's hospital, London; Royal Ophthalmic hospital, London; and the University of Paris. He was a member of the Pennsylvania State Normal school. In 1881 he went to Manitoba, and for some years was identified with the social, educational and political department of Western Manitoba, after which he came to St. John, where he was a specialist. While in England he was assistant to the late Sir Morell Mc-Kenzie, the world-famed, throat surgeon, and occupied several positions in connection with the eye and ear department of the Royal Ophthalmic hospital, London. After his settlement in St. John Dr. Morrison enjoyed a large and lucrative practice in his special lines.

He belonged to the Masonic and Orange orders, also to the Ancient Order of United Workmen. While in Manitoba he was inspector of schools, for five years, provincial coroner and medical health officer, and also surgeon to the Indian department.
In politics he was an active conservative, and in the interest of his party addressed meetings in various parts of the dominion. He contested the Kings county in 1899 as a liberal conservative candidate for the provincial legislature, and fought a gallant battle against overwhelming odds. He was for some years the president of the Junior Liberal Conservative Association in this city.

Dr. Morrison was married in 1881 to Ida, daughter of T. W. Keirstead of Ipswich, N. B. She died in 1887, leaving one daughter, now fifteen years of age. His second wife was a daughter of the late James L. Dunn. Two children survive this marriage, aged respectively four and two years.

AFTER BIG GAME.

Three Hunting Parties Arrived in Fredericton—Went to Miramichi.

(Fredericton Gleaner.)
Dr. Heber Bishop of Boston will go to Cain's River for a moose, having Jim Paul as guide. He will come on Saturday and go into the woods by way of St. John. Three hunting parties arrived here on the morning of the 11th, and after the usual breakfast, they started for the Miramichi big game country. They are N. T. De Pauw of New Brunswick, E. T. Norris and E. H. Phillips of Newcastle, N. B., and Henry Brathwaite of Fredericton. B. R. Horton, N. H. and F. E. Benjamin of Boston, who are to hunt with Arthur Evans; and L. Sy-dam, Jr., and G. B. North of New York and J. L. Wentz of Philadelphia, who have Chipman Bartlett of Philadelphia as their guide. Mr. Houghton is the only one of the nine who has hunted in New Brunswick before, although the other gentlemen have hunted moose and other game in Maine and elsewhere.

Dr. King and Mr. Greene, who arrived here yesterday, also left this afternoon for the Miramichi in quest of moose. Ed. Norrad, Brathwaite's partner, will accompany them to the haunts of the monarchs of the forest.
Mrs. Greene, who accompanied her husband here, in together with her friend, Miss Stephen, a guest at Windward hall and will remain here until Mr.
Greene comes out of the woods.

DEATH OF LEMUEL A. WILMOT.

The death occurred recently in the State of Washington, of Lemuel A.
Wilmot, formerly of Lake George, York County. Mr. Wilmot went west many years ago and had accumulated considerable property, and the only will he left was one executed at Lake George, twenty-five years ago, and which has been secured and forwarded to the attorneys of the estate, and by the terms of which all the valuable property is left to the widow of the deceased.

TRUTH AT LAST.

Murray D. McCutcheon Arrested on a Charge of Forgery.

Admits to Chief Clerk That It Was He Who Secured the Money From the May Queen.

The saying that murder will out is as true as it is old, and it is forcefully brought to mind almost every day.
Sometimes it is only a small matter, but very often some very serious wrongs are righted, and the good name of some unlucky one who has been living under a shadow is cleared.

The trial of Harry Nelson, the North End barber, who but a couple of months ago stood in the dock charged with obtaining money under false pretenses from the May Queen is fresh in the memory of all. Nelson was honorably discharged, but his friends felt they never could be thoroughly satisfied until the guilty party was brought to justice.

And today their wish has been granted, as an unfortunate lad taken in custody this morning on a charge of forgery, practically admitted to Chief Clerk and other officers that he was the party who got the money from the May Queen.

Early this week an order, supposed to be signed by a man named Kane, a resident of Queens County, was presented to Slipp & Fawcett authorising the payment of $46.00 to bearer.
The amount was due Mr. Kane for ship purchased, and was promptly paid. Yesterday Mr. Kane called in the man to whom he paid the money.
The order was at once pronounced a forgery, and the matter referred to Chief Clarke.
Detective Ring and Sgt. Hastings were put on the case, and about 10:30 o'clock this morning arrested Murray D. Mc-Cutcheon, 20 years of age, who belongs to Lake View, Kings County. McCutcheon was arrested at Currie's Business College, where he was taking a business course. He was identified by Mr. Slipp as the man to whom he paid the money. On the way to the central station the suspect admitted his guilt, claiming he was hard up and needed the money. The officers went to the house on Mecklenburg street where the young man boarded and searched his trunk. In a sack in the bottom of the trunk $46.00 was found. In a woolen mit $39.00 was discovered, seven ten dollar bills and two fives. On the prisoner's person was found $3.30, a watch, lately purchased from Sharp, the jeweller, for $20, and a valuable ring.
McCutcheon worked for a few weeks early in the season on the steamer Springfield.

Mr. McCutcheon was this afternoon brought before the magistrate the charge against him was read and he was remanded until tomorrow morning.

THE CASE POSTPONED.

At the circuit court yesterday afternoon Mr. Hazen asked that the case be postponed for a day on account of the serious illness of Dr. J. H. Morrison, plaintiff in Morrison v. St. John Railway. Dr. Pugsley, for the defend-ent company, expressed his willingness to have the case postponed, and suggested that as Dr. Morrison's condition was serious, Monday be named as the day on which the court would again meet.
