MADRID, Feb. 10—The assumption of the premiership by Jose Canalejas Y. Mendes, the Radical and Anti-Cler-Y. Mendes, the Radical and Anti-Clerical, has caused great surprise among the reactionaries who had assumed that when Moret fell, King Alfonso would institute a more moderate rather than a more radical regime.

The impression prevails that the King has outwitted the intriguers by boldly confiding the government to Canalejas for the purpose of giving to the country a clear proof of his sincerity in the role of a constitutional sovereign.

The Manana, a social-Liberal organ, says that the imperious necessities of the times brought Canalejas to power. The Common Council is meeting this afternoon in special session to discuss the agreement with F. C. Durant regarding the proposed sugar rednery. Since it was last before the countil some changes have been made in the agreement and it will be necessary to decide about these changes before the proposition advances further.
