

Social Notes of the Week

SACKVILLE

Sackville, March 23—Miss Cassie Hay of Woodstock, who has been visiting in the town, left Tuesday for Shidias.

The tea hostesses at the I. O. D. E. rooms on Tuesday afternoon were Mrs. Freeman-Lake, Mrs. C. C. Aard, Mrs. Albert Palmer and Miss Tweedie. Miss Marie DesBarres and Miss Edith Hutton, spent Monday in Amherst.

Mr. Second was host at a very enjoyable party on Monday evening, in honor of some of the military men in town.

Mrs. Percy Gillis and little son, Stewart, who have been spending a week in Moncton, guests of Mrs. Wm. Turner, have returned home.

Miss Harriet Stewart leaves for Halifax, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Dove.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fawcett were host and hostess at a very enjoyable dinner party on Monday evening, in honor of the officers connected with the various military units stationed here.

The local chapter I. O. D. E. has raised since the first of the war, or since the latter of August, 1914, the sum of $4,733 for the various patriotic endeavors toward which they have contributed. When it is considered that this sum represents the result of purely voluntary labors undertaken in addition to the ordinary duties of the ladies in the chapter, and that extensive contributions of comforts and supplies have been made besides the direct money gifts, the importance of the work achieved by the local chapter is very apparent.

Rev. Mr. Dibble of Amherst was a guest of Dr. and Mrs. Wiggins at the rectory, on Monday evening.

Lieut. Governor Wood spent last week in Fredericton.

A. H. McClary returned Wednesday from Boston, where he had been called by the very serious illness of his sister.

A. C. Smith representing A. E. Wry, Standard Ltd., is now in St. John, New Brunswick.

Mrs. James Horton of Amherst, spent Tuesday in town, guest of friends.

Mrs. A. C. Chapman of Moncton, spent the week-end in town, guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Fawcett.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, March 14th at the home of Mr. Edward Robinson, when his daughter, Miss Edith Robinson, was united in marriage to Mr. Fred Ryan of Vancouver, B. C., who has been visiting relatives in town, left Monday for Sussex, where he will spend a few days.

Rev. J. H. Brownell officiated in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom, and a number of the congregation. The bride was dressed in blue silk gown trimmed with Georgette crepe, was given away by her father. The wedding march was played by Miss Mary Mitton of Port Elgin.

After the ceremony a dinner was served. The bride's traveling suit was navy blue serge, with blue silk hat. Mr. and Mrs. Mitton left on the evening train on a trip to Boston and New York. On their return they will reside at Port Elgin.

The Oneida-White Club met on Wednesday evening last with Mrs. B. C. Borden in Hart hall. The programme on this occasion was of a different character from preceding meetings of the club this winter, as an illustrated travel talk was given by Mrs. A. H. McCready. The subject was "A visit to Quebec and the Shrine of the Virgin." Mrs. McCready related the history of the French occupations of Canada and told of the final conquest by the English under General Wolfe, in a most graphic and attractive manner. A description of St. Anne's Shrine, in story and picture was most interesting.

Mr. George Raymond and young daughter Muriel, were visitors at St. John for a few days this week.

Miss Alice Clark was the guest of St. John friends on Sunday.

Mrs. F. Whelpley returned on Saturday to her home in Moncton, after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. N. M. Barnes.

Mrs. A. N. Chipman was a weekend guest of St. John. She was the guest of Mrs. Geo. McAvity and Mrs. Howard Seely.

Mrs. Malcolm returned this week from an extended visit with her son in St. Stephen.

Serjt. Major Basanta, St. John, was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Chipman.

Pte. A. Barry spent part of the week in St. John.

Miss Jean Schofield is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schofield.

Miss Elizabeth Dickson, St. John, was a weekend guest of Mrs. Stanley Dixon, North Newton.

Mrs. S. Golding, Mrs. T. M. Carmichael of Wickham and Mr. George Jenkins of Bellefleur, were guests of Capt. and Mrs. T. A. Mabey on Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. G. H. McDonald, Sussex, was a visitor in Hampton on Tuesday.

Rev. Charles Warneford of Johnstown, Queens County, was a guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Hamill Warneford.

Mrs. W. Scribner, St. John, called on Hampton friends on Tuesday.

On Friday evening the young people of the United Baptist church met in the Village Church and organized a Young People's Union, with Miss Marietta Friesse as president, and Miss Alberta Cranfield as secretary. The members are divided in four groups with Miss Muriel Seely, Maude Blair, Eva Howard and Mr. Roy Chipman as captains. Each group will have charge of one meeting a month.

The Lower Norton Branch of Red Cross Society was entertained the week at the home of Mrs. George Friesse.

Miss McGee, St. John, has been the guest of Mrs. Baird this week.

The Norton Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church, held their annual business meeting at the rectory on Friday afternoon, appointing the following officers: President, Miss Helen Raymond; Honorary President, Mrs. Parker; Treasurer, Mrs. Kenneth Raymond; Recording Secretary, Miss Gussie Wetmore; Corresponding secretary, Miss Dorothy Hendricks.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Nigle and young daughter Marion were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Desmond this week.

ST. STEPHEN

St. Stephen, March 23—Miss Vair has returned from an extended visit at her home in Nova Scotia and has resumed her position as milliner with Miss Pittman.

Serjt. Fred Dorey has returned to Woodstock after spending a few days leave at his home in town.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained the Library Club at her home, West-Cliff Chambers on Thursday evening of next week.

Miss Marjorie Haley was hostess at a tea on Friday evening last, which was well attended and greatly enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Hedley Cooper, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry McAllister in Milltown, has concluded her visit there, and is at present the guest of Mrs. Ned Marchie in Calais.

Mrs. Cooper has been receiving much social attention and many St. Croix Valley friends are pleased to renew old acquaintance with us.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained at dinner on Friday last for the pleasure of Mrs. Hedley Cooper.

The Wa Wa Club met with Miss Alice Sullivan on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. J. J. Gregory continues to improve in health much to the delight of her many friends.

Members of the Canadian Club and others are looking forward with much pleasure to the prospective address by the Baroness Hurd, which it is expected will be given on Friday evening, April 20th.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Howard Stannard, nee Marjorie Baskin, of New York City, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss Jessie Smith of Woodstock is the guest of Miss Elva Nicholson at her home on Main St.

Mrs. Mel Buchanan entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening for the pleasure of her guests, Mrs. E. A. Goodwin and Mrs. Robert Clark.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lou Rette are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Goucher at the Baptist residence on Third St.

Miss Beatrice Gardiner of Calais, is confined to her home with a severe attack of the prevalent grippe.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson entertained at bridge on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. W. R. Carson has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in St. John.

The Canadian Club is planning to hold a food sale in H. L. Wall's book store on Saturday afternoon for which they bespeak a liberal amount of patronage.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Club will be held at the Town Council Chambers on Thursday evening of next week.

Miss Marjorie Haley was hostess at a tea on Friday evening last, which was well attended and greatly enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Hedley Cooper, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry McAllister in Milltown, has concluded her visit there, and is at present the guest of Mrs. Ned Marchie in Calais.

Mrs. Cooper has been receiving much social attention and many St. Croix Valley friends are pleased to renew old acquaintance with us.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained at dinner on Friday last for the pleasure of Mrs. Hedley Cooper.

The Wa Wa Club met with Miss Alice Sullivan on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. J. J. Gregory continues to improve in health much to the delight of her many friends.

Members of the Canadian Club and others are looking forward with much pleasure to the prospective address by the Baroness Hurd, which it is expected will be given on Friday evening, April 20th.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Howard Stannard, nee Marjorie Baskin, of New York City, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss Jessie Smith of Woodstock is the guest of Miss Elva Nicholson at her home on Main St.

Mrs. Mel Buchanan entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening for the pleasure of her guests, Mrs. E. A. Goodwin and Mrs. Robert Clark.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lou Rette are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Goucher at the Baptist residence on Third St.

Miss Beatrice Gardiner of Calais, is confined to her home with a severe attack of the prevalent grippe.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson entertained at bridge on Wednesday evening of this week.

St. Stephen, March 23—Miss Vair has returned from an extended visit at her home in Nova Scotia and has resumed her position as milliner with Miss Pittman.

Serjt. Fred Dorey has returned to Woodstock after spending a few days leave at his home in town.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained the Library Club at her home, West-Cliff Chambers on Thursday evening of next week.

Miss Marjorie Haley was hostess at a tea on Friday evening last, which was well attended and greatly enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Hedley Cooper, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry McAllister in Milltown, has concluded her visit there, and is at present the guest of Mrs. Ned Marchie in Calais.

Mrs. Cooper has been receiving much social attention and many St. Croix Valley friends are pleased to renew old acquaintance with us.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained at dinner on Friday last for the pleasure of Mrs. Hedley Cooper.

The Wa Wa Club met with Miss Alice Sullivan on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. J. J. Gregory continues to improve in health much to the delight of her many friends.

Members of the Canadian Club and others are looking forward with much pleasure to the prospective address by the Baroness Hurd, which it is expected will be given on Friday evening, April 20th.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Howard Stannard, nee Marjorie Baskin, of New York City, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss Jessie Smith of Woodstock is the guest of Miss Elva Nicholson at her home on Main St.

Mrs. Mel Buchanan entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening for the pleasure of her guests, Mrs. E. A. Goodwin and Mrs. Robert Clark.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lou Rette are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Goucher at the Baptist residence on Third St.

Miss Beatrice Gardiner of Calais, is confined to her home with a severe attack of the prevalent grippe.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson entertained at bridge on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. W. R. Carson has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in St. John.

The Canadian Club is planning to hold a food sale in H. L. Wall's book store on Saturday afternoon for which they bespeak a liberal amount of patronage.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Club will be held at the Town Council Chambers on Thursday evening of next week.

Miss Marjorie Haley was hostess at a tea on Friday evening last, which was well attended and greatly enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Hedley Cooper, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry McAllister in Milltown, has concluded her visit there, and is at present the guest of Mrs. Ned Marchie in Calais.

Mrs. Cooper has been receiving much social attention and many St. Croix Valley friends are pleased to renew old acquaintance with us.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained at dinner on Friday last for the pleasure of Mrs. Hedley Cooper.

The Wa Wa Club met with Miss Alice Sullivan on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. J. J. Gregory continues to improve in health much to the delight of her many friends.

Members of the Canadian Club and others are looking forward with much pleasure to the prospective address by the Baroness Hurd, which it is expected will be given on Friday evening, April 20th.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Howard Stannard, nee Marjorie Baskin, of New York City, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss Jessie Smith of Woodstock is the guest of Miss Elva Nicholson at her home on Main St.

Mrs. Mel Buchanan entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening for the pleasure of her guests, Mrs. E. A. Goodwin and Mrs. Robert Clark.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lou Rette are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Goucher at the Baptist residence on Third St.

Miss Beatrice Gardiner of Calais, is confined to her home with a severe attack of the prevalent grippe.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson entertained at bridge on Wednesday evening of this week.

St. Stephen, March 23—Miss Vair has returned from an extended visit at her home in Nova Scotia and has resumed her position as milliner with Miss Pittman.

Serjt. Fred Dorey has returned to Woodstock after spending a few days leave at his home in town.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained the Library Club at her home, West-Cliff Chambers on Thursday evening of next week.

Miss Marjorie Haley was hostess at a tea on Friday evening last, which was well attended and greatly enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Hedley Cooper, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry McAllister in Milltown, has concluded her visit there, and is at present the guest of Mrs. Ned Marchie in Calais.

Mrs. Cooper has been receiving much social attention and many St. Croix Valley friends are pleased to renew old acquaintance with us.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained at dinner on Friday last for the pleasure of Mrs. Hedley Cooper.

The Wa Wa Club met with Miss Alice Sullivan on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. J. J. Gregory continues to improve in health much to the delight of her many friends.

Members of the Canadian Club and others are looking forward with much pleasure to the prospective address by the Baroness Hurd, which it is expected will be given on Friday evening, April 20th.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Howard Stannard, nee Marjorie Baskin, of New York City, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss Jessie Smith of Woodstock is the guest of Miss Elva Nicholson at her home on Main St.

Mrs. Mel Buchanan entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening for the pleasure of her guests, Mrs. E. A. Goodwin and Mrs. Robert Clark.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lou Rette are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Goucher at the Baptist residence on Third St.

Miss Beatrice Gardiner of Calais, is confined to her home with a severe attack of the prevalent grippe.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson entertained at bridge on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. W. R. Carson has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in St. John.

The Canadian Club is planning to hold a food sale in H. L. Wall's book store on Saturday afternoon for which they bespeak a liberal amount of patronage.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Club will be held at the Town Council Chambers on Thursday evening of next week.

Miss Marjorie Haley was hostess at a tea on Friday evening last, which was well attended and greatly enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Hedley Cooper, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry McAllister in Milltown, has concluded her visit there, and is at present the guest of Mrs. Ned Marchie in Calais.

Mrs. Cooper has been receiving much social attention and many St. Croix Valley friends are pleased to renew old acquaintance with us.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained at dinner on Friday last for the pleasure of Mrs. Hedley Cooper.

The Wa Wa Club met with Miss Alice Sullivan on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. J. J. Gregory continues to improve in health much to the delight of her many friends.

Members of the Canadian Club and others are looking forward with much pleasure to the prospective address by the Baroness Hurd, which it is expected will be given on Friday evening, April 20th.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Howard Stannard, nee Marjorie Baskin, of New York City, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss Jessie Smith of Woodstock is the guest of Miss Elva Nicholson at her home on Main St.

Mrs. Mel Buchanan entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening for the pleasure of her guests, Mrs. E. A. Goodwin and Mrs. Robert Clark.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lou Rette are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Goucher at the Baptist residence on Third St.

Miss Beatrice Gardiner of Calais, is confined to her home with a severe attack of the prevalent grippe.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson entertained at bridge on Wednesday evening of this week.

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, March 23—The Senior Branch Women's Auxiliary met in annual session on Monday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. A. W. Daniel, beside whom there were present Mrs. W. J. Davidson, Mrs. F. Brock, Mrs. Donville, Miss Louisa Fairweather, Miss Hendricks, Mrs. David Robertson, Mrs. W. R. Hibbard, Miss Pitcher, Mrs. James Pettigall, Mrs. Plummer, Miss Mabel Gilbert, Miss Sewen, Miss Howland, Mrs. J. H. Henderson, Miss Helen Thomson, Mrs. G. H. S. Heaven and Mrs. Puddington. The session opened with a devotional service led by Rev. Canon Daniel. Mrs. Hevenor, organist of St. Paul's church played the piano for the singing. Rev. A. L. Fleming of St. John, was introduced by the rector and gave a very pleasing and instructive address, describing something of the missionary work he had been able to do at Baffin Land, added interest was given by the use of a map. A unanimous vote of thanks was presented to Mr. Fleming, by Mrs. Daniel. The secretary, Mrs. W. J. Davidson, read several letters and also the several appeals to be voted on at the annual diocesan meeting to be held in Trinity church school room, St. John, April 24th to 26th. Mrs. Davidson also gave a splendid report of the work done. The treasurer's report by Miss Fairweather was most satisfactory. Mrs. Hanington the Dorcas secretary is visiting in Montreal and her report was read by Mrs. Hibbard. Mrs. Richmond Dore told of her work as Junior Superintendent. Miss Hendrick spoke of the "extra cent a day" idea and urged more interest be taken. Mrs. Davidson had received over $11.00 for the "Baby's Branch" memorial fund. The election of officers for the ensuing year, most of these being retained in office took place. The list now stands, Mrs. Daniel, president; Mrs. Hibbard, first vice president; David Robertson, second vice president; Miss L. Fairweather, treasurer; Mrs. W. J. Davidson, secretary; Mrs. Hanington, Dorcas secretary; Mrs. Dore, Junior superintendent; Mrs. Davidson baby's branch secretary. The delegates to the meeting at St. John next month substitutes Mrs. Brock, Miss M. Gilbert and Miss Hendricks, Miss Sewell and Miss Thomson were commissioned to open the thank offering books, being $20.35. Afternoon tea was enjoyed, as was this opportunity for a social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell are leaving this Thursday afternoon to visit the Red Cross tea hostesses with Mrs. John Calhoun at Bathmore.

Several friends gathered at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. at Bathmore, to tender congratulations to the anniversary of her birthday, March 15th. The good wishes and shower of birthday tokens and letters were much appreciated and the occasion a very happy one.

At the residence of the Misses Gilbert on Tuesday evening a very interesting meeting of the Reading Club was held. Miss Pitcher had charge of the programme, and had arranged for several papers, on Russia, the country, the people, customs, etc., as an introduction to the study of Russian Literature, which is to be taken up by the members. These papers were given by Miss Pitcher, Miss Muriel Robertson, Rev. W. R. Hibbard, Miss Gannon and Miss Mabel Gilbert. Next week's meeting will be at Fr. Shade, teacher, and Rev. Mr. Hibbard will be the leader. Among those attending on Tuesday evening were Miss Margaret Fairweather, Miss Donville, Mrs. E. S. Williams displayed a very stylish and pretty assortment of spring hats at her opening on Tuesday and Wednesday.

A. J. McDonald of Halifax, was among strangers this week in town.

St. John, March 23—Miss Vair has returned from an extended visit at her home in Nova Scotia and has resumed her position as milliner with Miss Pittman.

Serjt. Fred Dorey has returned to Woodstock after spending a few days leave at his home in town.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained the Library Club at her home, West-Cliff Chambers on Thursday evening of next week.

Miss Marjorie Haley was hostess at a tea on Friday evening last, which was well attended and greatly enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Hedley Cooper, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry McAllister in Milltown, has concluded her visit there, and is at present the guest of Mrs. Ned Marchie in Calais.

Mrs. Cooper has been receiving much social attention and many St. Croix Valley friends are pleased to renew old acquaintance with us.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained at dinner on Friday last for the pleasure of Mrs. Hedley Cooper.

The Wa Wa Club met with Miss Alice Sullivan on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. J. J. Gregory continues to improve in health much to the delight of her many friends.

Members of the Canadian Club and others are looking forward with much pleasure to the prospective address by the Baroness Hurd, which it is expected will be given on Friday evening, April 20th.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Howard Stannard, nee Marjorie Baskin, of New York City, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss Jessie Smith of Woodstock is the guest of Miss Elva Nicholson at her home on Main St.

Mrs. Mel Buchanan entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening for the pleasure of her guests, Mrs. E. A. Goodwin and Mrs. Robert Clark.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lou Rette are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Goucher at the Baptist residence on Third St.

Miss Beatrice Gardiner of Calais, is confined to her home with a severe attack of the prevalent grippe.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson entertained at bridge on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. W. R. Carson has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in St. John.

The Canadian Club is planning to hold a food sale in H. L. Wall's book store on Saturday afternoon for which they bespeak a liberal amount of patronage.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Club will be held at the Town Council Chambers on Thursday evening of next week.

Miss Marjorie Haley was hostess at a tea on Friday evening last, which was well attended and greatly enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Hedley Cooper, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry McAllister in Milltown, has concluded her visit there, and is at present the guest of Mrs. Ned Marchie in Calais.

Mrs. Cooper has been receiving much social attention and many St. Croix Valley friends are pleased to renew old acquaintance with us.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained at dinner on Friday last for the pleasure of Mrs. Hedley Cooper.

The Wa Wa Club met with Miss Alice Sullivan on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. J. J. Gregory continues to improve in health much to the delight of her many friends.

Members of the Canadian Club and others are looking forward with much pleasure to the prospective address by the Baroness Hurd, which it is expected will be given on Friday evening, April 20th.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Howard Stannard, nee Marjorie Baskin, of New York City, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss Jessie Smith of Woodstock is the guest of Miss Elva Nicholson at her home on Main St.

Mrs. Mel Buchanan entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening for the pleasure of her guests, Mrs. E. A. Goodwin and Mrs. Robert Clark.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lou Rette are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Goucher at the Baptist residence on Third St.

Miss Beatrice Gardiner of Calais, is confined to her home with a severe attack of the prevalent grippe.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson entertained at bridge on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. W. R. Carson has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in St. John.

The Canadian Club is planning to hold a food sale in H. L. Wall's book store on Saturday afternoon for which they bespeak a liberal amount of patronage.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Club will be held at the Town Council Chambers on Thursday evening of next week.

Miss Marjorie Haley was hostess at a tea on Friday evening last, which was well attended and greatly enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Hedley Cooper, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry McAllister in Milltown, has concluded her visit there, and is at present the guest of Mrs. Ned Marchie in Calais.

Mrs. Cooper has been receiving much social attention and many St. Croix Valley friends are pleased to renew old acquaintance with us.

Miss Louise Purvis entertained at dinner on Friday last for the pleasure of Mrs. Hedley Cooper.

The Wa Wa Club met with Miss Alice Sullivan on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. J. J. Gregory continues to improve in health much to the delight of her many friends.

Members of the Canadian Club and others are looking forward with much pleasure to the prospective address by the Baroness Hurd, which it is expected will be given on Friday evening, April 20th.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Howard Stannard, nee Marjorie Baskin, of New York City, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss Jessie Smith of Woodstock is the guest of Miss Elva Nicholson at her home on Main St.

Mrs. Mel Buchanan entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening for the pleasure of her guests, Mrs. E. A. Goodwin and Mrs. Robert Clark.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lou Rette are the guests of Dr. and Mrs