

Miss Bessie Dixon, of Moncton, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James Wry, Charlotte street.

Miss Bessie Ford returned to Wolfville today to resume her studies at Acadia Seminary.

Mrs. J. P. Trueman is spending the week at Amherst, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Chapman.

Miss Margaret George and Mrs. Edgar George are visiting friends at Port Elgin. Rev. C. V. and Mrs. Wiggins are enjoying a visit at Ottawa. Rev. Mr. Quinn, of Mr. Whitley, will occupy the pulpit of St. Paul's church during the absence of Rev. Mr. Wiggins.

Mrs. Geo. Trueman and Miss Neta Favett returned to Riverview on Monday. After their short trip to Riverview, they returned to their homes on Monday. After a pleasant visit at Upper Sackville, Mrs. J. F. Allison entertained at bridge on Saturday from 4 to 7. Mrs. Switzer carried off the first prize, and Mrs. H. C. Read the second.

Mrs. Thos. Stuart has recovered from an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. Robert Loverson is critically ill. Mr. R. M. Fulton and daughter, of Sydney, arrived in Sackville Monday. Miss Fulton entered the ladies college, and Mr. Fulton returned on Tuesday.

Rev. Maunsel Shewen, of Greenwick, was in town on Saturday.

Misses Harrison and McConnell, of Sydney, are spending a few days in town. Mrs. Switzer entertained at bridge this afternoon.

Rev. C. W. Hamilton will go to Harcourt on Saturday to speak in the interest of temperance.

Mr. A. F. Tomlins, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, was in town today, en route from a visit at Campbellton.

Mr. J. Roy Harper has returned from a holiday trip to Campbellton.

Mrs. Pauley will continue the reading circle on Monday evening next. A very interesting programme is being prepared.

Rev. J. B. Ganong, field secretary, is in the guest of Rev. Mr. Ganong. Rev. Mr. Ganong is en route from a Sabbath school convention at Shelburne.

Mr. John T. Carter is recovering from his recent illness.

Mrs. Edward Wells and son, Walter, are spending a week at Dorchester.

Mrs. Alder Jones and family (N. B.), is the guest of Rev. C. W. and Mrs. Hamilton.

Mr. Walter Fowler recently presented Main street Baptist church with a handsome communion table.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Towse, of Pugwash (N. S.), is visiting friends at Midport.

Mrs. E. T. Tupper and children have returned from a pleasant visit at Point de Bute.

Mrs. Cyrus Goodwin, of Point de Bute, is the guest of her son, Alderman W. L. Goodwin.

Mr. Percy Fitzpatrick, of Surry, Albert county, was in town on Monday, en route from a visit at his old home, Port Elgin, Sackville, Jan. 11.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brownell, Bas de Verte, was the scene of a wedding on Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Janet, to John R. Maxwell, of Glace Bay, Sydney. Rev. H. Brownell performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of friends of the contracting parties. The bride was becomingly gowned in white satin and wore a beautiful crown. She was given in marriage by her father, Miss Agnes Prescott played the wedding march. After the ceremony and congratulations a dainty wedding lunch was served, after which the happy couple took the train for their future home in Sydney. Many elegant presents, consisting of cut glass, silver, etc., testified to the esteem in which the bride is held.

The marriage of Miss Alice Maud Anderson and William Johnston was solemnized on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. J. L. Dawson tied the nuptial knot in the presence of a large number of guests. The bride looked charming in a gown of white tulle. She was unattended. After the ceremony and congratulations a wedding supper was served. The bride received a costly array of wedding gifts.

Lebanon Lodge, F. & A. M., were entertained to an evening at the new restaurant last evening by Messrs. Campbell and Wilson. Past Grand John presided. After supper was served speeches and toasts were in order. The singing by Auld Lang Syne brought the pleasant gathering to a close.

A successful Sunday school convention was recently held at Point de Bute. Rev. J. B. Ganong, field secretary, added much to the interest of the occasion by his presence. Rev. R. J. Colpitts gave an interesting address. The following officers were elected: Frank Trueman, president; Leonard Goodwin, vice-president; Grace Carter, secretary; additional members of executive, Buckley Oulton, Joseph Dixon and Howard Trueman.

Miss Coburn, of Fredericton, is the guest of Miss Sarah Pickard.

A telegram recently received here announces the sad news of the death of Miss Leah J. Britt, daughter of Henry Britt, of Morton's Harbour, Newfoundland. Miss Britt formerly lived in Sackville, where she was well and favorably known. She was twenty-two years old.

St. Martins, Jan. 11.—John C. Mosher, of Parrsboro (N. S.) and Havelock Mosher, of Apple River (N. S.), who were here to attend the funeral of their brother, the late Thomas Mosher, returned on Thursday to their homes.

Fenwick Brown returned this week to Toronto to resume his studies at college. Alex. Warrell, of St. John, is spending a few days here.

Capt. W. H. and Mrs. Moran returned on Wednesday from a short visit to St. John.

Mrs. David Brown is in St. John this week.

George Charlton, of Fairview, left on Monday to attend Normal school.

Miss Kathleen Gilmer left this week to resume her studies at Wolfville.

The village schools opened on Monday with a good attendance. Miss Sarah McLean assumed charge of the West Quaco school, which is the only change in the staff of teachers in this district.

David Smith, who spent "his vacation here, returned on Monday to take up his duties as principal of the schools of that village.

The West Quaco Sunday school closed for the winter months with a treat for the pupils supplemented by an excellent programme of readings, recitations and music. Deacon J. S. Titus, superintendent of the school, presided.

The schooner Hattie McKay, Captain Dard, bound to Parrsboro with a general cargo, is in here for harbor.

HARTLAND
Hartland, Jan. 10.—Misses Helen Bower, Alice Boyer and Bessie Shaw, of Victoria, left here on Monday for St. John, the two former on their way to Mount Allison.

Misses Barnett and Cory have returned to their Normal duties at Fredericton.

Misses Pearl Sutton and friend, of Woodstock, are guests at the parsonage this week.

Mrs. King, of Woodstock, is visiting her parents at Hartland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Morgan had their little girl, Mabel, taken to Woodstock, where she underwent a slight operation on the throat.

NEWCASTLE
Newcastle, N. B., Jan. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. James Ryan are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son.

Chas. Robinson, manager of Anderson & Co., St. John, has returned from a visit to his mother here, taking his daughter, Miss Mona, with him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. MacNutt have returned from Lower Stovosack (N. S.), where on the 8th they attended the marriage of Mr. MacNutt's sister, to Sinclair Logan, of Northern Pacific Railway.

On the eve of his departure for the west James Copeland was presented by L. O. L. No. 47, with an address and a chronograph was presented.

The testing of the new pump for fire purposes resulted a little unfavorably. Town Electrician Follansbee conducted the test. A. H. Williston and John Clarke present for the town and C. D. Ludlow, of Chatham, for the Fairbanks-Morse Co. contractors. The pump, which was guaranteed to run smoothly at 70 revolutions a minute under 100 pounds pressure, came up to only 60 revolutions, and did not run smoothly at more than 55 revolutions. The acceptance or rejection of the pump will come up at next meeting of council on the 24th inst.

Newcastle Division directed to District Division at Harcourt, 23rd inst.

W. Greear, Rev. H. C. Rice, D. McNutt, Miss Addie Bockler, Mrs. H. Ingram and Miss Olive Williamson.

HAMPTON
Hampton, Kings county, Jan. 9.—Miss Beatrice Smith resumed her duties as teacher of the public school at Holderville on Monday last.

Miss Maud Britton, who taught during the year at Holdville, Albert county, will not return, but is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Britton, Center Road.

The Rev. G. O. Fulton, Woodstock, after spending New Year's day with his mother and sisters in St. John, went to Sackville to visit a Woodstock student, and on his return made a short visit to his old friends in St. John, where he has been visiting in the past few days.

Miss Kate Barlett, who spent her Christmas and New Year's vacation with friends here, returned to her duties in the Halifax Ladies' College, on Monday.

Miss Frances Richards, whose extended vacation enabled her to spend another week with her mother and sisters in St. John, returned to her new school at Owen Sound, Ontario, on Monday.

Miss Frances Richards, who spent her vacation in St. John for some weeks past, returned on Saturday in a poor state of health, but will go to the city as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lyon, St. John, were visitors to the shiretown of Kings on Tuesday.

Miss Blanche Hoskin returned from her visit to Montreal on Monday, and resumed her school work in the primary department of Hampton Station school on Tuesday.

Miss Annie Cochrane who has been visiting friends in St. John for the past eight or ten days, returned to her home on Railway avenue, on Saturday last.

Mr. Frank Griffith, assistant in the drug store of Mr. C. Donald, is accountant in position and left for St. John on Saturday last. He is succeeded by Mr. Barker.

Miss Dolio has taken charge of the telephone exchange as "central," and her predecessor, Miss Lizzie Rudick, is accountant with Mr. J. Wm. Smith.

Miss Grace Fiewelling, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Fiewelling, Hampton, left for Woodstock, where she underwent a slight operation on the throat.

GREY'S MILLS
Grey's Mills, N. B., Jan. 7.—Miss Dixon, who has been teaching at Brown's Flats, Kings county, has accepted the school here for the ensuing term.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son.

Owing to his illness T. A. Leonard was unable to conduct his services here and in Kings County, on Monday.

The Kingston school opened this morning after the Christmas holidays.

Mr. L. A. Boatwick, who has been ill for several weeks, is convalescent.

REXTON
Rexton, N. B., Jan. 10.—John Hudson, of South Branch, brought to town Monday a large silver grey fox skin, for which it is said, he refused $500. The animal was caught in a snare about three miles above here.

Geo. E. Clark is visiting friends in Woodstock.

Miss Nellie Carr went to Sackville Monday to resume her duties as teacher of music at Mount Allison. Her sister, Miss Annie, went to Sussex Saturday to take her place as teacher there.

Mrs. J. H. Abbott, her daughter, Miss Lou, and Miss Florence Ross, of Buctouche, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Girvan recently.

Miss Lola Smith, who spent her vacation at her home here, returned to her school in Chatham.

Miss Lizzie O'Connor left Monday for Fredericton to attend the Provincial Normal School.

Frank McInerney went to St. John Monday to attend business college.

John Walker, of Base River, has purchased the Robertson mill at Bathurst and will move there shortly.

Miss Lizzie Moore returned to St. Louis convent Monday.

The Misses Collet returned to Buctouche convent.

Miss Amanda Mallet went to St. Louis Tuesday to attend the convent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ferguson spent Sunday in Kouchibouguac.

Smells are a little more plentiful, the price is still four cents per pound.

Daniel McDonald made a curious find Sunday night last. He heard a noise in the pantry of his house and on going in to ascertain what was the cause of it, found a rat coked in a pickle bottle and struggling to get out. The cork of the bottle had accidentally pushed into the bottle and it is supposed that the rat, in turning, pushed the cork back into its place, thus locking himself in. He died of starvation.

Fred Law went to Sackville Monday to attend college.

Miss Laura and Alice Mitchell visited Moncton last week.

Miss Kate Keswick returned to Rexton Saturday.

RICHBUCTO
Richibucto, Jan. 9.—The county council open yesterday with the warden, John Gordon, of Wolford, in the chair, and the following councillors in attendance: George Jardine, Hugh M. Daigle, Carlisle, Sylvain Barrigan, Francois R. Richibucto, Joseph LeBlanc, Honore Mallet, St. Louis; Pascal Hebert, Peter Michard, Richibucto; Robert Murphy, Wedford; Robert Saulnier, John Brown, Harcourt; John Sheridan, Frank D. Richard, Wellington; Maxime J. LeBlanc, Edmund Cormier, St. Marys; Peter Bellevue, St. Paul; Judas Richibucto, Alder Bourgeois.

The council only lacked one of making a full board—Premiere Johnson, of St. Paul, who was absent on account of illness.

Mrs. T. Murphy, of Dalhousie, was a guest of Mrs. W. Sweeney this week.

Misses Frances London and Mary E. Leane returned to Normal school, Fredericton, the first of the week.

Miss Frances Hall has come to attend St. Michael's Academy, Chatham.

Mrs. Metzler and children, of Campbellton, are visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. Scott, of Newcastle, visited her mother, Mrs. R. Hinton, last week.

Mrs. Malcolm and her two little sons, of Campbellton, were guests of Mrs. McKay this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Miller, of Moose Jaw, are visiting Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hinton.

Misses Margie Sweeney and Alice, Koomoo, Marguerite and Corinne Landry have returned to the C. N. D. Convent, Carleton Place.

Bishop Barry, with his secretary, Dr. Louis O'Leary, was here this week.

Mr. Clarence Yoniet has returned to Quebec to resume his studies at Laval.

Master Angus Hall has returned to St. Dunstan's (P. E. I.).

Mrs. Thos. Burns, who has been ill with pneumonia, is recovering.

Mr. W. Robertson spent some days in Harcourt this week.

Mrs. Claud Mercereau, of Chatham, was here for Sunday.

Rev. Mr. McCully returned on Monday from Dalry.

Mr. P. H. Melvin is recovering from a serious illness.

Mr. W. Girwood has returned to Fredericton this week.

Mr. Rupert Rive, of Carleton, made a short stay in town this week on his way to Halifax.

Master Fred White has returned to resume his studies at business college, St. John.

Driving parties were the enjoyment last week. The weather, the moon and the roads were all that could be desired and a number of young people took advantage of all these and enjoyed drives which had been planned by kind friends which appreciated fully the dainty lunches served at the end as well.

A number of small folk, friends of Master Jack Hanson, were very pleasantly entertained on Friday evening by Mrs. B. D. Hanson.

In the death of Mrs. W. J. Kent, Bathurst has lost one of its most estimable ladies. The most heartfelt sympathy of all goes out to Mr. W. J. Kent and family in their sad bereavement.

SUSSEX
Sussex, Jan. 10.—A general meeting was held in the rooms of the Sussex Institute of all those and friends of the institute who had been planned by kind friends which appreciated fully the dainty lunches served at the end as well.

A number of small folk, friends of Master Jack Hanson, were very pleasantly entertained on Friday evening by Mrs. B. D. Hanson.

In the death of Mrs. W. J. Kent, Bathurst has lost one of its most estimable ladies. The most heartfelt sympathy of all goes out to Mr. W. J. Kent and family in their sad bereavement.

TRURO
Truro, Jan. 9.—Mr. K. Lovell entertained a few of her friends at a very pleasant thimble party, on Tuesday afternoon. She was assisted by Miss O. Smith and Mrs. W. M. Ryan.

Mrs. William Archibald and her daughter gave a very enjoyable afternoon tea on Wednesday. Mrs. Dagald Henderson presided, and Mrs. Harry McKay and Mrs. Hingley assisted in entertaining the guests.

Mrs. Havelock Hart and daughter, Ruth, of Halifax, are guests with Mrs. J. F. Coffin. They have been in Sackville with Mrs. Hart's older daughter, who has just entered Mt. Allison Ladies' College. While in Sackville they were guests with Mr. Allison and family.

Miss Myrtle McCullum, who has been home for the Christmas recess, has now returned to Sydney.

Miss Harriet Carter, of Bible Hill, was married recently to Mr. John Coyle, of Chicago. A number of guests witnessed the ceremony, immediately after which the bride and groom left for an extensive trip to California and other places.

Mrs. M. A. McLean has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Anderson, in Sackville.

Mr. Morris Wilson, assistant manager of the Truro branch of the Royal Bank, has returned to town with his bride, formerly Miss Leone Mason, of Lunenburg.

Miss Susie Archibald, of Yarmouth, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. O'Brien.

Mrs. M. E. Johnson, of Boston, has been visiting her father, Mr. D. W. Archibald.

Rev. E. E. Daley, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church, spent part of last week in Moncton.

Miss Gertrude Outhard has been spending the Christmas holidays with her aunt, Mrs. H. H. Outhard.

Mrs. George Young Dibble entertained the Ladies' Bridge Club on Friday evening, when a most enjoyable time was spent. The tables were set for a most enjoyable evening were won by Miss Frankie first, Mrs. McGrath taking second and Mrs. Bailey the third.

Mrs. Allen H. F. Randolph with her children has gone to Toronto, where she will remain for the winter while the children are at school.

Mrs. Arthur R. Nipp entertained at dinner last evening when covers were laid for ten.

The engagement is announced of Miss Edith Davis to Mr. Orice Reid, of Riverside.

Miss Dorothea Huntton, who has been here visiting her grandfather, Dr. J. R. Reid, returned to her home at Sackville on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Massie, who were here spending the holidays with Mrs. Massie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. VanWart, returned Monday for their home in the Northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Crockett are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of their daughter, Lottie May, who was united in marriage to G. Arthur Mace, of Sussex (N. B.). The bride, who was given away by her father, was dressed in a traveling suit of grey with last to match. Rev. H. P. Patterson performed the ceremony, in the presence of a limited number of guests. Mr. and Mrs. Mace, after spending Sunday in Sussex, left for Magalloway, where Mr. Mace has accepted a position as teacher.

Mr. D. B. Laird, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has returned from his vacation.

Mr. F. S. Crafts, of Auburn (Me.), was in town for a few days presenting the funeral of the late Mr. E. Newcombe.

Quite a number of Amherst people went to Truro on Friday to attend the funeral of the late Mr. Wm. Cunningham. Among those who went were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Black, Mr. Wm. M. Read, Mr. B. J. Lawson, Mr. D. W. Freeman, Mr. Samuel Freeman, Mr. G. A. Martin, Mr. Rufus Hicks, Mr. N. A. Rhodes and Mr. J. A. Chiswick.

Messrs. George and Ralph Sterne have reopened their business at Truro.

Mr. R. M. Fulton, of Sydney, called at Amherst Tuesday on his return from Sackville, where he had accompanied his daughter Nellie, who is a student at Mt. Allison.

Mr. H. L. Dupuis, son of Manager Dupuis, of the Bank of Montreal, has been transferred to Chatham (Ont.). The staff of the Bank of Montreal gave a dinner in his honor Monday evening at the Woodcock Cafe. Mr. Dupuis was presented with a very handsome pipe.

Miss Maude Tennant, of New York, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Tennant, Rupert street.

Mr. E. B. Elderkin is in Halifax this week.

Mrs. Vaughan Black, who has been spending her vacation in town, returned to her home, Mrs. Dr. Black, returned to Montreal yesterday to resume his studies at McGill.

Mr. J. C. Harlow left Monday evening on a business trip to Toronto, and before his return expects to visit his sons in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Beverly Sterne, who has been representing the Robb Engineering Company in India, after an absence of four years is in town.

Master Harold Tennant has returned to Rothsay to resume his studies.

Mrs. Walter Grant received her friends Wednesday afternoon and evening this week.

Mr. A. J. Gorman, of Memramcook, has been spending a few days in town.

Miss M. A. Chubbuck was the hostess at a most enjoyable 5 o'clock tea on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Walter Brown left this week for Antigonish to attend St. Francis Xavier College.

A very pleasant event took place at the close of the choir practice Friday night in St. Stephen's Presbyterian church, when Prof. Max M. Sterne was presented by the members of the choir with a handsome gold headed cane. Professor Sterne has been organist and choir leader of St. Stephen's church for almost twenty years, and this remembrance is most fitting.

Mr. Norman Ralston returned on Monday to Dalhousie University.

Principal Lay returned on Saturday from Halifax.

Master Murdock MacGregor entertained a few of his boy friends on Saturday evening.

Miss Rose Smith and the Misses Kathleen and Genevieve Cook returned to the Sacred Heart Convent on Monday, after spending their Christmas vacation at home.

The Further Lights Society of the Baptist church spent a very enjoyable social evening at the home of Mrs. T. Cain, Monday evening. A good programme of music and literary selections was rendered by the members of the society.

Mrs. David Lawrence, of Port Lawrence, entertained several of the Amherst young people at her hospitable home this week. The young folks drove over in three big teams and thoroughly enjoyed their evening. Dancing was one of the chief features.

Miss Winnie and Mr. Clarence Thompson, of Upper Sackville, spent Sunday in Amherst, the guests of their sister, Mrs. John Lashby.

Mrs. B. C. Munro entertained her lady friends at bridge yesterday afternoon.

FREDERICTON
Fredericton, Jan. 10.—The young bachelors of Fredericton have issued invitations for a ball to be held at the Queen on the evening of Jan. 12.

Miss Gertrude Outhard has been spending the Christmas holidays with her aunt, Mrs. H. H. Outhard.

Mrs. George Young Dibble entertained the Ladies' Bridge Club on Friday evening, when a most enjoyable time was spent. The tables were set for a most enjoyable evening were won by Miss Frankie first, Mrs. McGrath taking second and Mrs. Bailey the third.

Mrs. Allen H. F. Randolph with her children has gone to Toronto, where she will remain for the winter while the children are at school.

Mrs. Arthur R. Nipp entertained at dinner last evening when covers were laid for ten.

The engagement is announced of Miss Edith Davis to Mr. Orice Reid, of Riverside.

Miss Dorothea Huntton, who has been here visiting her grandfather, Dr. J. R. Reid, returned to her home at Sackville on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Massie, who were here spending the holidays with Mrs. Massie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. VanWart, returned Monday for their home in the Northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Crockett are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of their daughter, Lottie May, who was united in marriage to G. Arthur Mace, of Sussex (N. B.). The bride, who was given away by her father, was dressed in a traveling suit of grey with last to match. Rev. H. P. Patterson performed the ceremony, in the presence of a limited number of guests. Mr. and Mrs. Mace, after spending Sunday in Sussex, left for Magalloway, where Mr. Mace has accepted a position as teacher.

Mr. D. B. Laird, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has returned from his vacation.

Mr. F. S. Crafts, of Auburn (Me.), was in town for a few days presenting the funeral of the late Mr. E. Newcombe.

Quite a number of Amherst people went to Truro on Friday to attend the funeral of the late Mr. Wm. Cunningham. Among those who went were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Black, Mr. Wm. M. Read, Mr. B. J. Lawson, Mr. D. W. Freeman, Mr. Samuel Freeman, Mr. G. A. Martin, Mr. Rufus Hicks, Mr. N. A. Rhodes and Mr. J. A. Chiswick.

Messrs. George and Ralph Sterne have reopened their business at Truro.

Mr. R. M. Fulton, of Sydney, called at Amherst Tuesday on his return from Sackville, where he had accompanied his daughter Nellie, who is a student at Mt. Allison.

Mr. H. L. Dupuis, son of Manager Dupuis, of the Bank of Montreal, has been transferred to Chatham (Ont.). The staff of the Bank of Montreal gave a dinner in his honor Monday evening at the Woodcock Cafe. Mr. Dupuis was presented with a very handsome pipe.

Miss Maude Tennant, of New York, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Tennant, Rupert street.

Mr. E. B. Elderkin is in Halifax this week.

Mrs. Vaughan Black, who has been spending her vacation in town, returned to her home, Mrs. Dr. Black, returned to Montreal yesterday to resume his studies at McGill.

Mr. J. C. Harlow left Monday evening on a business trip to Toronto, and before his return expects to visit his sons in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Beverly Sterne, who has been representing the Robb Engineering Company in India, after an absence of four years is in town.

Master Harold Tennant has returned to Rothsay to resume his studies.

Mrs. Walter Grant received her friends Wednesday afternoon and evening this week.

Mr. A. J. Gorman, of Memramcook, has been spending a few days in town.

Miss M. A. Chubbuck was the hostess at a most enjoyable 5 o'clock tea on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Walter Brown left this week for Antigonish to attend St. Francis Xavier College.

A very pleasant event took place at the close of the choir practice Friday night in St. Stephen's Presbyterian church, when Prof. Max M. Sterne was presented by the members of the choir with a handsome gold headed cane. Professor Sterne has been organist and choir leader of St. Stephen's church for almost twenty years, and this remembrance is most fitting.

Mr. Norman Ralston returned on Monday to Dalhousie University.

Principal Lay returned on Saturday from Halifax.

Master Murdock MacGregor entertained a few of his boy friends on Saturday evening.

Miss Rose Smith and the Misses Kathleen and Genevieve Cook returned to the Sacred Heart Convent on Monday, after spending their Christmas vacation at home.

The Further Lights Society of the Baptist church spent a very enjoyable social evening at the home of Mrs. T. Cain, Monday evening. A good programme of music and literary selections was rendered by the members of the society.

Mrs. David Lawrence, of Port Lawrence, entertained several of the Amherst young people at her hospitable home this week. The young folks drove over in three big teams and thoroughly enjoyed their evening. Dancing was one of the chief features.

Miss Winnie and Mr. Clarence Thompson, of Upper Sackville, spent Sunday in Amherst, the guests of their sister, Mrs. John Lashby.

Mrs. B. C. Munro entertained her lady friends at bridge yesterday afternoon.

Accidents will Happen.
But if you are prepared for them beforehand, they are soon mended. Bruises, Wrenches, Neuralgia, Sciatica, and Strains yield instantly to Hirst's Pain Exterminator.
Always have a bottle with you. 25c. at all dealers. Try Hirst's Little Liver Pills. A perfect after-dinner pill. Will assist digestion. Ask your dealer or send us 25c. A handsome souvenir card free.
THE F. DALLEY CO., Limited
Hamilton, Ont. 100

taken the second year's course of study in the Normal School at Dalhousie, N. S., and returned from his vacation at Antigonish, N. S., on Monday, and resumed his department on Tuesday.

Mr. C. S. Hickman, Dorchester, was here yesterday looking after his lumbering interests.

The Hampton Station Whist Club gathering this week is slated for the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Arscott, Church avenue, on Thursday evening.

At the Hendricks farm, a short distance from the station towards Bloomfield, there are no less than ten members of the family, probably by a large group, and among those who have had to succumb, about here are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, Mrs. M. McDonald, Mrs. George E. Frost, Mrs. Arthur Smith, Rev. Dr. E. Evans, Mrs. William LeBlanc, and many others.

Miss Carrie Smith has been called to the Hendricks farm to assist in caring for the stricken members of the family.

Mr. Harold Bowser left Tuesday for Wolfville, where he will enter Acadia as a student.

Miss Lily Cox leaves today for Montreal for medical treatment. Miss Ethel Boyer accompanied her there.

Misses Hazel and Helen Steeves and Master Alfred Bowser and George Lelton are attending the Superior school at Harcourt.

Mr. Mack Perkins is improving from his recent illness.

Mr. B. S. Freeman held a few services at Hartland last week.

Rev. C. Waldon is with Rev. O. E. Steves holding special services at Avondale.

BATHURST
Bathurst, N. B., Jan. 9.—Miss Girwood, who spent the holidays at her home here, has returned to Campbellton.

Miss Mary Russell, of Chatham, has been visiting Mrs. John Cinnamond.

Mrs. T. Murphy, of Dalhousie, was a guest of Mrs. W. Sweeney this week.

Misses Frances London and Mary E. Leane returned to Normal school, Fredericton, the first of the week.

Miss Frances Hall has come to attend St. Michael's Academy, Chatham.

Mrs. Metzler and children, of Campbellton, are visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. Scott, of Newcastle, visited her mother, Mrs. R. Hinton, last week.

Mrs. Malcolm and her two little sons, of Campbellton, were guests of Mrs. McKay this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Miller, of Moose Jaw, are visiting Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hinton.

Misses Margie Sweeney and Alice, Koomoo, Marguerite and Corinne Landry have returned to the C. N. D. Convent, Carleton Place.

Bishop Barry, with his secretary, Dr. Louis O'Leary, was here this week.

Mr. Clarence Yoniet has returned to Quebec to resume his studies at Laval.

Master Angus Hall has returned to St. Dunstan's (P. E. I.).

Mrs. Thos. Burns, who has been ill with pneumonia, is recovering.

Mr. W. Robertson spent some days in Harcourt this week.

Mrs. Claud Mercereau, of Chatham, was here for Sunday.

Rev. Mr. McCully returned on Monday from Dalry.

Mr. P. H. Melvin is recovering from a serious illness.

Mr. W. Girwood has returned to Fredericton this week.

Mr. Rupert Rive, of Carleton, made a short stay in town this week on his way to Halifax.

Master Fred White has returned to resume his studies at business college, St. John.

Driving parties were the enjoyment last week. The weather, the moon and the roads were all that could be desired and a number of young people took advantage of all these and enjoyed drives which had been planned by kind friends which appreciated fully the dainty lunches served at the end as well.

A number of small folk, friends of Master Jack Hanson, were very pleasantly entertained on Friday evening by Mrs. B. D. Hanson.

In the death of Mrs. W. J. Kent, Bathurst has lost one of its most estimable ladies. The most heartfelt sympathy of all goes out to Mr. W. J. Kent and family in their sad bereavement.

MILLTOWN
Milltown, Jan. 10.—Mrs. Harry Haley is visiting Boston this week. During her absence her little son, Harry, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Fannie Murchie, Calais. Mrs. Haley, who spent the holidays with her parents, left Monday to resume his studies at Yale College.

William Cotterell, while working in the Lathole church tower, was attempting to raise a log on the pile when his peavey slipped, the log rolled back on his feet, fracturing it badly.

The death of Mrs. Isabella McLeod occurred at the home of her daughter, with whom she made her home. Mrs. McLeod was 93 years of age. She had been in failing health. She was a lady of sterling qualities, revered and loved by all who knew her.

Miss Lulu Robertson returned to Moncton on Saturday.

Rev. R. H. Stavert, of Harcourt, assisted at the union prayer meeting last evening.

G. Douglas Steer returned on Saturday from Bedouque (P. E. I.), where he had been spending the holidays with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. George Steele.

J. A. Edmunds returned on Saturday from Fredericton.

Mr. McLaughlin, who has been ill for some time, is much improved.

Mrs. Holstead, of Winnipeg, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Wm. Hudson.

Thos. LeBlanc, who has been visiting his father, Sheriff Legere, has returned to the law school at Halifax.

Miss Kate Robertson and Miss May Curran returned to the Provincial Normal School on Monday.

Miss Edith and Miss Florence Bourque returned to St. Louis Convent today.

TRURO
Truro, Jan. 9.—Mr. K. Lovell entertained a few of her friends at a very pleasant thimble party, on Tuesday afternoon. She was assisted by Miss O. Smith and Mrs. W. M. Ryan.

Mrs. William Archibald and her daughter gave a very enjoyable afternoon tea on Wednesday. Mrs. Dagald Henderson presided, and Mrs. Harry McKay and Mrs. Hingley assisted in entertaining the guests.

Mrs. Havelock Hart and daughter, Ruth, of Halifax, are guests with Mrs. J. F. Coffin. They have been in Sackville with Mrs. Hart's older daughter, who has just entered Mt. Allison Ladies' College. While in Sackville they were guests with Mr. Allison and family.

Miss Myrtle McCullum, who has been home for the Christmas recess, has now returned to Sydney.

Miss Harriet Carter, of Bible Hill, was married recently to Mr. John Coyle, of Chicago. A number of guests witnessed the ceremony, immediately after which the bride and groom left for an extensive trip to California and other places.

Mrs. M. A. McLean has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Anderson, in Sackville.

Mr. Morris Wilson, assistant manager of the Truro branch of the Royal Bank, has returned to town with his bride, formerly Miss Leone Mason, of Lunenburg.

Miss Susie Archibald, of Yarmouth, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. O'Brien.

Mrs. M. E. Johnson, of Boston, has been visiting her father, Mr. D. W. Archibald.

Rev. E. E. Daley, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church, spent part of last week in Moncton.

Miss Gertrude Outhard has been spending the Christmas holidays with her aunt, Mrs. H. H. Outhard.

Mrs. George Young Dibble entertained the Ladies' Bridge Club on Friday evening, when a most enjoyable time was spent. The tables were set for a most enjoyable evening were won by Miss Frankie first, Mrs. McGrath taking second and Mrs. Bailey the third.

Mrs. Allen H. F. Randolph with her children has gone to Toronto, where she will remain for the winter while the children are at school.

Mrs. Arthur R. Nipp entertained at dinner last evening when covers were laid for ten.

The engagement is announced of Miss Edith Davis to Mr. Orice Reid, of Riverside.

Miss Dorothea Huntton, who has been here visiting her grandfather, Dr. J. R. Reid, returned to her home at Sackville on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Massie, who were here spending the holidays with Mrs. Massie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. VanWart, returned Monday for their home in the Northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Crockett are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of their daughter, Lottie May, who was united in marriage to G. Arthur Mace, of Sussex (N. B.). The bride, who was given away by her father, was dressed in a traveling suit of grey with last to match. Rev. H. P. Patterson performed the ceremony, in the presence of a limited number of guests. Mr. and Mrs. Mace, after spending Sunday in Sussex, left for Magalloway, where Mr. Mace has accepted a position as teacher.

Mr. D. B. Laird, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has returned from his vacation.

Mr. F. S. Crafts, of Auburn (Me.), was in town for a few days presenting the funeral of the late Mr. E. Newcombe.

Quite a number of Amherst people went to Truro on Friday to attend the funeral of the late Mr. Wm. Cunningham. Among those who went were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Black, Mr. Wm. M. Read, Mr. B. J. Lawson, Mr. D. W. Freeman, Mr. Samuel Freeman, Mr. G. A. Martin, Mr. Rufus Hicks, Mr. N. A. Rhodes and Mr. J. A. Chiswick.

Messrs. George and Ralph Sterne have reopened their business at Truro.

Mr. R. M. Fulton, of Sydney, called at Amherst Tuesday on his return from Sackville, where he had accompanied his daughter Nellie, who is a student at Mt. Allison.

Mr. H. L. Dupuis, son of Manager Dupuis, of the Bank of Montreal, has been transferred to Chatham (Ont.). The staff of the Bank of Montreal gave a dinner in his honor Monday evening at the Woodcock Cafe. Mr. Dupuis was presented with a very handsome pipe.

Miss Maude Tennant, of New York, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Tennant, Rupert street.

Mr. E. B. Elderkin is in Halifax this week.

Mrs. Vaughan Black, who has been spending her vacation in town, returned to her home, Mrs. Dr. Black, returned to Montreal yesterday to resume his studies at McGill.

Mr. J. C. Harlow left Monday evening on a business trip to Toronto, and before his return expects to visit his sons in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Beverly Sterne, who has been representing the Robb Engineering Company in India, after an absence of four years is in town.

Master Harold Tennant has returned to Rothsay to resume his studies.

Mrs. Walter Grant received her friends Wednesday afternoon and evening this week.

Mr. A. J. Gorman, of Memramcook, has been spending a few days in town.

Miss M. A. Chubbuck was the hostess at a most enjoyable 5 o'clock tea on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Walter Brown left this week for Antigonish to attend St. Francis Xavier College.

A very pleasant event took place at the close of the choir practice Friday night in St. Stephen's Presbyterian church, when Prof. Max M. Sterne was presented by the members of the choir with a handsome gold headed cane. Professor Sterne has been organist and choir leader of St. Stephen's church for almost twenty years, and this remembrance is most fitting.

Mr. Norman Ralston returned on Monday to Dalhousie University.

Principal Lay returned on Saturday from Halifax.

Master Murdock MacGregor entertained a few of his boy friends on Saturday evening.

Miss Rose Smith and the Misses Kathleen and Genevieve Cook returned to the Sacred Heart Convent on Monday, after spending their Christmas vacation at home.

The Further Lights Society of the Baptist church spent a very enjoyable social evening at the home of Mrs. T. Cain, Monday evening. A good programme of music and literary selections was rendered by the members of the society.

Mrs. David Lawrence, of Port Lawrence, entertained several of the Amherst young people at her hospitable home this week. The young folks drove over in three big teams and thoroughly enjoyed their evening. Dancing was one of the chief features.

Miss Winnie and Mr. Clarence Thompson, of Upper Sackville, spent Sunday in Amherst, the guests of their sister, Mrs. John Lashby.

Mrs. B. C. Munro entertained her lady friends at bridge yesterday afternoon.

TRURO
Truro, Jan. 9.—Mr. K. Lovell entertained a few of her friends at a very pleasant thimble party, on Tuesday afternoon. She was assisted by Miss O. Smith and Mrs. W. M. Ryan.

Mrs. William Archibald and her daughter gave a very enjoyable afternoon tea on Wednesday. Mrs. Dagald Henderson presided, and Mrs. Harry McKay and Mrs. Hingley assisted in entertaining the guests.

Mrs. Havelock Hart and daughter, Ruth, of Halifax, are guests with Mrs. J. F. Coffin. They have been in Sackville with Mrs. Hart's older daughter, who has just entered Mt. Allison Ladies' College. While in Sackville they were guests with Mr. Allison and family.

Miss Myrtle McCullum, who has been home for the Christmas recess, has now returned to Sydney.

Miss Harriet Carter, of Bible Hill, was married recently to Mr. John Coyle, of Chicago. A number of guests witnessed the ceremony, immediately after which the bride and groom left for an extensive trip to California and other places.

Mrs. M. A. McLean has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Anderson, in Sackville.

Mr. Morris Wilson, assistant manager of the Truro branch of the Royal Bank, has returned to town with his bride, formerly Miss Leone Mason, of Lunenburg.

Miss Susie Archibald, of Yarmouth, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. O'Brien.

Mrs. M. E. Johnson, of Boston, has been visiting her father, Mr. D. W. Archibald.

Rev. E. E. Daley, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church, spent part of last week in Moncton.

Miss Gertrude Outhard has been spending the Christmas holidays with her aunt, Mrs. H. H. Outhard.

Mrs. George Young Dibble entertained the Ladies' Bridge Club on Friday evening, when a most enjoyable time was spent. The tables were set for a most enjoyable evening were won by Miss Frankie first, Mrs. McGrath taking second and Mrs. Bailey the third.

Mrs. Allen H. F. Randolph with her children has gone to Toronto, where she will remain for the winter while the children are at school.

Mrs. Arthur R. Nipp entertained at dinner last evening when covers were laid for ten.

The engagement is announced of Miss Edith Davis to Mr. Orice Reid, of Riverside.

Miss Dorothea Huntton, who has been here visiting her grandfather, Dr. J. R. Reid, returned to her home at Sackville on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Massie, who were here spending the holidays with Mrs. Massie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. VanWart, returned Monday for their home in the Northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Crockett are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of their daughter, Lottie May, who was united in marriage to G. Arthur Mace, of Sussex (N. B.).