The Vital Point Set at Rest.

[From The Mail.]

The most important feature of the slander case is in respect of the nature of Sir George Cartier's letter to Sir Hugh Allan, of the 30th July, which is referred to in Sir George's draft on Mr. Abbott, and in the receipt given by the Central Committee. The following is the draft:—

"MONTREAL, Aug. 24, 1873.

"DEAR MR. ABBOTT,—In the absence of Sir Hugh Allan, I shall be obliged by your supplying the Central Committee with a further sum of twenty thousand dollars, upon the same condition as the amount written by me at the foot of my letter to Sir Hugh Allan of the 30th ultimo.

"GEORGE E. CARTIER.

"P. S.—Please also send Sir John A. Macdonald ten thousand dollars more on the same terms."

The following is the receipt:—

"Received from Sir Hugh Allan by the hands of Mr. Abbott, twenty thousand dollars for general election purposes, to be arranged hereafter, according to the terms of the letter of Sir George E. Cartier, of the date 30th of July, and in accordance with the request contained in his letters of the 24th instant.

"Montreal, 26th August, 1872.

(Signed) "J. L. BEAUDRY,
"HENRY STARE,
"P. S. MURPHY.

"L. BETOURNAY."

These two documents contain the heart and marrow of the whole case. Mr. McMullen leaves it to be understood that the terms, conditions and agreement referred to are the terms, conditions and agreement of a bargain between Sir Geo. Cartier and Sir Hugh Allan, by which the latter is to receive the Pacific Railway contract in consideration of supplying the Ministry with money to be used in the elections. Mr. McMullen also leaves it to be understood that Sir John Macdonald approved of that bargain in a telegraphic message; Senator Foster says that he saw a telegram from Sir John Macdonald approving of an agreement of some kind—and the Globe and its friends deliberately declare that the letter of the 30th July did contain the corrupt bargain, that Sir John Macdonald approved of it, that the drafts on Mr. Abbott were drawn in accordance with its terms, ergo that the Huntington charge was made out. It will be seen, then, that the case turns entirely upon the nature of the agreement. We submit that the following evidence is sufficient to show:

1. That the agreement referred to had no reference whatever to the Pacific Railway or its contract, and, therefore, was not a corrupt bargain in that respect as charged.

2. That McMullen by his suggestio falsi that it was such a bargain, is guilty of falsehood.

3. That Senator Foster is mistaken in thinking that the telegram which he says he saw from Sir John Macdonald had any reference to a corrupt bargain, inasmuch as no such bargain existed.

4. That the declaration of the Globe and its friends that the agreement referred to was the corrupt agreement charged by Mr. Huntington, and in accordance with which the drafts were drawn, is false in every particular.

The following is the evidence of Sir Hugh Allan on the agreement question:

"I state most positively and explicitly that I never made any agreement, or came to any understanding of any kind or description, with the Government or any of its members, as to the payment of any sum of money to any one, or in any way whatever in consideration of receiving the contract for the Canadian Pacific."

The following is the evidence of the Government, taken from the denial which we published by their authority on Monday last:

"That the arrangement referred to by the late Sir George Cartier, in the published letter of the 24th August last, was an arrangement personal to himself and Sir Hugh Allan, independent of, and, until published, unknown to the other members of the Government, and that it had no reference to the Canadian Pacific charter or contract, or to the granting or furthering the granting of either of them."

And the following is the evidence of three of the members of the Central Committee who signed the receipt of the 26th August, who have seen the agreement and know its contents:

"To the Editor of the Montreal Gazette.

"SIR,—Seeing your editorial of yesterday, in which reference is made to a letter from Sir George E. Cartier to Sir Hugh Allan, dated 30th July last—which letter is referred to in the letter of Sir George E. Cartier, of date 24th August, published by Mr. McMullen—we feel bound to state that we have seen the first mentioned letter, and that your editorial statement that it has no reference whatever to the Pacific Railway contract, is perfectly correct.

"J. L. BEAUDRY,
"HY. STARNES,
"P. S. MURPHY.

"July 22, 1873."

If there be any virtue in human evidence at all, the above declarations prove all the points which we have submitted. It must be borne in mind, also, that, in the face of this direct evidence, there is no direct evidence from McMullen. He does not say that the agreement referred to was a corrupt bargain; he does not even say that he saw it—although to such an accomplished lock and keyhole operator nothing can have been secret—but by stringing the drafts together and placing them in apposition to the order and receipt, he leaves the public to draw the false inference which the Globe changes into flat falsehood. Nine times already has McMullen been convicted of falsehood, and once more is his knavery exposed. When our contemporary parades the drafts again, will it also publish the above evidence, and tell us if, in spite of this most positive testimony, it is still prepared to cling to McMullen and his theory of a corrupt bargain, which is the pivot of his case?
