Money 2 per cent. President Grant to-day is visiting Nantucket, also Cape Cod, where he is received with great enthusiasm.

Washington despatches report wide spread apprehension of Indian depredations along the western frontier settlements, and the War Department is receiving urgent appeals for establishment of military posts at new points.

A cable despatch says disabled steamer Westphalia, was to-day towed into Queenstown.

LONDON, Aug. 29. CARLISTS AGAIN REPULSED. The Carlists made another attack on Payeria, and were again repulsed.

A BOLD BONAPARTIST. M. Berger, a candidate for the Assembly in the Department of the Lot, has issued an address boldly avowing devotion to Imperialism and the Bonaparte Dynasty, and advocating a plebiscite.

DUCAL MARRIAGES. Grand Duke Vladimir, of Russia, was married yesterday to the Duchess of Mecklenburg.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29. A CONSPIRACY UNCOVERED. Otto Meyer, Austrian Consul at Havana, was the victim of a brutal attack and robbery in New York on Thursday night, and is in a critical condition from his injuries.

THE BIRMINGHAM CHURCH COMMITTEE made its report last night, fully endorsing Beecher. Motion interrupted the proceedings, and the feeling against him was so strong that the police were obliged to interfere for his protection.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28. THE WAR OF RACES—DARK DEEDS OF THE WHITE PEOPLE. Despatches from Nashville, Tenn., say that a number of negroes at Pickettsville, Gibson county, six miles from Humboldt, threatened a riot last Saturday and Sunday on account of some ill or supposed wrong done them, and manifested a disposition to kill two or three citizens and fire and sack the town.

On Tuesday sixteen of the ringleaders were arrested, taken to Trenton and placed in jail for eight keeping about one o'clock next morning between 75 and 100 masked men entered the town, and riding up to jail compelled the sheriff to deliver up the keys thereof. They then took the 16 negroes from prison, and after killing four and mortally wounding two on the road, rode off with the remaining 10, and are supposed to have killed them, as nothing has been heard of the party since.

Mr. Geo. Jerome, one of the Fish Commissioners of Michigan, declares that every acre of water, if properly cultivated, is equal in food-producing value to an acre of land, and that the present food supply from water is equal to 4,750,000 cattle of an average weight of 700 lbs.

"Will you help me out of this mud hole?" asked one traveller, whose team was stuck in the mud of another who was passing. "No, I can't stop," said the other. "I would take it as a great favor," said the man in trouble. "What are you loaded with?" asked the traveller. "Drugs and medicines," was the reply. "I'll guess I will try to help you out of this, as I am loaded with tonics."

They were constant companions afterwards. At Ocean Grove are encamped Dr. and Mrs. Susan Everett, the lady being the highest who delivered courses of lectures to women last winter in the churches of New York and Brooklyn. Their next neighbor, Mrs. Eaton, called Mr. Everett on his large and richly furnished weather-beaten umbrella. Every rib was detached from the silk, and great rents were on every side. "That's a noble specimen of fall-spreading you carry," said Mrs. Eaton; "it must have passed through hard storms." "And through much sunshine also," replied the Doctor; "that umbrella has a name. I christened it with the first sprinkling it had, Henry Ward Beecher."

Mrs. Eaton seized the temper-tossed umbrella, kissed it, hugged it, and so more ridiculed it. The bill for the abolition of lay patronage in the Church of Scotland has at length been carried through the British Parliament. It is the first movement toward the disestablishment of the Scottish Church. It deprives the nobility and gentry of much of their ecclesiastical power, and gives church members the right of electing their ministers. The bill was strongly supported by the Conservatives, who seem to have recognized the injustice of the patronage system in Scotland, while ardently supporting it almost as unjust and burdensome a system in England. The bill leaves many questions open for decision by the General Assembly of the Scottish Church.

Nanny and McDowell closed at Bangor Thursday night, with "Pygmalion and Gaiety." The Whig says: "Messrs Nanny and McDowell brought a large and strong company, and those in excellent style, and have fulfilled to the letter every promise they made—no small matter to bestow, but, as all who have attended the performances must acknowledge, they did not. It is to be regretted that their efforts have met with no more encouragement from our citizens and that they have suffered considerable pecuniary loss; but we feel assured that if they come back—as they inform us they shall—at a more favorable season of the year, they will receive a more satisfactory return for their endeavors. We wish them unlimited success wherever they go."

Notwithstanding the firm of the Sultan, issued soon after the Crimean war, that all forms of religion should be freely exercised in the Ottoman Empire, several instances of persecution have recently occurred. Three Syrian converts to Christianity were arrested, thrown into prison, and beaten, the only reason assigned being that they are regarded from the Mussulman faith. On their refusal to abjure Christianity they were drafted into the army and denied the right of Christian worship. A father and son at Marash, who had avowed themselves Christians, were also arrested and banished to Smyrna, which city they are not allowed to leave. Their children have been taken from them and placed in a bigoted Moslem family.
