Enamelled Ormolu Frames at Notman's.

Thermometer—noon to-day—30-2.
The Bank of British North America has declared a dividend of ten per cent.
The Moosepath Park Association propose entering the National Association.
The Board of Trade is in session this afternoon, discussing the Reciprocity Treaty. They will also appoint inspectors of fish, oil, flour, etc.

Yesterday John Morris sacrificed his finger to the Christmas demand for sausage.
The cutting machine in Quinlan's factory took it off.
Pioneer Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., is to have their Christmas forenoon at 10 o'clock, instead of in the evening. The election of officers will take place.

Messrs. Lockhart & Chipman commenced their sale last evening, and sold about 800 pairs of shoes at remarkably low prices. The sale will be continued this evening.

Messrs. Hall & Huntington are contin-ing their sale of books every evening.

They yesterday sold a lot of canaries, the finest birds they have yet had, and realized the largest prices.

Mr. John Goddard left his horse standing in Colburn's street yesterday afternoon, and returned at 10 o'clock, with a horse that he had bought from him jumped in and took a drive to the Marsh Bridge and back. When turning the corner of King and Canterbury sts., at full speed the slight accident, and its occupants were thrown heavily against W.
G. Lawton's brick building. The damage, however, was slight.

Mr. Warren among the Stars.
Mr. Warren had about a hundred auditors, and talked very interestingly for an hour and a half on the wonders of the starry firmament. He took the facts given in Dick's Sidereal Heavens, without the mass of dreary verbiage on the goodness and greatness of the Creator which Dick was forced to tramp upon in fear of being suspected of hetero-doxy, and illustrated them in his own peculiar style of simplicity.
Mr. Warren is simply the schoolmaster who takes facts from the text books and presents them so that they may be easily understood and strongly impressed on the imagination. The teachers who heard him must have been impressed with the superiority of his method, and will be better able than before to make things plain to their pupils. Last night's discourse ought to have been attended by the public school children in a body, and we think some arrangement for the admission of all but the very small children might have been made.

Ivory Miniatures in Ivory Frames at Notman's.

Portland Police Court.

The incarceration of Joseph Gallant, a Frenchman, and a taxpayer of the Town of Portland, for drunkenness, is bad for traveling Indians. After his arrest his house was closed and soon an Indian and a squaw appeared at the Station for protection. They had money, but could not get lodgings anywhere, as "Joe's" was closed. There is an objection among boarding house keepers to let lodgings to Indians. They were allowed to remain all night, and let go this morning.

A party by the name of Pongperry was also given shelter. His name puzzled the officers considerably, but they finally discovered that it was derived from a French and signified "froze apple."

"I am dying with the Catarrh." Well, a box of Rader's German Sauff, which you can purchase at any Drug Store for 35 cents, will cure you.

Country Market.

The market has been well supplied this week with poultry, pork and beef. Grass sold rapidly at 9c. to $1.29, turkeys from 16c to 18c per lb. The fine sleighing and advanced railway tariff have induced very many farmers between Hammond River and Sussex to drive their own teams to market. Last night the stables around King Square, Charlotte and Union streets, were full, and many had to seek shelter for their horses in distant parts of the town. It has been estimated that at least one thousand dollars freight money per week will be lost to the railway during this season, so long as good sleighting continues. The hotel keepers are, however, reaping a harvest.

Aquarelle Vignettes in Gold and Oval Frames at Notman's.

The lazar of Calvin Church will be open to-day from 2 till 5 p. m. and from of the season, from 7 till 9. As a large number of useful and ornamental articles are still on hand a crowd of visitors to supply themselves with Christmas presents at low rates is desired.

furnishings, Gas Fixtures, Lead

Rader's German Sauff.

Two individuals occupied seats in the dock this morning.
Lawrence McCarthy got drunk, he would be the first time, and was being served around the Country Market. Policeman McMann found him and a companion investigating a slight to ascertain what was in it, and testing the quality of a quantity of butter. Both were arrested and fastened by a pair of handcuffs. The other chap slipped his hand out and made off before they arrived at the station. The policeman couldn't chase him without losing McCarthy and the handcuffs, so he escaped. McCarthy confessed to drunkenness and was fined 25, or in default he will spend twenty days in jail, where he will probably eat his Christmas dinner and pick his New Year's goose.

John Watson was fined 50 for being drunk and disorderly in Brussels street.
His disorderly conduct, as explained by Policeman McMann, who, by the way, brought all the business to the court today, consist in ringing the door bells in Brussels street at 5 o'clock this morning.
He said he was trying to find out where Everitt's foundry was, to buy a stove, but such a thin excuse did not get him off.

Mary Alexander, sixty years of age, a descendant of the great Militaries, went for protection and was let go.

W. H. Baynes, charged with assaulting Samuel Lester, was in court to answer the charge. The evidence of Lester and Joseph Fairweather, Esq., proved the assault, which took place last month on board the complainant's vessel at the North Slip. A fine of $20 was imposed.
Baynes then wanted to have Lester tried on a charge of abusive language, but the request was refused.
