

CHAP. VII.

AN ACT to regulate the toll to be taken in Mills.

[Passed 15th October, 1792.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to ascertain and determine the quantity of ^{Preamble.} grain to be taken by way of toll, for grinding the said grain into flour, and bolting the same: And whereas different customs have obtained within the several Districts of this Province: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's "Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the "Government of the Province of Quebec in North America,' and to make "further provision for the Government of the said Province," and it is hereby enacted, That from and after the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, no owner or occupier, or owners or occupiers of any Mill or Mills within this Province, or any person employed by him or them, shall demand, take or receive any quantity or proportion of grain brought, by him or them to be ground and bolted, greater than one twelfth share or part, for grinding and bolting such grain.

No greater proportion to be taken for grinding and bolting grain than one twelfth.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any owner or occupier, or owners or occupiers of a Mill or Mills within the said Province, or any person employed by him or them, who shall demand and take, after the day and year above mentioned, any quantity or proportion of grain, greater than one twelfth share or part of such grain as aforesaid, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of Ten ^{Penalty:} Pounds, Quebec Currency; one moiety thereof to His Majesty, His ^{How levied and applied.} Heirs and Successors, for the public uses of the said Province, and the support of the Government thereof; and the other moiety of the said sum to any person who shall sue for the same in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record within this Province.

III. And whereas, much inconvenience and confusion has arisen from the custom of bringing bags of grain, without any distinguishing mark to whom the said bags of grain belong: Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no owner or occupier of any Mill shall be bound to receive, or be chargeable with the loss of any bag or bags of grain or flour, unless the same be marked with the initial letters of the Christian and Surname of the owner of the said grain, or with some mark distinguishing the said bag or bags, which mark of distinction shall be previously communicated and made known to the said owner or occupier, or his servant usually attending the said Mill. ^{Bags must be marked.}
