years that she was a member of the staff of the Bank of Commerce, and that it is available for a service which above all others she was anxious to render.

I hope you will allow me to say how very grateful we all are to you personally for your kindness in arranging with the Bank of Commerce to enable us to secure my sister's savings under this agreement, and thereby avoid the necessity of applying for letters of administration; and also for the personal trouble you have taken in drafting the agreement and in giving attention to incidental details. The knowledge that it is but one of very many similar kindnesses you have shown to friends at time of anxiety and trial enables us to gladly accept any kindness on your part. I hope that on behalf of us all you will accept my sincere thanks.

Yours sincerely,

W. L. MACKENZIE KING

P.S. I presume the Canadian Bank of Commerce will acknowledge the receipt of this agreement, and inform me that the monies have been placed to my credit.
