

CONTENTS

| | |
|----------------------------------|---|
| A Few Words of Introduction..... | 1 |
|----------------------------------|---|

Chapter.

| | |
|--|-----|
| I. The Story of our Parish—A Hundred Years, and more, of Church Life and Work—Then and Now | 5 |
| II. The Nursing Mother of the Parish, the Venerable Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts..... | 14 |
| III. The Parish of Preston and its First Missionary, the Loyalist Joshua Wingate Weeks..... | 30 |
| IV. When Nearly Half the People were Heathen and the Parson was a Missionary indeed..... | 41 |
| V. The Building and Early Days of Christ Church; and its First Rector, the Rev. Charles Ingles.. | 49 |
| VI. Consecration of Christ Church, Dartmouth, and of the second St. John's Church, Preston..... | 63 |
| VII. The Rectorship of Rev. Mather Byles Desbrisay, indefatigable Parish Priest and consecrated Man of God..... | 72 |
| VIII. Early Victorian Days. The Parish Clerk Discontinued. Formation of the Diocesan Church Society. The Rector under a Cloud..... | 85 |
| IX. The Working of the New Leaven in the Church. The third St. John's, Preston. Erection of the Sunday School. The Formation of the Synod. Enlargement of Christ Church..... | 94 |
| X. The Parish Becomes Self-Supporting, is Divided and Christ Church is made the Parish Church in Deed as well as in Fact..... | 113 |
| XI. The Reign of the Oldest of our Surviving Former Rectors. Foundation of the Parish of Eastern Passage | 122 |
| XII. A Period of Controversy and of Change. The Building of the Rectory | 127 |