

1. The first of the three main points of the report is that the Government has failed to do its duty in the matter of the protection of the people's health.