

Forward Movement for Missions.

STRANGER (not interested in the Forward Movement for Missions)—“What are all these dry figures occupying this valuable space?”

ERA READER (always interested in missions)—“This is a gold mine of information and inspiration. If you had invested anything in it you would think it the most interesting part of this paper, especially if you had invested your all in it.”

STRANGER—“Well, what is it all about anyway—what does it all mean?”

ERA READER—“Just look at it—you see it is divided into Conferences—take the Toronto Conference. Here you have a list of all the District Epworth Leagues—the figures just in front of the names of the districts indicate the number of Epworth League members in the respective districts. Just after the names of the districts, you have the names and addresses of the missionaries, which the various Leagues are supporting. The figures in the parentheses give the salaries of the missionaries; then the first column of figures to the right shows the amount of money paid toward the missionaries' salaries and the last column shows how much the gifts of each District averages per Epworth League member.

The total shows how many League members there are in the Conference; how much money the Conference has given, and how much the Conference averages per Epworth League member. Now, isn't that a lot of interesting information?”

STRANGER—“Why, yes—but it says this is the fifth annual report—what about the others?”

ERA READER—“See below:

The income for this year is	$21,172 28
“ “ 1900 is	18,313 57
“ “ 1899 is	14,520 89
“ “ 1898 is	9,427 51
“ “ 1897 is	5,126 58

Grand total .....$67,380 63

STRANGER—“How do you get the young people to give to missions? I always thought they wanted more money for themselves than they have got. It is raised by tea-meetings, entertainments, etc.?”

ERA READER—“No, it is raised on the ‘Pray, Study, Give’ plan of the Young People's Forward Movement. I have not time to explain all about it. It is really a system of education leading the young people to understand their relation to God, the mission field, and the Church; when they know, they always act better than most people expect. If you want the history and development of the Movement, send 5 cents to the Book Room and ask for the ‘Young People's Forward Movement for Missions,’ by F. C. Stephenson.”
