trying on a pair of shoes when a hail storm passed over. As the hail began to bombard the roofs and the street he said to the clerk, "I guess I'll not buy those shoes now." The hail storm did not do so much as it threatened, though, so he was ultimately able to buy a new pair of shoes after all.

I would not like to be accounted harsh in judgment on farmers who are struggling to make a start and are really not able to take full advantage of opportunities, but I would like to plead for legitimate and sane audacity in making adaptation to changing circumstances. A little more of the pushfulness and ingenuity of the ordinary business man, applied to agriculture, might work wonders, in some cases, in increasing production and bringing comfortable prosperity. I doubt, though, if my homily will really count for anything, save a few minutes' entertainment to a few people, as I have an idea that about ninety-nine per cent. of the readers of "The Farmer's Advocate" might be fairly compared to the gopher in adaptability, while those that such a plea should reach, never spend a dollar on an agricultural paper.

Questions and Answers. Miscellaneous.

Boundary Dispute.

A buys a lot from B and pays for it. Lot joins C, both are timber lots. A and C have a dispute as to line. Can A remove timber from his lot till line dispute is settled?

Ontario.

A SUBSCRIBER.

Ans.—Yes, unless and until enjoined from doing so by some court of competent jurisdiction.

Roup.

Could you tell me what causes my hen's heads to swell up, starting first on one side, causing the eye to become closed, and gradually both sides become swelled so that the hen cannot see to eat? She soon dies.

MRS. T. L.

Ans.—The disease is roup. It comes in all probability from a cold in the beginning, but will spread among a flock if not checked. It is sometimes due to the fowls roosting in a draft. If the cause is not removed birds very often go blind as yours have and die. Feed Epsom salts in the mash or give in drinking water. Use about one dessertspoonful to a gallon of drinking water. Give each affected bird one teaspoonful of dry salts. Bathe the head with a weak solution of any of the commercial roups or 5 per cent. solution of potassium permanganate, or a Seiler's tablet dissolved in a cupful of water. Where only a few birds are affected it is safer to kill and burn or bury with lime. Clean out the house and disinfect it by white-washing with a carbolic whitewash. Make it a 5 per cent. carbolic whitewash solution. Use air-slaked lime under the the dropping boards.

Mother and Son.

A man dies and wills his wife everything, farm stock and everything in doors and out. The son gets married. The mother goes away off the farm and lets him have everything to work the farm with. There is no settlement nor any writings about anything. He gives his mother a little every year. He works the farm and has all he makes, but the little he gives his mother. He has the use of all the stock and everything.

1. Can he claim that stock and sell it just as he likes? 2. If he backs notes or goes security for anyone can they sell the stock to pay the notes he has backed? 3. Does the stock belong to him? 4. How long before he can claim it?

Ontario.

A SUBSCRIBER.

Ans.—1. No. 2. No;—that is, they cannot do so provided she takes prompt and proper legal steps to prevent it, in the event of his being sued as such endorser or surety. 3. No. 4. Not at all, if she takes suitable precautions. She ought to have the arrangement subsisting between them reduced to writing and signed by both. And the document should include an acknowledgment on the son's part of his mother's ownership of the property real and personal with particulars of same.

PEERLESS POULTRY FENCE

Does all you could wish of a poultry fence and more. Built close enough to keep chickens in and strong enough to keep cattle out. Even small chicks cannot get between the close mesh of lateral and vertical wires. The heavy, hard steel top and bottom wires, together with intermediate lateral, will take care of a care easily backed wagon, or an unruly animal and spring back into shape immediately. The wires are securely held together at every intersection by the PEERLESS Lock.

The Fence That Saves Expense
It never needs repairs. It is the cheapest fence to erect because, owing to its exceptionally heavy top and bottom wires, but half the usual amount of lumber and posts are required.

Send for Literature and address of nearest agent. We also make a complete line of farm and ornamental fencing. Agents nearly everywhere. Agents wanted in unassigned territory.
