GOSSIP.

Mr. G. W. Keays, of Hyde Park, Ont., breeder of Shorthorns, writes us: "The young stock I am now offering is a choice lot, both in color, quality and breeding. Anyone wishing a choice young animal should see our stock before purchasing, or else write for particulars; visitors always welcome."

Mr. W. H. Wallace, Mt. Forest, Ont., breeder of Shorthorns, ordering a change in his advertisement, writes: "Our young stock is doing exceptionally well since they have been stabled. We have four choice young red-roan bulls of the blocky type—three the get of Roan Robin, and one from an imported bull. These we are at present offering for sale at reasonable prices."

Messrs. A. Gilmore & Sons, Athelstan, Que., breeder of Shorthorns, Yorkshires and poultry, in ordering a change in their advertisement, writes that they have a roan three-year-old bull for sale, a sure and satisfactory sire, also Barred, White and Buff Rocks, W. Wyandottes, Buff Leghorns and Pekin ducks.

Mr. Solomon Shantz, Haysville, Waterloo Co., Ont., breeder of Shorthorn cattle, writes: "Please change my advertisement. I notice that Kinellar Stamp is not mentioned as imported; may state that I have concluded to sell him, as I have some of his young stock coming on. My stock is doing well and I have for sale several good strong young things about ready for breeding, both male and female. I am well pleased with your paper as an advertising medium. Inquiries are good."

T. B. Macaulay, Mount Victoria Farm, Hudson Heights, P. Q., referring to his offering in his advertisement, writes as follows: "Having arrived at a point in our breeding operations where we cannot use this Canadian bull any more, we have decided to dispose of him, and are offering him at a very low figure. This is an exceptional chance to get a bull to head a herd that is a tried and tested sire of excellent quality. Not only is he a good individual of rich breeding, but he possesses the ability to stamp his good qualities on his get to a remarkable degree. Were it not for the fact that we had no further use for him, we would not part with him at any price, and the person who is fortunate enough to secure this bull will get a bargain."

Mr. J. C. Ross, Jarvis, Ont., writes: "My offerings for the present are Clydesdale fillies, one, two and three years old, all by Alexander's Heir, imported by T. H. Hassard, Millbrook. I showed two fillies at Toronto this fall (first time exhibiting horses), and won second on three-year-old and fourth on two-year-old. In Shorthorns, we now offer our stock bull, Trout Creek Guard (imp.), also young stock of both sexes, sired by him. In Cotswolds, we now offer our entire flock of show sheep, also a few young rams and ewes left for the range trade. Our sheep have done well since the fall fairs. Following is a list of prizes won by this flock: The World's Fair, St. Louis, 41 prizes in all, including 11 firsts, 7 seconds, 2 thirds, 2 fourths, 3 fifths, 9 sixths, 2 sevenths, 4 championships and 1 reserve grand champion."

BE OF GOOD CHEER.

If the windows of your mind are thrown wide to the sunlight there is no place for the darkness.

If they are thrown wide to good cheer there is no room for sadness.

If they are opened to sweet thoughts there is no quarter for bitter.

If they are bright with hope there is no lurking spot for despair; if they are bright with courage there is no harborage for fear.

If they are filled with tranquility and peace there is no room for discontent.

If they are filled with sweet temper there is no place for anger; if they are filled with tenderness and sympathy there is no shelter for "sweet revenge."

If they are filled with gratitude there is no place for benefits forgot.

If they are filled with the milk of human kindness there is no room or refuge for ill-will.—[Live-stock World.]
