ARCHDIOCESE OF KINGSTON.

FATHER O'ROURKE'S FAREWELL. When Archbishep Gauthier announced at Lanark seme weeks ago that he was about to premote Rev. Father O'Rourke to Westporf it was a boit from the blue for his people. No one had even so much as thought of a change. Time was gently ghding down the stream with them—as we sometimes glide through a quiet dream. The Archbishop's proclamation was increfore a rude awskening; an interruption; realization that their b-loved pastor, richer and riper because of his experience sure must be a realization that their b-loved pastor, richer and riper because of his experience sure activities. The intervening weeks were speat to give pression to their love. On Sunday evening the consummation was reached. At Benedic tion is the Mary's, which was packed, a large number from other folds in bown. Messey, Corneli and Nagle advanced to the altar, and, amid the bush of all, the former read the following address while the latter presented the purse:
