THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE

STRONG, CLEAN, ENTERPRISING,

The Largest Circulation Among the Best People.

Rejoicing with its readers in the better times which reign throughout the country, THE TRIBUNE flods itself at the beginning of THE TRIBUNE finds itself at the beginning of a new business year enjoying a share of the prevalent prosperity and prepared to make all its several editions thoroughly complete, entertaining and valuable. The first aim of THE TRIBUNE is to be the best and foremost newspaper of America. It has its own telegraph line to Washington, it uses the cables irreely, and it scours the world for the news, a inting all that is needed. It talks what it p inting all that is useful. It tells whatit is worth in detail. The rest is put into bright short paragraphs. Its contents are fresh, choice, varied and thoroughly unobjectionable in every respect. The Tribune has long enjoyed the largest circulation among the best people. It intends to let no rival usurp its place. The Tribune is the organ of no individual, of no faction or clique, and of no interest adverse to the public good. It knows no service other than that of the people.

the people.

THE TRIBUNE believes the well-beling of the country will be best preserved by keeping the Government in Republican hands. But it does not believe in Ring Rule Bossism or Corruption in Office. It has done hard work, and taken great risks, in efforts to purify the Republican party. It expects to continue in that course, wherever or whenever this may seem needful—not doubting that this is the true road to a worky Republican success in 1884.

Every year THE TRIBUNE offers to sub. scribers a few premium books of marked and standard merit. The terms are usually so arranged that either the paper or the book is a gift to the subscriber.

For 1883 THE TRIBUNE offers a new premium, WOOD'S HOUSEHOLD PRACTICE OF MEDICINE, HYGIEME AND SURGERY, 2 vols., 819 and 942 p.p., profusely illustrated, bound in cloth, and sold by agents for the invariable price of $10. It is written by eminent physicians of New York and Philadelphia, and published by the well-known standard medical book house of William Wood & Co. Every possible topic relating to the structure and functions of the human body is explained in this work with text and picture. The book teaches how to regain LIFAX & DARTMOUTH.

ACKNOWLEDGED CLAIMS.

Nearly four years ago I placed in the market a medicine known as the Oxford Cough Syrup. The sale of this medicine grew rapidly, and last November I found that I was inable to give proper attention to the increasing Wholesale Trade, and therefore appointed Messrs. Forsyth, Sutcliffe & Co., my sole wholesale agents. The Oxford Cough Sprup is now sold in all the principal towns in the Province.

What is claimed for the Oxford Cough Syrup.

That the Oxford Gough Syrup is the BEST medicine ever sold for the Cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Loss of Voice, Hoarse-NESS, AND THROAT AFFECTIONS.

AVERY F. BUCKLEY, CHEMIST.

READ THE PROOFS OF THE ABOVE ASSERTION.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Halifax, June 22, 1882.

MR. A. F. BUCKLEY: Dear Sir,-I have used your OXFORD COUGH SYRUP and found it very beneficial, one bottle curing me of a severe cough and cold. Being pleasant to the taste any one can take it, and the price being low it comes within the reach of all.

GEO FRASER, Mayor.

CITY CLERK'S OFFICE, Oct. 17, 1882. MR. A. F. BUCKLEY Dear Sir,-Your OXFORD COUGH SYRUP has been used in my family for some time. We consider it an excellent remedy for cough and colds. Yours, &c.,
Thos. Rhind, City Clerk.

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 10, 1881.

MR. A. F. BUCKLEY: Dear Sir .- I have used your OXFORD COUGH SYRUP with the most satisfactory Last winter I contracted a very heavy Cold with Cough, and was so hoarse for several days I could scarcely speak above a whisper. I procured a bottle of your OXFOED COUGH SYRUP, and only took about two-thirds of it when my hoarseness was all gone and Cough greatly received. Two bottles cured me entirely. I have recommended it to a number of triends who have been suffering in the same way, and have known it to give immediate relief in every case. I have no hesitation in stating thet in my opinion it is the best medicine in the market for Coughs and Colds. Yours respectfull

E. A. WILSON, With Messrs. A. Stephen & Son, Furniture Dealers.

HALIFAX, Nov. 23, 1881.

Dear Sir,—Hearing of your Oxford Cough Syrup I was persuaded to try a bottle for my children, who were suffering from a severe attack of Croup. The oldest was cured by taking four teaspoonsulls; the youngest was cured by taking the remainder of the bottle. I can simply say that before using your medicine I was afraid they would choke, the croup was so severe: but now I feel very thankful that I obtained your valuable medicine in time. Yours respectfully,
MRS. HERBERT VINCENT.

MR. BOUTILLIER, Engineer S S "Beta," says :-My wife and daughter have both used your OXFORD COUGH SYRUP, which gave immediate relief. They think it the best Cough medicine they ever tried-

MB. ALMONA MOSHER, Cornwallis St., says:-I take pleasure in recommending Mr. A. F. Buckley's OXFORD COUGH SYRUP to all those afflicted with coughs or colds. Have used it in my family for some time and find it an invaluable medicine.

Try the Oxford Cough Syrup once, and be convinced.
