

CHRISTMAS NUMBER

Canadian Churchman

A National Church of England Weekly

Volume 47

TORONTO, DECEMBER 16th, 1920

No. 51

THE MARKET PLACE AT BETHLEHEM

er 9, 1920.

ire

Ring-Necked
Miller; pub-
and Co. "Boy
e," by Leon H.
he Bruce Pub-
Wis.

Girls

I missed you
t it was—well,
t time slips by
people don't al-
weeks instead
wonder if you
e in our house.
Directly De-
nd the corner,
realize how close
y get busy ac-
you who live in
marvellous the
beautiful toys
Even your old
acted one night
was walking up
a huge Teddy-
top of a great ly revolving so
all the beautiful

ondering if he
ut 3 o'clock in
e didn't revolve
ave him a little
I wonder which
to this "Christ-
f tiny brothers,
fit into a little
to some poor
There'll be need
e isn't going to
ody this winter,
means that un-
others besides
e of the others
to go without ristmas without
it be awful?
et your next let-
be hundreds of
office. For I am
ristmas visit to
s out west—all the prairies. I
t Santa Claus'
Or does he come
s Bay? I don't
But anyway, it'll
y on the prairies
ty. This minute
l that you might
g instead of win-
ust be kept late

tionate
Cousin Mike.

vertisement out-
e city of Chester,
is not enough for
Church services.
omething more than
to the Church."

R LOT.

ueer lot" is often
he laity, said a
ately-held Church
end, but as the
erbury once said:
ist remember that
laity to choose